24 A reporting individual need not disclose activities performed while 25 lawfully acting in his or her capacity as provided in paragraphs (c), 26 (d), (e) and (f) of subdivision seven of section seventy-three of this 27 article.

28 The disclosure requirement in questions (b-1) and (b-2) shall not 29 require disclosing clients or customers receiving medical, pharmaceu-30 tical or dental services, mental health services, or residential real 31 estate brokering services from the reporting individual or his or her 32 firm or if federal law prohibits or limits disclosure. The reporting 33 individual need not identify any client to whom he or she or his or her 34 firm provided legal representation with respect to investigation or 35 prosecution by law enforcement authorities, bankruptcy, family court, 36 estate planning, or domestic relations matters, nor shall the reporting

 41 law to be kept confidential (such as matters governed by the family

 43 provides services to minors, the client's name may be replaced with 44 initials. To the extent that the reporting individual, or his or her 45 firm, provided legal representation with respect to an initial public 46 offering, and professional disciplinary rules, federal law or regu-
 47 lations restrict the disclosure of information relating to such work,

1 the reporting individual shall (i) disclose the identity of the client 2 and the services provided relating to the initial public offering to the 3 office of court administration, who will maintain such information

6 sure to the office of court administration has been made. Upon such time 7 that the disclosure of information maintained in the locked box is no 8 longer restricted by professional disciplinary rules, federal law or 9 regulation, the reporting individual shall disclose such information in 10 an amended disclosure statement in response to the disclosure require-11 ments in questions (b-1) and (b-2). The office of court administration 12 shall develop and maintain a secure portal through which information 13 submitted to it pursuant to this paragraph can be safely and confiden-14 tially stored. With respect to clients represented in other matters not 15 otherwise exempt, the reporting individual may request an exemption to 16 publicly disclosing the name of that client from the joint commission 17 pursuant to paragraph (i-1) of subdivision nine of section ninety-four 18 of the executive law, or from the office of court administration. In 19 such application, the reporting individual shall state the following:
20 "My client is not currently receiving my services or seeking my services 21 in connection with:

22 (i) A proposed bill or resolution in the senate or assembly during the

28 (iv) A grant obtained through a legislative initiative during the 29 reporting period; or

30 (v) A case, proceeding, application or other matter that is not a
31 ministerial matter before a state agency during the reporting period."

32 In reviewing the request for an exemption, the joint commission or the 33 office of court administration may consult with bar or other profes-
34 sional associations and the legislative ethics commission for individ-
35 uals subject to its jurisdiction and may consider the rules of profes-
36 sional conduct. In making its determination, the joint commission or the 37 office of court administration shall conduct its own inquiry and shall 38 consider factors including, but not limited to: (i) the nature and the 39 size of the client; (ii) whether the client has any business before the 40 state; and if so, how significant the business is; and whether the 41 client has any particularized interest in pending legislation and if so
42 how significant the interest is; (iii) whether disclosure may reveal
43 trade secrets; (iv) whether disclosure could reasonably result in retal-
44 iation against the client; (v) whether disclosure may cause undue harm 45 to the client; (vi) whether disclosure may result in undue harm to the 46 attorney-client relationship; and (vii) whether disclosure may result in 47 an unnecessary invasion of privacy to the client.

48 The joint commission or, as the case may be, the office of court
49 administration shall promptly make a final determination in response to 50 such request, which shall include an explanation for its determination.
51 The office of court administration shall issue its final determination
52 within three days of receiving the request. Notwithstanding any other 53 provision of law or any professional disciplinary rule to the contrary, 54 the disclosure of the identity of any client or customer in response to 55 this question shall not constitute professional misconduct or a ground 56 for disciplinary action of any kind, or form the basis for any civil or

1 criminal cause of action or proceeding. A reporting individual who first 2 enters public office after January first, two thousand sixteen, need not 3 report clients or customers with respect to matters for which the 4 reporting individual or his or her firm was retained prior to entering 5 public office.

6 (c) APPLICABLE ONLY TO NEW CLIENTS OR CUSTOMERS FOR WHOM SERVICES ARE 7 PROVIDED ON OR AFTER DECEMBER THIRTY-FIRST, TWO THOUSAND FIFTEEN, OR FOR 8 NEW MATTERS FOR EXISTING CLIENTS OR CUSTOMERS WITH RESPECT TO THOSE 9 SERVICES THAT ARE PROVIDED ON OR AFTER DECEMBER THIRTY-FIRST, TWO THOU-10 SAND FIFTEEN:

15 vidual's business and from whom the reporting individual or firm
16 received a fee for services in excess of five thousand dollars. Report 17 only those referrals that were made to a reporting individual by direct 18 communication from a person known to such reporting individual to be a 19 registered lobbyist at the time the referral is made. With respect to 20 each such referral, the reporting individual shall identify the client, 21 the registered lobbyist who has made the referral, the category of value 22 of the compensation received and a general description of the type of 23 matter so referred. A reporting individual need not disclose activities 24 performed while lawfully acting pursuant to paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and 25 (f) of subdivision seven of section seventy-three of this article. The 26 disclosure requirements in this question shall not require disclosing 27 clients or customers receiving medical, pharmaceutical or dental 28 services, mental health services, or residential real estate brokering 29 services from the reporting individual or his or her firm or if federal 30 law prohibits or limits disclosure. The reporting individual need not 31 identify any client to whom he or she or his or her firm provided legal 32 representation with respect to investigation or prosecution by law 33 enforcement authorities, bankruptcy, family court, estate planning, or 34 domestic relations matters, nor shall the reporting individual identify 35 individuals represented pursuant to an insurance policy but the report-36 ing individual shall in such circumstances only report the entity that 37 provides compensation to the reporting individual; with respect to 38 matters in which the client's name is required by law to be kept confi-39 dential (such as matters governed by the family court act) or in matters 40 in which the reporting individual represents or provides services to 41 minors, the client's name may be replaced with initials. To the extent 42 that the reporting individual, or his or her firm, provided legal repre-43 sentation with respect to an initial public offering, and federal law or 44 regulations restricts the disclosure of information relating to such 45 work, the reporting individual shall (i) disclose the identity of the 46 client and the services provided relating to the initial public offering 47 to the office of court administration, who will maintain such informa-48 tion confidentially in a locked box; and (ii) include in his or her 49 response a statement that pursuant to this paragraph, a disclosure to 50 the office of court administration has been made. Upon such time that 51 the disclosure of information maintained in the locked box is no longer 52 restricted by federal law or regulation, the reporting individual shall 53 disclose such information in an amended disclosure statement in response 54 to the disclosure requirements of this paragraph. The office of court 55 administration shall develop and maintain a secure portal through which 56 information submitted to it pursuant to this paragraph can be safely and

1 confidentially stored. With respect to clients represented in other 2 matters not otherwise exempt, the reporting individual may request an 3 exemption to publicly disclosing the name of that client from the joint 4 commission pursuant to paragraph (i-1) of subdivision nine of section 5 ninety-four of the executive law, or from the office of court adminis-6 tration. In such application, the reporting individual shall state the 7 following: "My client is not currently receiving my services or seeking 8 my services in connection with:

9 (i) A proposed bill or resolution in the senate or assembly during the 10 reporting period;

11 (ii) A contract in an amount totaling $10,000 or more from the state 12 or any state agency for services, materials, or property;

13 (iii) A grant of $10,000 or more from the state or any state agency 14 during the reporting period;

15 (iv) A grant obtained through a legislative initiative during the 16 reporting period; or

17 (v) A case, proceeding, application or other matter that is not a
18 ministerial matter before a state agency during the reporting period."

19 In reviewing the request for an exemption, the joint commission or the 20 office of court administration may consult with bar or other profes-
21 sional associations and the legislative ethics commission for individ-
22 uals subject to its jurisdiction and may consider the rules of profes-
23 sional conduct. In making its determination, the joint commission or the
26 size of the client; (ii) whether the client has any business before the 27 state; and if so, how significant the business is; and whether the
29 how significant the interest is; (iii) whether disclosure may reveal
30 trade secrets; (iv) whether disclosure could reasonably result in retal-
31 iation against the client; (v) whether disclosure may cause undue harm
32 to the client; (vi) whether disclosure may result in undue harm to the 33 attorney-client relationship; and (vii) whether disclosure may result in 34 an unnecessary invasion of privacy to the client.

35 The joint commission or, as the case may be, the office of court
36 administration shall promptly make a final determination in response to 37 such request, which shall include an explanation for its determination.
38 The office of court administration shall issue its final determination
39 within three days of receiving the request. Notwithstanding any other 40 provision of law or any professional disciplinary rule to the contrary,
41 the disclosure of the identity of any client or customer in response to 42 this question shall not constitute professional misconduct or a ground
43 for disciplinary action of any kind, or form the basis for any civil or 44 criminal cause of action or proceeding. A reporting individual who first 45 enters public office after December thirty-first, two thousand fifteen, 46 need not report clients or customers with respect to matters for which 47 the reporting individual or his or her firm was retained prior to enter-
