STATE OF NEW YORK

4471

2019-2020 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

February 4, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. PRETLOW -- read once and referred to the Committee on Transportation

AN ACT to amend the vehicle and traffic law and the state finance law, in relation to a statewide hotline to the state police and a reward for reporting the conduct of a driver subsequently convicted of a crime for driving while under the influence of drugs or alcohol as a result of such report, to be funded by an additional surcharge upon drivers convicted of such offenses

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 1193 of the vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding a new paragraph (h) to read as follows: 2 3 (h) The division of state police shall establish, maintain and operate 4 a toll free statewide telephone hotline for the reporting by motorists 5 and others of persons who are driving under the influence of drugs and б alcohol and thus committing any of the crimes described in this subdivi-7 sion. Subsequent to receiving such report on the hotline or in any other 8 manner, the state police shall notify the appropriate local or divi-9 sional authority to apprehend any such person and make an arrest if 10 necessary. Upon conviction of any such person for driving in violation 11 of one of the crimes set forth in this subdivision, a reward of one 12 hundred dollars shall be paid out of the criminal justice improvement 13 account established by section ninety-seven-bb of the state finance law 14 to any person who has properly identified himself or herself when reporting such incident pursuant to this paragraph and whose report led 15 16 to such apprehension and subsequent conviction. 17 § 2. The vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding a new section

18 1809-f to read as follows:

19 § 1809-f. Additional mandatory surcharge required for criminal 20 violations of section eleven hundred ninety-two of this chapter. 1. 21 Whenever proceedings in a court of this state result in a conviction for

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD04971-01-9

A. 4471

1	a misdemeanor or felony pursuant to section eleven hundred ninety-two of
2	this chapter, there shall be levied a mandatory surcharge, in addition
3	to any sentence required or permitted by law, in the amount of one
4	hundred dollars.
5	2. Where a person is convicted of two or more such crimes committed
6	through a single act or omission, or through an act or omission which in
7	itself constituted one of the crimes and also was a material element of
8	the other, the court shall impose only one mandatory surcharge mandated
9	by subdivision one of this section.
10	3. The mandatory surcharge provided for in subdivision one of this
11	section shall be paid to the clerk of the court that rendered the
12	conviction. Within the first ten days of the month following collection
13	of the mandatory surcharge the collecting authority shall determine the
14	amount of mandatory surcharge collected and, if it is a town or village
15	justice court, it shall pay such money to the state comptroller who
16	shall deposit such money in the state treasury pursuant to section one
17	hundred twenty-one of the state finance law to the credit of the crimi-
18	nal justice improvement account established by section ninety-seven-bb
19	of the state finance law. If such collecting authority is any other
20	court of the unified court system, it shall, within such period, pay
21	such money to the state commissioner of taxation and finance to the
22	credit of the criminal justice improvement account established by
23	section ninety-seven-bb of the state finance law.
24	4. Any person who has paid a mandatory surcharge under the authority
25	of this section which is ultimately determined not to be required by
26	this section shall be entitled to a refund of such mandatory surcharge
20 27	upon application to the state comptroller. The state comptroller shall
28	require such proof as it is necessary in order to determine whether a
') (J
29 20	refund is required by law.
30	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term
30 31	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by
30 31 32	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by this section, the clerk of the court that rendered the conviction shall
30 31 32 33	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by this section, the clerk of the court that rendered the conviction shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility
30 31 32 33 34	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by this section, the clerk of the court that rendered the conviction shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the person is confined. The superintendent or the municipal offi-
30 31 32 33 34 35	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by this section, the clerk of the court that rendered the conviction shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the person is confined. The superintendent or the municipal offi- cial shall cause any amount owing to be collected from such person
30 31 32 33 34 35 36	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by this section, the clerk of the court that rendered the conviction shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the person is confined. The superintendent or the municipal offi- cial shall cause any amount owing to be collected from such person during his term of imprisonment from the moneys to the credit of an
30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by this section, the clerk of the court that rendered the conviction shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the person is confined. The superintendent or the municipal offi- cial shall cause any amount owing to be collected from such person during his term of imprisonment from the moneys to the credit of an inmates' fund or such moneys as may be earned by a person in a work
30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by this section, the clerk of the court that rendered the conviction shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the person is confined. The superintendent or the municipal offi- cial shall cause any amount owing to be collected from such person during his term of imprisonment from the moneys to the credit of an inmates' fund or such moneys as may be earned by a person in a work release program pursuant to section eight hundred sixty of the
30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by this section, the clerk of the court that rendered the conviction shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the person is confined. The superintendent or the municipal offi- cial shall cause any amount owing to be collected from such person during his term of imprisonment from the moneys to the credit of an inmates' fund or such moneys as may be earned by a person in a work release program pursuant to section eight hundred sixty of the correction law. Such moneys shall be paid over to the state comptroller
30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by this section, the clerk of the court that rendered the conviction shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the person is confined. The superintendent or the municipal offi- cial shall cause any amount owing to be collected from such person during his term of imprisonment from the moneys to the credit of an inmates' fund or such moneys as may be earned by a person in a work release program pursuant to section eight hundred sixty of the correction law. Such moneys shall be paid over to the state comptroller to the credit of the criminal justice improvement account established by
30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by this section, the clerk of the court that rendered the conviction shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the person is confined. The superintendent or the municipal offi- cial shall cause any amount owing to be collected from such person during his term of imprisonment from the moneys to the credit of an inmates' fund or such moneys as may be earned by a person in a work release program pursuant to section eight hundred sixty of the correction law. Such moneys shall be paid over to the state comptroller to the credit of the criminal justice improvement account established by section ninety-seven-bb of the state finance law. For the purposes of
30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by this section, the clerk of the court that rendered the conviction shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the person is confined. The superintendent or the municipal offi- cial shall cause any amount owing to be collected from such person during his term of imprisonment from the moneys to the credit of an inmates' fund or such moneys as may be earned by a person in a work release program pursuant to section eight hundred sixty of the correction law. Such moneys shall be paid over to the state comptroller to the credit of the criminal justice improvement account established by section ninety-seven-bb of the state finance law. For the purposes of collecting such mandatory surcharge, the state shall be legally entitled
30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by this section, the clerk of the court that rendered the conviction shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the person is confined. The superintendent or the municipal offi- cial shall cause any amount owing to be collected from such person during his term of imprisonment from the moneys to the credit of an inmates' fund or such moneys as may be earned by a person in a work release program pursuant to section eight hundred sixty of the correction law. Such moneys shall be paid over to the state comptroller to the credit of the criminal justice improvement account established by section ninety-seven-bb of the state finance law. For the purposes of collecting such mandatory surcharge, the state shall be legally entitled to the money to the credit of an inmates' fund or money which is earned
30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by this section, the clerk of the court that rendered the conviction shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the person is confined. The superintendent or the municipal offi- cial shall cause any amount owing to be collected from such person during his term of imprisonment from the moneys to the credit of an inmates' fund or such moneys as may be earned by a person in a work release program pursuant to section eight hundred sixty of the correction law. Such moneys shall be paid over to the state comptroller to the credit of the criminal justice improvement account established by section ninety-seven-bb of the state finance law. For the purposes of collecting such mandatory surcharge, the state shall be legally entitled to the money to the credit of an inmates' fund or money which is earned by an inmate in a work release program. For purposes of this subdivi-
30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 401 422 43 442 45	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by this section, the clerk of the court that rendered the conviction shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the person is confined. The superintendent or the municipal offi- cial shall cause any amount owing to be collected from such person during his term of imprisonment from the moneys to the credit of an inmates' fund or such moneys as may be earned by a person in a work release program pursuant to section eight hundred sixty of the correction law. Such moneys shall be paid over to the state comptroller to the credit of the criminal justice improvement account established by section ninety-seven-bb of the state finance law. For the purposes of collecting such mandatory surcharge, the state shall be legally entitled to the money to the credit of an inmates' fund or money which is earned by an inmate in a work release program. For purposes of this subdivi- sion, the term "inmates' fund" shall mean moneys in the possession of an
30 31 32 33 34 35 37 38 30 412 43 445 45 46	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by this section, the clerk of the court that rendered the conviction shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the person is confined. The superintendent or the municipal offi- cial shall cause any amount owing to be collected from such person during his term of imprisonment from the moneys to the credit of an inmates' fund or such moneys as may be earned by a person in a work release program pursuant to section eight hundred sixty of the correction law. Such moneys shall be paid over to the state comptroller to the credit of the criminal justice improvement account established by section ninety-seven-bb of the state finance law. For the purposes of collecting such mandatory surcharge, the state shall be legally entitled to the money to the credit of an inmates' fund or money which is earned by an inmate in a work release program. For purposes of this subdivi- sion, the term "inmates' fund" shall mean moneys in the possession of an inmate at the time of his admission into such facility, funds earned by
30 31 32 33 35 36 37 38 39 41 42 43 45 46 47	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by this section, the clerk of the court that rendered the conviction shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the person is confined. The superintendent or the municipal offi- cial shall cause any amount owing to be collected from such person during his term of imprisonment from the moneys to the credit of an inmates' fund or such moneys as may be earned by a person in a work release program pursuant to section eight hundred sixty of the correction law. Such moneys shall be paid over to the state comptroller to the credit of the criminal justice improvement account established by section ninety-seven-bb of the state finance law. For the purposes of collecting such mandatory surcharge, the state shall be legally entitled to the money to the credit of an inmates' fund or money which is earned by an inmate in a work release program. For purposes of this subdivi- sion, the term "inmates' fund" shall mean moneys in the possession of an inmate at the time of his admission into such facility, funds earned by him as provided for in section one hundred eighty-seven of the
30 31 32 33 35 36 37 38 39 40 42 43 445 46 47 48	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by this section, the clerk of the court that rendered the conviction shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the person is confined. The superintendent or the municipal offi- cial shall cause any amount owing to be collected from such person during his term of imprisonment from the moneys to the credit of an inmates' fund or such moneys as may be earned by a person in a work release program pursuant to section eight hundred sixty of the correction law. Such moneys shall be paid over to the state comptroller to the credit of the criminal justice improvement account established by section ninety-seven-bb of the state finance law. For the purposes of collecting such mandatory surcharge, the state shall be legally entitled to the money to the credit of an inmates' fund or money which is earned by an inmate in a work release program. For purposes of this subdivi- sion, the term "inmates' fund" shall mean moneys in the possession of an inmate at the time of his admission into such facility, funds earned by him as provided for in section one hundred eighty-seven of the correction law and any other funds received by him or her or on his or
30 31 32 33 35 36 37 38 39 41 42 43 45 46 47	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by this section, the clerk of the court that rendered the conviction shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the person is confined. The superintendent or the municipal offi- cial shall cause any amount owing to be collected from such person during his term of imprisonment from the moneys to the credit of an inmates' fund or such moneys as may be earned by a person in a work release program pursuant to section eight hundred sixty of the correction law. Such moneys shall be paid over to the state comptroller to the credit of the criminal justice improvement account established by section ninety-seven-bb of the state finance law. For the purposes of collecting such mandatory surcharge, the state shall be legally entitled to the money to the credit of an inmates' fund or money which is earned by an inmate in a work release program. For purposes of this subdivi- sion, the term "inmates' fund" shall mean moneys in the possession of an inmate at the time of his admission into such facility, funds earned by him as provided for in section one hundred eighty-seven of the
30 31 32 33 35 36 37 38 39 40 42 43 445 46 47 48	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by this section, the clerk of the court that rendered the conviction shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the person is confined. The superintendent or the municipal offi- cial shall cause any amount owing to be collected from such person during his term of imprisonment from the moneys to the credit of an inmates' fund or such moneys as may be earned by a person in a work release program pursuant to section eight hundred sixty of the correction law. Such moneys shall be paid over to the state comptroller to the credit of the criminal justice improvement account established by section ninety-seven-bb of the state finance law. For the purposes of collecting such mandatory surcharge, the state shall be legally entitled to the money to the credit of an inmates' fund or money which is earned by an inmate in a work release program. For purposes of this subdivi- sion, the term "inmates' fund" shall mean moneys in the possession of an inmate at the time of his admission into such facility, funds earned by him as provided for in section one hundred eighty-seven of the correction law and any other funds received by him or her or on his or her behalf and deposited with such superintendent or municipal official. 6. The provisions of subdivision four-a of section five hundred ten
30 31233 3534 353739 41234 45647 4849	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by this section, the clerk of the court that rendered the conviction shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the person is confined. The superintendent or the municipal offi- cial shall cause any amount owing to be collected from such person during his term of imprisonment from the moneys to the credit of an inmates' fund or such moneys as may be earned by a person in a work release program pursuant to section eight hundred sixty of the correction law. Such moneys shall be paid over to the state comptroller to the credit of the criminal justice improvement account established by section ninety-seven-bb of the state finance law. For the purposes of collecting such mandatory surcharge, the state shall be legally entitled to the money to the credit of an inmates' fund or money which is earned by an inmate in a work release program. For purposes of this subdivi- sion, the term "inmates' fund" shall mean moneys in the possession of an inmate at the time of his admission into such facility, funds earned by him as provided for in section one hundred eighty-seven of the correction law and any other funds received by him or her or on his or her behalf and deposited with such superintendent or municipal official.
30 312 334 35 36 378 401 423 445 467 4950	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by this section, the clerk of the court that rendered the conviction shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the person is confined. The superintendent or the municipal offi- cial shall cause any amount owing to be collected from such person during his term of imprisonment from the moneys to the credit of an inmates' fund or such moneys as may be earned by a person in a work release program pursuant to section eight hundred sixty of the correction law. Such moneys shall be paid over to the state comptroller to the credit of the criminal justice improvement account established by section ninety-seven-bb of the state finance law. For the purposes of collecting such mandatory surcharge, the state shall be legally entitled to the money to the credit of an inmates' fund or money which is earned by an inmate in a work release program. For purposes of this subdivi- sion, the term "inmates' fund" shall mean moneys in the possession of an inmate at the time of his admission into such facility, funds earned by him as provided for in section one hundred eighty-seven of the correction law and any other funds received by him or her or on his or her behalf and deposited with such superintendent or municipal official. 6. The provisions of subdivision four-a of section five hundred ten
30 312 334 35 367 390 412 445 467 490 51	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by this section, the clerk of the court that rendered the conviction shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the person is confined. The superintendent or the municipal offi- cial shall cause any amount owing to be collected from such person during his term of imprisonment from the moneys to the credit of an inmates' fund or such moneys as may be earned by a person in a work release program pursuant to section eight hundred sixty of the correction law. Such moneys shall be paid over to the state comptroller to the credit of the criminal justice improvement account established by section ninety-seven-bb of the state finance law. For the purposes of collecting such mandatory surcharge, the state shall be legally entitled to the money to the credit of an inmates' fund or money which is earned by an inmate in a work release program. For purposes of this subdivi- sion, the term "inmates' fund" shall mean moneys in the possession of an inmate at the time of his admission into such facility, funds earned by him as provided for in section one hundred eighty-seven of the correction law and any other funds received by him or her or on his or her behalf and deposited with such superintendent or municipal official. 6. The provisions of subdivision four-a of section five hundred ten and section five hundred of this chapter governing actions which may be
30 312 334 356 3890 412 4456 4890 512 52	5. When a person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of imprisonment has failed to pay the mandatory surcharge required by this section, the clerk of the court that rendered the conviction shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the person is confined. The superintendent or the municipal offi- cial shall cause any amount owing to be collected from such person during his term of imprisonment from the moneys to the credit of an inmates' fund or such moneys as may be earned by a person in a work release program pursuant to section eight hundred sixty of the correction law. Such moneys shall be paid over to the state comptroller to the credit of the criminal justice improvement account established by section ninety-seven-bb of the state finance law. For the purposes of collecting such mandatory surcharge, the state shall be legally entitled to the money to the credit of an inmates' fund or money which is earned by an inmate in a work release program. For purposes of this subdivi- sion, the term "inmates' fund" shall mean moneys in the possession of an inmate at the time of his admission into such facility, funds earned by him as provided for in section one hundred eighty-seven of the correction law and any other funds received by him or her or on his or her behalf and deposited with such superintendent or municipal official. 6. The provisions of subdivision four-a of section five hundred ten and section five hundred of this chapter governing actions which may be taken for failure to pay a fine or penalty shall be applicable to a

1 sion 3 as amended by section 38 of part A-1 of chapter 56 of the laws of 2 2010, are amended to read as follows:

2. The criminal justice improvement account shall consist of monies 3 4 received by the state pursuant to section 60.35 of the penal law [and], 5 monies received by the state pursuant to section eighteen hundred nine б of the vehicle and traffic law from any court of the unified court 7 system other than town or village courts, monies received by the state 8 pursuant to section eighteen hundred nine-f of the vehicle and traffic 9 law and all other fees, fines, grants, bequests or other monies credit-10 ed, appropriated or transferred thereto from any other fund or source. 11 Such account shall also consist of all monies received by the division of criminal justice services pursuant to subdivision ten of section one 12 13 hundred sixty-eight-b of the correction law. 14 3. Monies of the criminal justice improvement account, following appropriation by the legislature and allocation by the director of the budget shall be made available for the statewide hotline, expenses and rewards required by section eleven hundred ninety-three of the vehicle and traffic law, local assistance services and expenses of programs to provide services to crime victims and witnesses, including operations of the office of victim services, and for payments to victims in accordance with the federal crime control act of 1984, as administered pursuant to article twenty-two of the executive law.

23 § 4. This act shall take effect on the first of November next succeed-24 ing the date on which it shall have become a law.