- 1 (i) the consumer credit reporting agency receives a request from the 2 protected consumer's representative for the placement of the security 3 freeze under this section; and
 - (ii) the protected consumer's representative:
- 5 (A) submits the request to the consumer credit reporting agency at the 6 address or other point of contact and in the manner specified under 7 subdivision (a) of this section;
- (B) provides to the consumer credit reporting agency sufficient proof 8 9 of identification of the consumer and the representative;
- 10 (C) provides to the consumer credit reporting agency sufficient proof 11 of authority to act on behalf of the protected consumer; and
- (D) pays to the consumer credit reporting agency a fee as provided in 12 13 subdivision (h) of this section.
 - 2. If a consumer credit reporting agency does not have a file pertaining to a protected consumer when the consumer credit reporting agency receives a request under paragraph one of this subdivision, the consumer credit reporting agency shall create a record for the protected consum-
 - (c) 1. Within thirty days after receiving a request that meets the requirements of paragraph one of subdivision (b) of this section, a consumer credit reporting agency shall place a security freeze for the protected consumer.
 - 2. The consumer credit reporting agency shall send a written confirmation of the placement of the security freeze to a protected customer's representative within five business days of placing such freeze.
 - (d) Unless a security freeze for a protected consumer is removed in accordance with subdivision (f) or (i) of this section, a consumer credit reporting agency may not release the protected consumer's consumer credit report, any information derived from the protected consumer's consumer credit report, or any record created for the protected consum-
- 32 (e) A security freeze for a protected consumer placed under subdivi-33 sion (c) of this section shall remain in effect until:
 - 1. the protected consumer or the protected consumer's representative requests the consumer credit reporting agency to remove the security freeze in accordance with subdivision (f) of this section; or
- 2. the security freeze is removed in accordance with subdivision (i) 37 38 of this section.
- (f) If a protected consumer or a protected consumer's representative wishes to remove a security freeze for the protected consumer, the 40 protected consumer or the protected consumer's representative shall:
- 42 1. submit a request for the removal of the security freeze to the 43 consumer credit reporting agency at the address or other point of 44 contact and in the manner specified by the consumer credit reporting 45 agency;
 - 2. provide to the consumer credit reporting agency:
 - (i) in the case of a request by the protected consumer:
- 48 (A) proof that the sufficient proof of authority for the protected consumer's representative to act on behalf of the protected consumer is 49 50 no longer valid; and
 - (B) sufficient proof of identification of the protected consumer; or
- (ii) in the case of a request by the representative of a protected 52 53 consumer:
- 54 (A) sufficient proof of identification of the protected consumer and 55 the representative; and

(B) sufficient proof of authority to act on behalf of the protected consumer; and

- (C) pay to the consumer credit reporting agency a fee as provided in subdivision (h) of this section.
 - (g) Within thirty days after receiving a request that meets the requirements of subdivision (f) of this section, the consumer credit reporting agency shall remove the security freeze for the protected consumer.
- 9 (h) 1. Except as provided in paragraph two of this subdivision, a
 10 consumer credit reporting agency may not charge a fee for any service
 11 performed under this section.
 - 2. A consumer credit reporting agency may charge a reasonable fee, not exceeding five dollars, for each placement or removal of a security freeze for a protected consumer.
- 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph two of this subdivision, a consumer credit reporting agency may not charge any fee under this section if the protected consumer's representative:
 - (i) has obtained a report of alleged identity fraud against the protected consumer; and
 - (ii) provides a copy of the report to the consumer credit reporting agency.
 - (i) A consumer credit reporting agency may remove a security freeze for a protected consumer or delete a record of a protected consumer if the security freeze was placed or the record was created based on a material misrepresentation of fact by the protected consumer or the protected consumer's representative.
 - (j) When a consumer credit reporting agency erroneously releases a protected consumer's consumer credit report subject to a security freeze or any information contained in such consumer credit report, the consumer credit reporting agency shall send written notification to the affected protected consumer's representative within three business days following discovery or notification of such erroneous release. Such notification shall also inform the protected consumer of the nature of the information released and identify and provide contact information for the recipient of such information or consumer credit report.
- 36 (k) Whenever there shall be a violation of this section, application 37 may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the 38 state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a special proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the defendant of 39 not less than five days, to enjoin and restrain the continuance of such 40 41 violations; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or 42 justice that the defendant has, in fact, violated this section, an injunction may be issued by such court or justice, enjoining and 43 restraining any further violation, without requiring proof that any 44 person has, in fact, been injured or damaged thereby. In any such 45 46 proceeding, the court may make allowances to the attorney general as provided in paragraph six of subdivision (a) of section eighty-three 47 hundred three of the civil practice law and rules, and direct restitu-48 tion. Whenever the court shall determine that a violation of this 49 section has occurred, the court may impose a civil penalty of not more 50 51 than five thousand dollars for each violation. In connection with any such proposed application, the attorney general is authorized to take 52 53 proof and make a determination of the relevant facts and to issue 54 subpoenas in accordance with the civil practice law and rules.
- 55 § 4. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 56 have become a law.
