Introduced by M. of A. STECK, WOERNER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to exceptions to endangering the welfare of a child; and to amend the family court act, in relation to unsupervised children age ten or older

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- Section 1. Section 260.10 of the penal law is amended by adding a new subdivision 4 to read as follows:
- 4. (a) The provisions of this section shall not apply to a parent or guardian of a child aged ten years or older where such parent or guardian has permitted such child to engage in certain unsupervised acts including but not limited to:
- 7 (i) traveling to and from school, including by walking, running, or 8 bicycling;
- 9 (ii) traveling via any public transportation system, provided such
  10 child was given specific written instructions as to how to reach his or
  11 her destination;
- 12 (iii) traveling to and from commercial or recreational facilities that
  13 are less than five miles away from the parent or quardian's residence;
- 14 (iv) engaging in activities outside of the parent or guardian's resi-
  15 dence;
  - (v) remaining unattended at the parent or guardian's residence;
- 17 (vi) leaving a child unattended in a motor vehicle for fifteen minutes 18 or less; or
- 19 (vii) engaging in a similar independent activity.

wrongdoing that was intended to harm such child. A complaint made by a non-parent or guardian, member of law enforcement, or child advocate employed by the state indicating that one of the aforementioned acts mentioned in this subdivision occurred, shall be insufficient to find a parent guilty of child endangerment.

- § 2. Subdivision (f) of section 1012 of the family court act is amended by adding a new paragraph (iii) to read as follows:
- 8 (iii)(A) "neglected child" shall not include a child aged ten years or 9 older whose parents or quardians permit such child to engage in certain 10 unsupervised acts including but not limited to:
- 11 (1) traveling to and from school, including by walking, running, or 12 bicycling;
- 13 (2) traveling via any public transportation system, provided such
  14 child was given specific written instructions as to how to reach his or
  15 her destination;
- 16 (3) traveling to and from commercial or recreational facilities that 17 are less than five miles away from the parent or guardian's residence;
- 18 (4) engaging in activities outside of the parent or guardian's resi-19 dence;
  - (5) remaining unattended at the parent or guardian's residence;
- 21 (6) leaving a child unattended in a motor vehicle for fifteen minutes
  22 or less; or
  - (7) engaging in a similar independent activity.
- 24 (B) a child shall not be considered a "neglected child" in the absence 25 of a showing of specific conduct by such parent or quardian demonstrat-26 ing that such parent or quardian acted in disregard of a known risk of 27 harm to such child that the parent or guardian actually perceived at the time or wrongdoing that was intended to harm such child. A complaint 28 made by a non-parent or guardian, member of law enforcement, or child 29 30 advocate employed by the state indicating that one of the aforementioned 31 acts mentioned in this subdivision occurred, shall be insufficient to 32 find a child to be a "neglected child" as set forth in this subdivision.
- 33 § 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 34 have become a law.
