IN ASSEMBLY

February 4, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. WEPRIN, O'DONNELL, AUBRY, DE LA ROSA, STECK -- read once and referred to the Committee on Correction

AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to expanding prison work release program eligibility and participation

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 851 of the correction law, as amended by chapter 60 of the laws of 1994, the opening paragraph as amended by chapter 320 of the laws of 2006, the closing paragraph as amended by section 42 of subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

2. "Eligible inmate" means: a person confined in an institution who is 6 7 eligible for release on parole or who will become eligible for release on parole or conditional release within [two] three years. Provided, however, that a person under sentence for an offense defined in para-9 graphs (a) and (b) of subdivision one of section 70.02 of the penal law, 10 11 where such offense involved the use or threatened use of a deadly weapon 12 or dangerous instrument shall not be eligible to participate in a work 13 release program until he or she is eligible for release on parole or who 14 will be eligible for release on parole or conditional release within 15 [eighteen] thirty months. Provided, further, however, that a person under a determinate sentence as a second felony drug offender for a class B felony offense defined in article two hundred twenty of the 17 penal law, who was sentenced pursuant to section 70.70 of such law, 18 shall not be eligible to participate in a temporary release program 19 20 until the time served under imprisonment for his or her determinate sentence, including any jail time credited pursuant to the provisions of 22 article seventy of the penal law, shall be at least eighteen months. In the case of a person serving an indeterminate sentence of imprisonment 24 imposed pursuant to the penal law in effect after September one, nine-25 teen hundred sixty-seven, for the purposes of this article parole eligibility shall be upon the expiration of the minimum period of imprisonment fixed by the court or where the court has not fixed any period, 3 after service of the minimum period fixed by the state board of parole. 4 [If an inmate is denied release on parole, such inmate shall not be deemed an eligible inmate until he or she is within two years of his or 5 6 her next scheduled appearance before the state parole board. In any 7 case where an inmate is denied release on parole while participating in 8 a temporary release program, the department shall review the status of 9 the inmate to determine if continued placement in the program is appro-10 priate. No person convicted of any escape or absconding offense defined in article two hundred five of the penal law shall be eligible for 11 temporary release. Further, no person under sentence for aggravated 12 13 harassment of an employee by an inmate as defined in section 240.32 of 14 the penal law for, any homicide offense defined in article one hundred 15 twenty-five of the penal law, for any sex offense defined in article one 16 hundred thirty of the penal law, for an act of terrorism as defined in 17 article four hundred ninety of the penal law, for an offense involving the sexual performance of a child as defined in article two hundred 18 sixty-three of the penal law, or for an offense defined in section 19 20 255.25, 255.26 or 255.27 of the penal law shall be eligible to partic-21 ipate in a work release program as defined in subdivision three of this section. Nor shall any person under sentence for any sex offense defined 22 in article one hundred thirty of the penal law be eligible to partic-23 ipate in a community services program as defined in subdivision five of 24 this section. [Notwithstanding the foregoing, no person who is an other-25 26 wise eligible inmate who is under sentence for a crime involving: (a) 27 infliction of serious physical injury upon another as defined in the penal law or (b) any other offense involving the use or threatened use 28 29 of a deadly weapon may participate in a temporary release program with-30 out the written approval of the commissioner.] The commissioner shall 31 promulgate regulations giving direction to the temporary release commit-32 tee at each institution in order to aid such committees in [carrying out 33 this mandate determining which inmates are eligible and appropriate to 34 participate in the temporary release programs. 35

The governor[, by executive order,] may not issue or enforce any executive order to exclude or limit the participation of any class of [otherwise] eligible inmates from participation in a temporary release program. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to affect [either the validity of any executive order previously issued limiting the participation of otherwise eligible inmates in such program or] the authority of the commissioner of the department of corrections and community supervision to impose appropriate regulations [limiting such participation] for determining which inmates are eligible and appropriate to participate in the temporary release programs. The commissioner shall promulgate regulations giving direction to department and transitional services staff with regard to developing and providing programmatic support to temporary release participants with emphasis on the first three months of work release.

- § 2. Subdivision 2 of section 851 of the correction law, as amended by chapter 447 of the laws of 1991, the opening paragraph as amended by chapter 252 of the laws of 2005, and the closing paragraph as amended by section 43 of subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:
- 2. "Eligible inmate" means: a person confined in an institution who is eligible for release on parole or who will become eligible for release on parole or conditional release within [two] three years. Provided, that a person under a determinate sentence as a second felony drug offender for a class B felony offense defined in article two hundred 3 twenty of the penal law, who was sentenced pursuant to section 70.70 of such law, shall not be eligible to participate in a temporary release 4 program until the time served under imprisonment for his or her determi-6 nate sentence, including any jail time credited pursuant to the 7 provisions of article seventy of the penal law, shall be at least eigh-8 teen months. In the case of a person serving an indeterminate sentence 9 imprisonment imposed pursuant to the penal law in effect after 10 September one, nineteen hundred sixty-seven, for the purposes of 11 article parole eligibility shall be upon the expiration of the minimum 12 period of imprisonment fixed by the court or where the court has not 13 fixed any period, after service of the minimum period fixed by the state 14 board of parole. [If an inmate is denied release on parole, such inmate shall not be deemed an eligible inmate until he or she is within two 15 years of his or her next scheduled appearance before the state parole 16 17 board. In any case where an inmate is denied release on parole while 18 participating in a temporary release program, the department shall 19 review the status of the inmate to determine if continued placement in 20 the program is appropriate. No person convicted of any escape or 21 absconding offense defined in article two hundred five of the penal law shall be eligible for temporary release. Further, no person under 22 sentence for aggravated harassment of an employee by an inmate as 23 24 defined in section 240.32 of the penal law for, any homicide offense 25 defined in article one hundred twenty-five of the penal law, for any sex 26 offense defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law, for an 27 act of terrorism as defined in article four hundred ninety of the penal 28 law, for an offense involving the sexual performance of a child as 29 defined in article two hundred sixty-three of the penal law, or for an 30 offense defined in section 255.25, 255.26 or 255.27 of the penal law 31 shall be eligible to participate in a work release program as defined in 32 subdivision three of this section. Nor shall any person under sentence 33 for any sex offense defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal 34 law be eligible to participate in a community services program as 35 defined in subdivision five of this section. [Notwithstanding the fore-36 going, no person who is an otherwise eligible inmate who is under 37 sentence for a crime involving: (a) infliction of serious physical inju-38 ry upon another as defined in the penal law, (b) a sex offense involving forgible compulsion, or (c) any other offense involving the use or 39 threatened use of a deadly weapon may participate in a temporary release 40 program without the written approval of the commissioner.] The commis-41 42 sioner shall promulgate regulations giving direction to the temporary 43 release committee at each institution in order to aid such committees in [carrying out this mandate] determining which inmates are eligible and 44 45 appropriate to participate in the temporary release programs. 46

The governor[ - by executive order, ] may not issue or enforce any executive order to exclude or limit the participation of any class of [etherwise] eligible inmates from participation in a temporary release program. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to affect [either the validity of any executive order previously issued limiting the participation of otherwise eligible inmates in such program or ] the authority of the commissioner to impose appropriate regulations [limiting such participation for determining which inmates are eligible and 54 appropriate to participate in temporary release programs. programmatic support to temporary release participants with emphasis on the first three months of work release.

- § 3. Subdivision 2 of section 851 of the correction law, as added by chapter 472 of the laws of 1969, is amended to read as follows:
- 2. "Eligible inmate" means a person confined in an institution where a work release program has been established who is eligible for release on parole or who will become eligible for release on parole within [ene year] three years.
- § 4. Subdivision 2-a of section 851 of the correction law, as added by chapter 251 of the laws of 2002, is amended to read as follows:
- 10 11 2-a. Notwithstanding subdivision two of this section, the term "eligi-12 inmate" shall also include a person confined in an institution who 13 is eligible for release on parole or who will become eligible for 14 release on parole or conditional release within [two] three years, and who was convicted of a homicide offense as defined in article one 15 16 hundred twenty-five of the penal law [or an assault offense defined in 17 article one hundred twenty of the penal law, ] and who can demonstrate to the commissioner that: (a) the victim of such homicide or assault was a 18 19 member of the inmate's immediate family as that term is defined in 20 section 120.40 of the penal law or had a child in common with the 21 (b) the inmate was subjected to substantial physical, sexual or psychological abuse committed by the victim of such homicide or assault; 22 and (c) such abuse was a substantial factor in causing the inmate to 23 commit such homicide or assault. With respect to an inmate's claim that 24 25 he or she was subjected to substantial physical, sexual or psychological abuse committed by the victim, such demonstration shall include corrobo-27 rative material that may include, but is not limited to, witness statements, social services records, hospital records, law enforcement 28 29 records and a showing based in part on documentation prepared at or near 30 the time of the commission of the offense or the prosecution thereof 31 tending to support the inmate's claim. Prior to making a determination 32 under this subdivision, the commissioner is required to request and take 33 into consideration the opinion of the district attorney who prosecuted 34 the underlying homicide or assault offense and the opinion of the 35 sentencing court. If such opinions are received within forty-five days 36 the request, the commissioner shall take them into consideration. If such opinions are not so received, the commissioner may proceed with the 37 38 determination. Any action by the commissioner pursuant to this subdivi-39 sion shall be deemed a judicial function and shall not be reviewable in 40 any court.
  - § 5. Subdivision 2-b of section 851 of the correction law, as added by chapter 738 of the laws of 2004, is amended to read as follows:
  - 2-b. When calculating in advance the date on which a person is or will be eligible for release on parole or conditional release, for purposes of determining eligibility for temporary release or for placement at an alcohol and substance abuse treatment correctional annex, the commissioner shall consider and include credit for all potential credits and reductions including but not limited to merit time, additional merit time and good behavior allowances. Nothing in this subdivision shall be interpreted as precluding the consideration and inclusion of credit for all potential credits and reductions including, but not limited to, merit time, additional merit time and good behavior allowances when calculating in advance for any other purpose the date on which a person is or will be eligible for release on parole or conditional release.
  - § 6. This act shall take effect immediately, provided however, that the amendments to subdivision 2 of section 851 of the correction law
