7 the public officers law has failed to file such a statement, has filed a 8 deficient statement or has filed a statement which reveals a possible 9 violation of section 73, 73-a or 74 of the public officers law.

10 (b) If a person required to file a financial disclosure statement with 11 the commission has failed to file a disclosure statement or has filed a 12 deficient statement, the commission shall notify the reporting person in 13 writing, state the failure to file or detail the deficiency, provide the 14 person with a fifteen day period to cure the deficiency, and advise the 15 person of the penalties for failure to comply with the reporting 16 requirements. Such notice shall be confidential. If the person fails to 17 make such filing or fails to cure the deficiency within the specified 18 time period, the commission shall send a notice of delinquency: (1) to 19 the reporting person; (2) in the case of a statewide elected official, 20 to the temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assem-21 bly; and (3) in the case of a state officer or employee, to the appoint-22 ing authority for such person. Such notice of delinquency may be sent at 23 any time during the reporting person's service as a statewide elected 24 official, state officer or employee, political party chair or while a 25 candidate for statewide office, or within one year after termination of 26 such service or candidacy. The jurisdiction of the commission, when 27 acting pursuant to subdivision (d) of this section with respect to 28 financial disclosure, shall continue notwithstanding that the reporting 29 person separates from state service, or ceases to hold office as a 30 statewide elected official or political party chair, or ceases to be a 31 candidate, provided the commission notifies such person of the alleged 32 failure to file or deficient filing pursuant to this subdivision.

33 (c)(1) If the commission receives a sworn complaint alleging a 34 violation of section 73, 73-a or 74 of the public officers law, section 35 107 of the civil service law or article 1-A of the legislative law by a 36 person or entity subject to the jurisdiction of the commission, or if a 37 reporting individual has filed a statement which reveals a possible 38 violation of these provisions, or if the commission determines on its 39 own initiative to investigate a possible violation, the commission shall 40 notify the individual in writing, describe the possible or alleged 41 violation of such laws and provide the person with a fifteen day period 42 in which to submit a written response setting forth information relating 43 to the activities cited as a possible or alleged violation of law. If 44 the commission thereafter makes a determination that further inquiry is 45 justified, it shall give the individual an opportunity to be heard. The 46 commission shall also inform the individual of its rules regarding the 47 conduct of adjudicatory proceedings and appeals and the due process 48 procedural mechanisms available to such individual. If the commission 49 determines at any stage of the proceeding that there is no violation or 50 that any potential conflict of interest violation has been rectified, it 51 shall so advise the individual and the complainant, if any. All of the 52 foregoing proceedings shall be confidential.

53 (2) If the commission determines that there is reasonable cause to 54 believe that a violation has occurred, it shall send a notice of reason-55 able cause: (i) to the reporting person; (ii) to the complainant if any; 56 (iii) in the case of a statewide elected official, to the temporary

1 president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly; and (iv) in the 2 case of a state officer or employee, to the appointing authority for 3 such person.

4 (3) The jurisdiction of the commission when acting pursuant to this 5 act shall continue notwithstanding that a statewide elected official or 6 a state officer or employee separates from state service, or a political 7 party chair ceases to hold such office, or a candidate ceases to be a 8 candidate, or a lobbyist or client of a lobbyist ceases to act as such, 9 provided that the commission notifies such individual or entity of the 10 alleged violation of law pursuant to paragraph one of this subdivision 11 within one year from his or her separation from state service or his or 12 her termination of party service or candidacy, or from his, her or its 13 last report filed pursuant to article 1-A of the legislative law. Noth-14 ing in this section shall serve to limit the jurisdiction of the commis-15 sion in enforcement of subdivision 8 of section 73 of the public offi-16 cers law.

17 (d) An individual subject to the jurisdiction of the commission who 18 knowingly and intentionally violates the provisions of subdivisions 2 19 through 5, 7, 8, 12 or 14 through 17 of section 73 of the public offi-20 cers law, section 107 of the civil service law, or a reporting individ-21 ual who knowingly and wilfully fails to file an annual statement of 22 financial disclosure or who knowingly and wilfully with intent to 23 deceive makes a false statement or fraudulent omission or gives informa-24 tion which such individual knows to be false on such statement of finan-25 cial disclosure filed pursuant to section 73-a of the public officers 26 law shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed 27 $40,000 and the value of any gift, compensation or benefit received as a 28 result of such violation. An individual who knowingly and intentionally 29 violates the provisions of paragraphs b, c, d or i of subdivision 3 of 30 section 74 of the public officers law shall be subject to a civil penal-31 ty in an amount not to exceed $10,000 and the value of any gift, compen-32 sation or benefit received as a result of such violation. An individual 33 who knowingly and intentionally violates the provisions of paragraphs a, 34 e or g of subdivision 3 of section 74 of the public officers law shall 35 be subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed the value of 36 any gift, compensation or benefit received as a result of such 37 violation. An individual subject to the jurisdiction of the commission 38 who knowingly and wilfully violates article 1-A of the legislative law 39 shall be subject to civil penalty as provided for in that article.
40 Assessment of a civil penalty pursuant to this section shall be made by 41 the commission with respect to persons subject to its jurisdiction. In 42 assessing the amount of the civil penalties to be imposed, the commis-43 sion shall consider the seriousness of the violation, the amount of gain 44 to the individual and whether the individual previously had any civil or 45 criminal penalties imposed pursuant to this section, and any other 46 factors the commission deems appropriate. For a violation of this subdivi-47 sion, other than for conduct which constitutes a violation of section 48 107 of the civil service law, subdivisions 12 or 14 through 17 of 49 section 73 or section 74 of the public officers law or article 1-A of 50 the legislative law, the commission may, in lieu of a civil penalty, 51 refer a violation to the appropriate prosecutor and upon such 52 conviction, such violation shall be punishable as a class A misdemeanor.
53 A civil penalty for false filing may not be imposed pursuant to this 54 section in the event a category of "value" or "amount" reported pursuant 55 to this section is incorrect unless such reported information is falsely 56 understated. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, no other penalty, civil or criminal may be imposed for a failure to file, or for a false filing, of such statement, or a violation of section 73 of the public officers law, except that the appointing authority may impose disciplinary action as otherwise provided by law. The commission may refer violations of this section to the appointing authority for disciplinary action as otherwise provided by law. The commission shall be deemed to be an agency within the meaning of article 3 of the state administrative procedure act and shall adopt rules governing the conduct of adjudicatory proceedings and appeals taken pursuant to a proceeding commenced under article 78 of the civil practice law and rules relating to the assessment of the civil penalties authorized by this subdivision and commission denials of requests for certain deletions or exemptions to be made from a financial disclosure statement as authorized by this act. Such rules, which shall not be subject to the approval requirements of the state administrative procedure act, shall provide for due process procedural mechanisms substantially similar to those set forth in article 3 of the state administrative procedure act but such mechanisms need not be identical in terms or scope. Assessment of a civil penalty or commission denial of such a request shall be final unless modified, suspended or vacated within thirty days of imposition, with respect to the assessment of such penalty, or unless such denial of request is reversed within such time period, and upon becoming final shall be subject to review at the instance of the affected reporting individuals in a proceeding commenced against the commission, pursuant to article 78 of the civil practice law and rules.

(e) If the commission has a reasonable basis to believe that any person subject to the jurisdiction of the legislative ethics commission may have violated any provisions of section 73 or 74 of the public officers law, it may refer such violation to the legislative ethics commission. The referral by the commission to the legislative ethics commission shall include any information relating thereto coming into the custody or under the control of the commission at any time prior or subsequent to the time of the referral.

(f) A copy of any notice of delinquency or notice of reasonable cause sent pursuant to subdivisions (b) and (c) of this section shall be included in the reporting person's file and be available for public inspection and copying.

4 A reporting individual need not disclose activities performed while 5 lawfully acting in his or her capacity as provided in paragraphs (c), 6 (d), (e) and (f) of subdivision seven of section seventy-three of this 7 article.

8 The disclosure requirement in questions (b-1) and (b-2) shall not 9 require disclosing clients or customers receiving medical, pharmaceu-10 tical or dental services, mental health services, or residential real 11 estate brokering services from the reporting individual or his or her 12 firm or if federal law prohibits or limits disclosure. The reporting 13 individual need not identify any client to whom he or she or his or her 14 firm provided legal representation with respect to investigation or 15 prosecution by law enforcement authorities, bankruptcy, family court, 16 estate planning, or domestic relations matters, nor shall the reporting 17 individual identify individuals represented pursuant to an insurance 18 policy but the reporting individual shall in such circumstances only 19 report the entity that provides compensation to the reporting individ-20 ual; with respect to matters in which the client's name is required by 21 law to be kept confidential (such as matters governed by the family 22 court act) or in matters in which the reporting individual represents or 23 provides services to minors, the client's name may be replaced with 24 initials. To the extent that the reporting individual, or his or her 25 firm, provided legal representation with respect to an initial public 26 offering, and professional disciplinary rules, federal law or regu-27 lations restrict the disclosure of information relating to such work, 28 the reporting individual shall (i) disclose the identity of the client 29 and the services provided relating to the initial public offering to the 30 office of court administration, who will maintain such information 31 confidentially in a locked box; and (ii) include in his or her response 32 to questions (b-1) and (b-2) that pursuant to this paragraph, a disclo-33 sure to the office of court administration has been made. Upon such time 34 that the disclosure of information maintained in the locked box is no 35 longer restricted by professional disciplinary rules, federal law or 36 regulation, the reporting individual shall disclose such information in 37 an amended disclosure statement in response to the disclosure require-38 ments in questions (b-1) and (b-2). The office of court administration 39 shall develop and maintain a secure portal through which information 40 submitted to it pursuant to this paragraph can be safely and confiden-41 tially stored. With respect to clients represented in other matters not 42 otherwise exempt, the reporting individual may request an exemption to 43 publicly disclosing the name of that client from the [joint] commission 44 ~~[pursuant to paragraph (i-1) of subdivision nine of section ninety-four~~ 45 ~~of the executive law]~~ on official conduct, or from the office of court 46 administration. In such application, the reporting individual shall 47 state the following: "My client is not currently receiving my services 48 or seeking my services in connection with:

49 (i) A proposed bill or resolution in the senate or assembly during the 50 reporting period;

3 (iv) A grant obtained through a legislative initiative during the 4 reporting period; or

5 (v) A case, proceeding, application or other matter that is not a 6 ministerial matter before a state agency during the reporting period."

7 In reviewing the request for an exemption, the [~~joint~~] commission on 8 official conduct or the office of court administration may consult with 9 bar or other professional associations and the legislative ethics 10 commission for individuals subject to its jurisdiction and may consider 11 the rules of professional conduct. In making its determination, the 12 [~~joint~~] commission on official conduct or the office of court adminis-13 tration shall conduct its own inquiry and shall consider factors includ-14 ing, but not limited to: (i) the nature and the size of the client; (ii) 15 whether the client has any business before the state; and if so, how 16 significant the business is; and whether the client has any particular-17 ized interest in pending legislation and if so how significant the 18 interest is; (iii) whether disclosure may reveal trade secrets; (iv) 19 whether disclosure could reasonably result in retaliation against the 20 client; (v) whether disclosure may cause undue harm to the client; (vi) 21 whether disclosure may result in undue harm to the attorney-client 22 relationship; and (vii) whether disclosure may result in an unnecessary 23 invasion of privacy to the client.

24 The [~~joint~~] commission on official conduct or, as the case may be, the 25 office of court administration shall promptly make a final determination 26 in response to such request, which shall include an explanation for its 27 determination. The office of court administration shall issue its final 28 determination within three days of receiving the request. Notwithstand-29 ing any other provision of law or any professional disciplinary rule to 30 the contrary, the disclosure of the identity of any client or customer 31 in response to this question shall not constitute professional miscon-32 duct or a ground for disciplinary action of any kind, or form the basis 33 for any civil or criminal cause of action or proceeding. A reporting 34 individual who first enters public office after January first, two thou-35 sand sixteen, need not report clients or customers with respect to 36 matters for which the reporting individual or his or her firm was 37 retained prior to entering public office.

38 (c) APPLICABLE ONLY TO NEW CLIENTS OR CUSTOMERS FOR WHOM SERVICES ARE 39 PROVIDED ON OR AFTER DECEMBER THIRTY-FIRST, TWO THOUSAND FIFTEEN, OR FOR

46 individual a client who was successfully referred to the reporting indi-47 vidual's business and from whom the reporting individual or firm 48 received a fee for services in excess of five thousand dollars. Report 49 only those referrals that were made to a reporting individual by direct 50 communication from a person known to such reporting individual to be a 51 registered lobbyist at the time the referral is made. With respect to 52 each such referral, the reporting individual shall identify the client, 53 the registered lobbyist who has made the referral, the category of value 54 of the compensation received and a general description of the type of 55 matter so referred. A reporting individual need not disclose activities 56 performed while lawfully acting pursuant to paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and

(f) of subdivision seven of section seventy-three of this article. The disclosure requirements in this question shall not require disclosing clients or customers receiving medical, pharmaceutical or dental services, mental health services, or residential real estate brokering services from the reporting individual or his or her firm or if federal law prohibits or limits disclosure. The reporting individual need not identify any client to whom he or she or his or her firm provided legal representation with respect to investigation or prosecution by law enforcement authorities, bankruptcy, family court, estate planning, or domestic relations matters, nor shall the reporting individual identify individuals represented pursuant to an insurance policy but the reporting individual shall in such circumstances only report the entity that provides compensation to the reporting individual; with respect to matters in which the client's name is required by law to be kept confidential (such as matters governed by the family court act) or in matters in which the reporting individual represents or provides services to minors, the client's name may be replaced with initials. To the extent that the reporting individual, or his or her firm, provided legal representation with respect to an initial public offering, and federal law or regulations restricts the disclosure of information relating to such work, the reporting individual shall (i) disclose the identity of the client and the services provided relating to the initial public offering to the office of court administration, who will maintain such information confidentially in a locked box; and (ii) include in his or her response a statement that pursuant to this paragraph, a disclosure to the office of court administration has been made. Upon such time that the disclosure of information maintained in the locked box is no longer restricted by federal law or regulation, the reporting individual shall disclose such information in an amended disclosure statement in response to the disclosure requirements of this paragraph. The office of court administration shall develop and maintain a secure portal through which information submitted to it pursuant to this paragraph can be safely and confidentially stored. With respect to clients represented in other matters not otherwise exempt, the reporting individual may request an exemption to publicly disclosing the name of that client from the ~~[joint] commission [pursuant to paragraph (i-1) of subdivision nine of section ninety-four of the executive law]~~ on official conduct, or from the office of court administration. In such application, the reporting individual shall state the following: "My client is not currently receiving my services or seeking my services in connection with:

(i) A proposed bill or resolution in the senate or assembly during the reporting period;

(ii) A contract in an amount totaling $10,000 or more from the state or any state agency for services, materials, or property;

(iii) A grant of $10,000 or more from the state or any state agency during the reporting period;

(iv) A grant obtained through a legislative initiative during the reporting period; or

(v) A case, proceeding, application or other matter that is not a ministerial matter before a state agency during the reporting period."

In reviewing the request for an exemption, the ~~[joint] commission~~ on official conduct or the office of court administration may consult with bar or other professional associations and the legislative ethics commission for individuals subject to its jurisdiction and may consider the rules of professional conduct. In making its determination, the ~~[joint] commission~~ on official conduct or the office of court administration shall conduct its own inquiry and shall consider factors including, but not limited to: (i) the nature and the size of the client; (ii) whether the client has any business before the state; and if so, how significant the business is; and whether the client has any particularized interest in pending legislation and if so how significant the interest is; (iii) whether disclosure may reveal trade secrets; (iv) whether disclosure could reasonably result in retaliation against the client; (v) whether disclosure may cause undue harm to the client; (vi) whether disclosure may result in undue harm to the attorney-client relationship; and (vii) whether disclosure may result in an unnecessary invasion of privacy to the client.

The ~~[joint]~~ commission on official conduct or, as the case may be, the office of court administration shall promptly make a final determination in response to such request, which shall include an explanation for its determination. The office of court administration shall issue its final determination within three days of receiving the request. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or any professional disciplinary rule to the contrary, the disclosure of the identity of any client or customer in response to this question shall not constitute professional misconduct or a ground for disciplinary action of any kind, or form the basis for any civil or criminal cause of action or proceeding. A reporting individual who first enters public office after December thirty-first, two thousand fifteen, need not report clients or customers with respect to matters for which the reporting individual or his or her firm was retained prior to entering public office.

Assessment of a civil penalty hereunder shall be made by the ~~[joint]~~ commission on ~~[public ethics]~~ official conduct or by the legislative ethics commission, as the case may be, with respect to persons subject to their respective jurisdictions. The ~~[joint]~~ commission on ~~[public ethics acting pursuant to subdivision fourteen of section ninety-four of the executive law]~~ official conduct or the legislative ethics commission acting pursuant to subdivision eleven of section eighty of the legislative law, as the case may be, may, in lieu of or in addition to a civil penalty, refer a violation to the appropriate prosecutor and upon such conviction, but only after such referral, such violation shall be punishable as a class A misdemeanor. A civil penalty for false filing may not be imposed hereunder in the event a category of "value" or

1 "amount" reported hereunder is incorrect unless such reported informa-
2 tion is falsely understated. Notwithstanding any other provision of law 3 to the contrary, no other penalty, civil or criminal may be imposed for 4 a failure to file, or for a false filing, of such statement, except that 5 the appointing authority may impose disciplinary action as otherwise 6 provided by law. The ~~[joint]~~ commission on ~~[public-ethics]~~ official 7 conduct and the legislative ethics commission shall each be deemed to be 8 an agency within the meaning of article three of the state administra-9 tive procedure act and shall adopt rules governing the conduct of adju-10 dicatory proceedings and appeals relating to the assessment of the civil 11 penalties herein authorized. Such rules, which shall not be subject to 12 the approval requirements of the state administrative procedure act, 13 shall provide for due process procedural mechanisms substantially simi-

15 not be identical in terms or scope. Assessment of a civil penalty shall 16 be final unless modified, suspended or vacated within thirty days of 17 imposition and upon becoming final shall be subject to review at the
