1 Section 1. The state administrative procedure act is amended by adding 2 a new section 208 to read as follows:

3 § 208. Public petitions for rule making. 1. Any person or persons may 4 petition an agency to request the adoption, amendment, or repeal of a

6 2. A petition shall meet the following minimum requirements:

7 (a) the petition shall include the full name and address of each peti-8 tioner and of any entity or organization with which the petitioner is 9 affiliated; and if there are multiple petitioners shall identify the 10 person to whom communications concerning the petition should be 11 directed;

12 (b) the text of any proposed changes to the current rules shall be 13 submitted in a manner that clearly identifies the words to be added to 14 or deleted from the current rules of the agency;

15 (c) the petition shall identify the statutory authority for the 16 proposed rule;

17 (d) the petition shall indicate the justification for the proposed 18 rule, including an identification of the public benefit of the adoption, 19 amendment or repeal;

21 be submitted to each such agency; and

LBD05781-01-9

1 (f) the petition shall be limited to one rule or a related series of 2 rules and shall not concern any matter which is the subject of a current 3 notice of proposed rule making or notice of emergency adoption.

4 3. An agency shall maintain a publicly available file of petitions 5 submitted to it pursuant to this section and shall:

6 (a) post information on its website on how petitions may be submitted 7 to the agency and how the public may comment on such petitions;

8 (b) post a notice within thirty days of receipt of a petition that 9 includes the full text or a summary thereof; and

10 (c) shall post within thirty days of issuance a written denial of a
11 petition.

12 4. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subdivision, an 13 agency shall not be required to take any action in response to a peti-14 tion, but may in its discretion publish a notice of proposed rule making 15 or a written denial of a petition or may solicit additional information, 16 through the conduct of public hearings or otherwise, on the merits of a 17 petition.

18 (b) Within one hundred eighty days of receipt of a petition meeting 19 the requirements of this section that has been signed by one hundred or 20 more residents of the state, an agency shall either deny the petition in 21 writing, stating its reasons for denial, or issue a notice of proposed 22 rule making in accordance with this article. Such notice of proposed 23 rule making shall include information on the initiating petition and 24 shall be submitted for publication in the state register within two 25 hundred seventy days of receipt of such petition. The agency may vary 26 the text of the proposed rule from the text submitted with the petition.

27 (c) Denial of a petition on the basis that it does not meet the mini-28 imum requirements of this section does not preclude the submission of a 29 new petition on the same subject that seeks to correct any deficiencies.

30 5. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to limit or modify the 31 applicability of any other provision of law concerning petitions for the 32 adoption, modification or revocation of rules, including but not limited 33 to section thirty-six-a of the agriculture and markets law and section 34 six hundred seventy-six of the labor law.

35 § 2. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-
36 ing the date on which it shall have become a law.
