1 (3) any internal rule promulgated by the employer pursuant to any 2 statute or ordinance; or (4) any judicial or administrative decision, ruling or order. 3 4 2. Retaliatory action prohibited. Notwithstanding any other provision 5 of law, no employer shall take retaliatory action against any employee б because the employee does any of the following: 7 (a) discloses or threatens to disclose to a supervisor, agent or to a 8 public body an activity, policy or practice of the employer or agent 9 that the employee, in good faith, reasonably believes constitutes 10 improper quality of patient care; [er] 11 (b) provides information to, or testifies before, any public body conducting an investigation, hearing or inquiry into any violation or 12 13 action described in subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of subdivision two 14 of section seventy-five-b of the civil service law; or 15 (c) objects to, or refuses to participate in any activity, policy or 16 practice of the employer or agent that the employee, in good faith, 17 reasonably believes constitutes improper quality of patient care. 3. [Application. The protection against retaliatory personnel action 18 provided by subdivision two of this section shall not apply unless the 19 employee has brought the improper quality of patient care to the atten-20 21 tion of a supervisor and has afforded the employer a reasonable opportunity to correct such activity, policy or practice. This subdivision 22 shall not apply to an action or failure to act described in paragraph 23 (a) of subdivision two of this section where the improper quality of 24 patient care described therein presents an imminent threat to public 25 26 health or safety or to the health of a specific patient and the employee 27 reasonably believes in good faith that reporting to a supervisor would not result in corrective action. 28 29 4. Enforcement. A health care employee may seek enforcement of this 30 section pursuant to paragraph (d) of subdivision four of section seven 31 hundred forty of this article. 32 5.] Relief. In any court action brought pursuant to this section it 33 shall be a defense that the personnel action was predicated upon grounds other than the employee's exercise of any rights protected by this 34 35 section. 36 § 3. Subdivision 2 of section 75-b of the civil service law, as added 37 by chapter 660 of the laws of 1984 and paragraph (a) as amended by chap-38 ter 899 of the laws of 1986, is amended to read as follows: 39 2. (a) A public employer shall not dismiss, suspend, demote, penalize or discriminate against, or take other disciplinary or other [adverse 40 41 personnel action act of reprisal against a public employee regarding 42 the employee's employment because the employee: 43 (i) discloses or threatens to disclose to a supervisor, governmental 44 body [information:(i) regarding a violation of a law, rule or regulation 45 which violation creates and presents a substantial and specific danger 46 to the public health or safety; or (ii) which the employee reasonably 47 believes to be true and reasonably believes], agency or to the public 48 any conduct which constitutes an improper governmental action. ["Improper governmental action" shall mean any action by a public employer or 49 employee, or an agent of such employer or employee, which is undertaken 50 in the performance of such agent's official duties, whether or not such 51 action is within the scope of his employment, and which is in violation 52 53 of any federal, state or local law, rule or regulation. 54 (ii) provides information to, or testifies before, any public body conducting an investigation, hearing or inquiry into any improper 55 56 governmental action; or

21	paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subdivision, or where an employee is not
22	subject to any of the provisions of [paragraph (a) or (b) of this subdi-
23	vision] such paragraphs, the employee may commence an action in a court
24	of competent jurisdiction under the same terms and conditions and for
25	the same relief as set forth in article twenty-C of the labor law.
26	§ 5. Section 75-b of the civil service law is amended by adding a new
27	subdivision 5 to read as follows:
28	5. Every public employer shall inform employees of their protections,
29	rights and obligations under this section, by posting a notice thereof.
30	Such notices shall be posted conspicuously in easily accessible and
31	highly visible areas frequently visited by employees and applicants for
32	employment.
33	§ 6. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall
34	have become a law.
