death, resignation, disqualification or otherwise, such vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as the original 2 3 appointment.

- 4. The racing fan advisory council shall request and shall receive the assistance and cooperation of the commission in regard to receipt of information relating to horse racing and wagering in this state.
  - 5. The racing fan advisory council shall:
- (a) have as its mission the growth of the fan base related to the sport of horse racing;
- 10 (b) recommend procedures to ensure that the opinion of the fan is a 11 central part of the regulation of horse racing;
- (c) prepare an annual report, and any other reports it deems neces-12 13 sary, to the commission regarding the operation of the state's thoroughbred and harness racetracks and the state's off-track betting corpo-14 15 rations;
  - (d) advise the commission on appropriate actions to encourage fan attendance and wagering at the state's thoroughbred and harness racetracks and the state's off-track betting corporations;
- (e) be authorized by the commission to enter upon the racetracks and 20 their facilities regulated or controlled by the board during race times, and during periods of horse workouts, and during hours when members of the media are permitted to be present at the facilities;
- (f) recommend changes to the rules of the commission and to the laws 23 24 affecting horse racing;
  - (g) perform such other duties as may be increased by order of the commission;
- (h) engage New York state's racing fan population on how to make the 28 sport more appealing;
- (i) recommend to the commission further procedures to make steward and 30 presiding judge actions that impact the betting public more transparent; 31
- (j) work with relevant component industries to better educate the 32 33 casual fan as to significant industry topics.
- § 2. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that 34 35 the members of the racing fan advisory council as created by resolution of the New York Gaming Commission dated September 1, 2016, shall be the 36 initial members of the racing fan advisory council as established by 37 38 this act.
