IN ASSEMBLY

January 29, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. ABINANTI -- read once and referred to the Committee on Real Property Taxation

AN ACT relating to establishing the real property tax exemption task force, and providing for its powers and duties

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Real property tax exemption task force. There is hereby 2 established within the department of taxation and finance a real property
3 tax exemption task force. The purpose of the task force shall be to 4 study and prepare a report which shall include, but not be limited to 5 the following:

6 (a) the types and classifications of New York real properties that can 7 and have been granted tax exemptions;

8 (b) the number of each type and classification of real property granted 9 a partial exemption and the number granted a full exemption and the 10 total value of each;

11 (c) the process by which each type and classification has been or can 12 be granted a tax exemption;

13 (d) the types and classifications of real property, if any, required 14 by federal law to be given a tax exemption;

15 (e) the number of real properties that have been given tax exemptions
16 by industrial development agencies and the total value of these tax 17 exemptions; and

18 (f) recommendations as to whether the types and classifications
19 permitting such tax exemptions should be continued or reformed.

20 § 2. The real property tax exemption task force shall consist of a 21 total of seven members and shall include: the commissioner of taxation 22 and finance or his or her designee; the comptroller or his or her designee;
23 the attorney general or his or her designee; one person appointed 24 by the temporary president of the senate; one person appointed by the 25 minority leader of the senate; one person appointed by the speaker of

1 the assembly; and one person appointed by the minority leader of the 2 assembly. All appointees to the real property tax exemption task force 3 shall be made no later than thirty days after the effective date of this 4 act. Any vacancy shall be filled by the appointing authority.

5 § 3. The members of the real property tax exemption task force shall 6 serve without compensation, except that members shall be allowed their 7 necessary and actual expenses incurred in the performance of their 8 duties under this act.

9 § 4. The department of taxation and finance shall provide the real 10 property tax exemption task force with such facilities, assistance, and 11 data as will enable such task force to carry out its powers and duties.

12 § 5. The real property tax exemption task force shall issue a report 13 of its findings and recommendations to the legislature within six months 14 of its establishment.

15 § 6. This act shall take effect immediately.
