critical infrastructure related to the transportation facilities, which 1 shall include those facilities set forth in subdivision seventeen of section twelve hundred sixty-one of the public authorities law and shall 3 4 also include, for purposes of this section, bridges and tunnels of the 5 metropolitan transportation authority and of all subsidiaries of such 6 authority. The director of the office of homeland security and emergen-7 cy services shall have the authority to review any audits or reports 8 related to the security of such critical infrastructure, including 9 audits or reports conducted at the request of the metropolitan transpor-10 tation authority or any other agency or authority of the state or any 11 political subdivision thereof or, to the extent practicable, of any federal entity. The operators of such transportation facilities shall, 12 13 in compliance with any federal and state requirements regarding the 14 dissemination of such information, provide access to the director of the office of homeland security and emergency services to such audits or 15 16 reports regarding such critical infrastructure provided, however, that 17 exclusive custody and control of such audits and reports shall remain solely with the operators of such transportation facilities. For the 18 purposes of this article, the term "critical infrastructure" has the 19 20 meaning ascribed to that term in subdivision five of section eighty-six 21 of the public officers law. 22

2. (a) On or before December thirty-first, two thousand twenty-one, and not later than three years after such date, and every five years thereafter, the director of the office of homeland security and emergency services shall report to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly and the board of any such affected transportation authority. Such report shall review the security measures being taken regarding critical infrastructure related to transportation facilities, as defined in subdivision seventeen of section twelve hundred sixty-one of the public authorities law, assess the effectiveness thereof, and include recommendations to the legislature or the metropolitan transportation authority, if the director of the office of homeland security and emergency services determines that additional measures are required to be implemented, considering among other factors, the unique characteristics of each transportation facility. On or before April thirtieth, two thousand twenty-one, the director of the office of homeland security and emergency services shall make a prelimimary report to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly and the board of any such affected transportation authority.

(b) Before the receipt of such report identified in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, each recipient of such report shall develop confidentiality protocols, which shall be binding upon the recipient who issues the protocols and anyone to whom the recipient shows a copy of the report, in consultation with the director of the office of homeland security and emergency services for the maintenance and use of such report so as to ensure the confidentiality of the report and all information contained therein, provided, however, that such protocols shall not be binding upon a person who is provided access to such report or any information contained therein pursuant to section eighty-nine of the public officers law after a final determination that access to such report or any information contained therein could not be denied pursuant to subdivision two of section eighty-seven of the public officers law. The director of the office of homeland security and emergency services shall also develop protocols for his or her office related to the maintenance and use of such report so as to ensure the confidentiality of A. 4865--A 3 the report and all information contained therein. On each report, the director of the office of homeland security and emergency services shall prominently display the following statement: "this report may contain information that if disclosed could endanger the life or safety of the public, and therefore, pursuant to section seven hundred ten of the executive law, this report is to be maintained and used in a manner consistent with protocols established to preserve the confidentiality of the information contained herein in a manner consistent with law".

- 9 (c) The metropolitan transportation authority shall have the 10 discretion to require that the recommendations of the director of the office of homeland security and emergency services be implemented by any 12 operator of a transportation facility.
- 13 § 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 14 have have become a law.
