7 election in a proceeding brought in the supreme court.

8 2. A proceeding pursuant to this section shall be instituted within

11 3. In a proceeding pursuant to this section the court shall invalidate

16 voters residing in the political subdivision embracing the office
17 contested. Such election shall be held on the fifth Tuesday after the 18 court's order is issued; provided, however, if the fifth Tuesday is a 19 religious, federal or state holiday the new election shall be held on 20 the next succeeding Tuesday thereafter which is not a religious, federal 21 or state holiday.

22 4. All candidates on the ballot at the original election for the 23 contested office shall be on the ballot at the new election; provided,

1 however, if the office contested is one for which a voter may cast
2 multiple votes for two or more candidates for the same office, any

5 been duly elected at the original election, and the number of positions
6 to be elected at the new election shall be reduced accordingly.

7 5. The court may issue an injunction to prevent a candidate from 8 wrongly assuming office until such time as the new election shall be 9 held. The provisions of section five of the public officers law shall

11 6. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit any other 12 rights or remedies available in law or equity or pursuant to this chap-13 ter.

14 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to any 15 election held on or after such effective date.
