read once and referred to the Committee on Election Law

AN ACT to amend the election law, in relation to proceedings with respect to designating and nominating petitions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 16-102 of the election law, as 2 amended by chapter 79 of the laws of 1992, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 2. A proceeding with respect to a petition shall be instituted (a)
5 within fourteen days after the last day to file the petition, ~~(b)~~ (b) 6 within three business days after the officer or board with whom or which 7 such petition was filed, makes a determination of invalidity with 8 respect to such petition, or (c) within three business days after the 9 proper service of pleadings for a timely invalidation proceeding, which-10 ever is later; except that a proceeding with respect to a petition for a 11 village election or an independent nomination for a special election 12 shall be instituted within seven days after the last day to file the 13 petition for such village election or independent nomination or within 14 three business days after the officer or board with whom or which such 15 petition was filed, makes a determination of invalidity with respect to 16 such petition, whichever is later. A proceeding with respect to a prima-17 ry, convention, meeting of a party committee, or caucus shall be insti-18 tuted within ten days after the holding of such primary or convention or 19 the filing of the certificate of nominations made at such caucus or 20 meeting of a party committee.

21 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
