7	er, inspect, copy, photograph, or test:
8	(a) Intended expert opinion evidence, including the name, business
9	address, current curriculum vitae, and a list of publications of each 10	intended expert witness, and all reports prepared by the expert that 11	pertain to the case, or if no report is prepared, a written statement of 12	the facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify and a
13	summary of the grounds for each opinion;
14	(b) All photographs, tangible objects, video and audio recordings,
15	electronic recordings and data, reports of physical or mental examina-
16	tions of any person or of scientific tests or experiments, and exhibits
17	that the defendant intends to introduce at trial in his or her case in 18	chief; and
19	(c) All statements, written or recorded or summarized in any writing
20	or recording made by a witness who the defendant intends to call at 21	trial, other than statements made by the defendant, except that disclo-
22	sure under this subdivision is not required until the close of the pros-
23	ecution's case in chief.
24	5. Redactions permitted. Either party is permitted to redact social
25	security numbers and tax numbers from disclosures.
26	§ 240.15 Automatic discovery; sanctions.
20 27	Section 240.10 of this article shall have the force and effect of a
28	court order, and failure to provide discovery pursuant to such section
20 29	may result in application of any sanctions permitted for noncompliance with a court order under section 240.30 of this article. However, if in 30 31	the judgment of either party good cause exists for declining to make any 32	of the disclosures set forth in section 240.10 of this article, it may
33	move for a protective order pursuant to section 240.60 of this article
34	and production of the item shall be stayed pending a ruling by the 35
35 36	court. The opposing party shall be notified in writing what specific information or material has not been disclosed and the grounds for the
37	protective order sought or the reason that the information or material
38	cannot immediately be disclosed. § 240.20 Automatic discovery; depositions.
39 40
40	1. Obtaining depositions. At any time after the commencement of a criminal action, upon service of a subpoena, the defendant may obtain
42	the deposition of any person on oral examination, where such person's 43	testimony is material to the case or relevant to the preparation of a
44	defense. A person's statements in a deposition may be used in subsequent 45	proceedings in the same manner as other out-of-court statements.
46	2. Location of deposition. Deposition of a witness shall be taken in 47	the county where the witness lives, or in such other location as is 48	agreed upon by the parties, or at a location designated by the court.
49	The deposition of any person confined in prison shall be taken where
50	such person is confined, unless otherwise ordered by the court.
51	3. Experts. The defendant may discover by deposition the facts and 52	opinions to which an expert is expected to testify. Unless manifest
53	injustice would result, the court shall require that the party seeking 54	discovery from an expert pay the expert a reasonable hourly fee for the 55 time such expert is deposed.

4. Failure of witness to comply. The court may preclude the testimony 1 2 any witness who fails to comply with a properly served deposition of 3 subpoena from testifying at hearing and/or trial. 4 § 240.25 Automatic discovery; notice and preservation of evidence. 5 1. Notice. Upon receipt of information that any item described in б subparagraphs (i) through (xix) of paragraph (a) of subdivision one of 7 section 240.10 of this article exists, except that it is not within the 8 possession, custody or control of the prosecution, or persons under its 9 direction and control, the prosecution shall expeditiously notify the 10 defendant of the existence of the item and all information known to the 11 prosecutor concerning the item's location and the identity of any 12 persons possessing it. 13 2. Preservation order. At any time, a party may move for an order to 14 any individual, agency or other entity in possession, custody or control of items that relate to the subject matter of the case or are otherwise 15 16 relevant, including but not limited to requiring that such items be 17 preserved for a specified period of time. In addition, the defendant may move for an order to any individual, agency or other entity in 18 19 possession, custody or control of a crime scene that relates to the 20 subject matter of the case or is otherwise relevant, requiring that 21 counsel for the defendant be granted prompt and reasonable access to inspect, photograph or measure that crime scene, and that the condition 22 of the crime scene remain unchanged in the interim. The court shall hear 23 and rule upon motions made pursuant to this subdivision expeditiously. 24 The court may modify or vacate such an order upon a showing that preser-25 26 vation of particular evidence will create significant hardship, on 27 condition that the probative value of said evidence is preserved by a specified alternative means. 28 29 3. Material held by other governmental personnel. Upon request of the 30 defendant, the prosecutor shall use due diligence and make good faith 31 efforts to make available for disclosure to the defendant materials that 32 would be discoverable under subparagraphs (i) through (xix) of paragraph 33 (a) of subdivision one of section 240.10 of this article but that are in 34 possession, custody, or control of other governmental personnel. Where 35 the prosecutor's efforts are unsuccessful, the court upon motion of the 36 defendant shall issue suitable subpoenas or orders to cause such materi-37 als to be made available for disclosure to the defendant. 38 4. Material witnesses and physical evidence. When police officers or other law enforcement personnel participate in the investigation of an 39 apparent criminal incident, and provided that it is practicable under 40 the circumstances, they shall request and memorialize contact informa-41 42 tion for all persons of whom they are aware with material evidence or 43 information that relate to the subject matter of the case or are other-44 wise relevant, and shall gather or memorialize apparently material phys-45 ical evidence of which they are aware. 46 5. Electronic recordings of interviews at police stations or other 47 detention facilities. No oral, written, or sign language statement of a suspect made during an interview at a police station or other detention 48 49 facility shall be admissible as substantive evidence against that person 50 in any criminal proceeding unless an electronic recording is made of all 51 interviews of the suspect. Each recording must be of the complete inter-52 view, must include both audio and visual recording, and must be focused 53 upon both the questioner, interpreter, if present, and the suspect 54 throughout. Any photograph, video, or object shown to the defendant during the interview must be preserved for inspection. 55

1	6. Certain recordings. The prosecutor shall expeditiously take steps
2	to discover, preserve, and disclose all video, audio, or electronic
3	recordings made in connection with the investigation of an apparent
4	criminal incident, including but not limited to 911 telephone calls, law
5	enforcement radio transmissions, and video recordings made by law
6	enforcement, including body camera footage.
7	§ 240.30 Automatic discovery; remedies or sanctions for noncompliance.
8	1. Available remedies or sanctions. For failure to comply with any 9	discovery obligation issued or imposed pursuant to this article, the 10	court shall make a further order for discovery, grant a continuance,
11	order that a hearing be reopened, order that a witness be called or 12	recalled, instruct the jury that it may draw an adverse inference
13	regarding the noncompliance, preclude or strike a witness's testimony or 14	a portion of a witness's testimony, admit or exclude evidence, order a 15	mistrial, order the dismissal of all or some of the charges, or make 16	such other order as it deems just under the circumstances; except that 17	any sanction against the defendant shall comport with the defendant's
18	constitutional right to present a defense, confront witnesses, and pres-
19	ent evidence relevant to his or her defense, and the sanction of 20	precluding a defense witness from testifying shall be permissible only
21	upon a finding that the defendant's failure to comply with the discovery
22	order was willful and motivated by a desire to obtain a tactical advan-
23	tage.
24	2. Need for remedy or sanction; lost or destroyed material. When
25	material or information is discoverable under this article, but it
26	cannot be disclosed because it has been lost or destroyed, the evidence
27	shall be deemed presumptively favorable to the defendant. The court
28	shall impose an appropriate remedy or sanction whenever the party enti-
29	tled to disclosure shows that the lost or destroyed material may have 30	contained some information relevant to a contested issue.
31	3. Need for remedy or sanction; belated disclosure. When material or
32	information is discoverable under this article, but it is disclosed
33	belatedly, the defendant shall be entitled to an adjournment of up to 34	thirty days, or for a reasonable period, whichever is longer. When there
35	has been belated disclosure, the court shall impose an appropriate reme-
36	dy or sanction whenever the party entitled to disclosure shows that it
37	was prejudiced.
38	§ 240.35 Automatic discovery; discretionary discovery by order of the 39	court.
40	The court in its discretion may, upon a showing by the defendant that
41	the request is reasonable and that the defendant is unable without undue 42	hardship to obtain the substantial equivalent by other means, order the 43	prosecution, or any individual, agency or other entity subject to the 44	jurisdiction of the court, to make available for disclosure to the 45	defendant any material or information which potentially relates to the 46	subject matter of the case or is otherwise relevant. An application
47	under this section must be on notice to any person or entity affected by 48	the order. The court may, upon request of any person or entity affected
49	by the order, vacate or modify the order if compliance would be unrea-
50	sonable or oppressive. The court may permit a party seeking or opposing 51	a discretionary order of discovery under this section, or another
52	affected person or entity, to submit papers or testify ex parte or in 53	camera. Any such papers and a transcript of such testimony shall be 54	sealed and shall constitute a part of the record on appeal.
55	§ 240.40 Automatic discovery; order to grant access to premises.

1 At any time, the defendant may move for a court order to any individ-2 ual, agency or other entity in possession, custody or control of a crime 3 scene or other premises that relates to the subject matter of the case 4 or is otherwise relevant, requiring that counsel for the defendant be 5 granted prompt and reasonable access to inspect, photograph or measure б that crime scene or those premises, and that the condition of the crime 7 scene or premises remain unchanged in the interim. The court shall hear 8 and rule upon such motions expeditiously. The court may modify or vacate 9 such an order upon a showing that granting access to a particular crime 10 scene or premises will create significant hardship, on condition that 11 the probative value of that location is preserved by a specified alter-12 native means. 13 § 240.45 Automatic discovery; certificate of compliance. 14 When a party has provided all discovery required by this section or by court order, it shall file with the court a certificate of compliance. 15 16 The certificate shall state that, to the best of its knowledge and after reasonable inquiry, due diligence, and good faith effort, the party has 17 disclosed and made available all items subject to discovery, and shall 18 19 identify each item provided. The prosecution shall not be deemed ready 20 for trial for purposes of section 30.30 of this chapter until it has 21 filed a certificate pursuant to this section. If further discovery is subsequently provided, a supplemental certificate shall be filed with 22 the court identifying the additional items provided explaining why the 23 newly provided discovery was not provided prior to the original certif-24 25 icate of compliance. 26 § 240.50 Automatic discovery; continuing duty. 27 If either the prosecution or the defense subsequently learns of additional material that it would have been under a duty to disclose or 28 29 produce pursuant to any provisions of this article at the time of a 30 previous discovery obligation or order, it shall expeditiously notify 31 the other party and shall disclose the material in the same manner as 32 required for initial discovery under this article, but no later than the 33 next scheduled court appearance. 34 § 240.55 Automatic discovery; work product. 35 This section does not authorize discovery by a party of those portions 36 of records, reports, correspondence, memoranda, or internal documents of the adverse party that are only the legal research, opinions, theories, 37 38 or conclusions of the adverse party or its attorney or the attorney's 39 agents, or of statements of a defendant, written or recorded or summarized in any writing or recording, made to the attorney for the defend-40 41 ant or the attorney's agents. 42 § 240.60 Automatic discovery; protective orders. 43 1. Standard. Upon a showing of good cause by clear and convincing 44 evidence that disclosure would negatively affect the safety or security of a known person or entity and that any limitation of disclosure is 45 46 necessary to protect a known person or entity, the court may at any time order that the discovery, disclosure, or inspection be denied, 47 restricted, or deferred, or make such other order as is appropriate, 48 upon written motion of the party seeking the protective order. The court 49 may, for good cause shown, grant discovery to a defendant on the condi-50 51 tion that the material to be discovered be available only to counsel for the defendant. This provision does not alter the allocation of the 52 53 burden of proof with regard to the matter at issue, including privilege. 54 2. Hearing. Upon a request for such an order, the court shall conduct hearing, either ex parte with just a prosecutor or defense counsel or 55 а

56 in the presence of both the prosecutor and defense counsel, within three

1	business days to determine whether good cause has been shown. If there-
2	after the court enters an order granting relief, the material submitted
3	in camera must be sealed, along with the minutes to the proceeding and 4	written motions, and shall be preserved in the records of the court to 5	be made available to the appellate court in the event of an appeal.
6	§ 240.65 Automatic discovery; amendment of discovery orders.
7	Upon motion of either party made subsequent to an order of the court
8	pursuant to this section, the court may alter or amend the previous 9	order or orders as the interests of justice may require. The court may,
10	for good cause shown, affirm a prior order granting discovery to a
11	defendant upon the additional condition that the material to be discov-
12	ered be available only to counsel for the defendant.
13	§ 240.70 Automatic discovery; non-testimonial evidence from the defend-
14	ant.
15	After the filing of an accusatory instrument, and subject to constitu-
16	tional limitations, the court may, upon motion of the prosecution show-
17	ing probable cause to believe the defendant has committed the crime, a
18	clear indication that relevant material evidence will be found, and that 19	the method used to secure it is safe and reliable, require a defendant
20	to provide non-testimonial evidence, including to:
21	1. Appear in a lineup;
22	2. Speak for identification by a witness or potential witness;
23	3. Be fingerprinted;
24	4. Pose for photographs not involving reenactment of an event;
25	5. Permit the taking of samples of the defendant's blood, hair, or
26	other materials of the defendant's body that involves no unreasonable
27	intrusion thereof;
28	6. Provide specimens of the defendant's handwriting; or 29	7. Submit to a reasonable physical or medical inspection of the 30	defendant's body.
31	§ 240.75 Automatic discovery; orders regarding DNA comparisons.
32	Where property in the prosecution's possession, custody, or control
33	that consists of a deoxyribonucleic acid ("DNA") profile obtained from 34	probative biological material gathered in connection with the investi-
35	gation or prosecution of the defendant and the defendant establishes
36	that such profile complies with federal bureau of investigation or state
37	requirements, whichever are applicable and as such requirements are 38	applied to law enforcement agencies seeking a keyboard search or similar 39	comparison, and that the data meets state DNA index system or national 40	DNA index system criteria as such criteria are applied to law enforce-
41	ment agencies seeking such a keyboard search or similar comparison, the 42	court may order an entity that has access to the combined DNA index
43	system or its successor system to compare such DNA profile against DNA
44	databanks by keyboard searches, or a similar method that does not
45	involve uploading, upon notice to both parties and the entity required
46	to perform the search, upon a showing by the defendant that such a
47	comparison is material to the presentation of his or her defense and 48	that the request is reasonable. For purposes of this paragraph, a
49	"keyboard search" shall mean a search of a DNA profile against the data-bank in which the profile that is searched is not uploaded to or main-
50 51	tained in the databank.
52	§ 2. Subdivision 9 of section 65.20 of the criminal procedure law, as 52 53	added by chapter 505 of the laws of 1985 and as renumbered by chapter
53 54	548 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:
5 1	JID OF CHE TAWE OF 2007, IS AMENUCA LU TEAU AS LUITOWE.

55 9. (a) Prior to the commencement of the hearing conducted pursuant to 56 subdivision five of this section, the district attorney shall, subject to a protective order, comply with the provisions of [subdivision one of 1 section 240.45] article two hundred forty of this chapter as they 2 concern any witness whom the district attorney intends to call at the 3 4 hearing and the child witness. 5 (b) Before a defendant calls a witness at such hearing, he or she б must, subject to a protective order, comply with the provisions of [subdivision two of section 240.45] article two hundred forty of this 7 8 chapter as they concern all the witnesses the defendant intends to call 9 at such hearing. § 3. Subdivision 5 of section 200.95 of the criminal procedure law, as 10 11 added by chapter 558 of the laws of 1982, is amended to read as follows: 5. Court ordered bill of particulars. Where a prosecutor has timely 12 13 served a written refusal pursuant to subdivision four of this section 14 and upon motion, made in writing, of a defendant, who has made a request for a bill of particulars and whose request has not been complied with 15 16 in whole or in part, the court must, to the extent a protective order is 17 not warranted, order the prosecutor to comply with the request if it is satisfied that the items of factual information requested are authorized 18 to be included in a bill of particulars, and that such information is 19 20 necessary to enable the defendant adequately to prepare or conduct his 21 defense and, if the request was untimely, a finding of good cause for the delay. Where a prosecutor has not timely served a written refusal 22 pursuant to subdivision four of this section the court must, unless it 23 is satisfied that the people have shown good cause why such an order 24 25 should not be issued, issue an order requiring the prosecutor to comply 26 or providing for any other [order] remedy or sanction authorized by [subdivision one of] section [240.70] 240.30 of this part. 27 28 § 4. Subdivision 14 of section 400.27 of the criminal procedure law, 29 as added by chapter 1 of the laws of 1995, is amended to read as 30 follows: 31 14. (a) At a reasonable time prior to the sentencing proceeding or a 32 mental retardation hearing: (i) the prosecutor shall, unless previously disclosed and subject to a 33 34 protective order, make available to the defendant the statements and information specified in [subdivision one of section 240.45] sections 35 36 240.10, 240.20 and 240.25 of this part and make available for 37 inspection, photographing, copying or testing the property specified in 38 [subdivision one of section 240.20] such sections; and (ii) the defendant shall, unless previously disclosed and subject to a 39 protective order, make available to the prosecution the statements and 40 41 information specified in subdivision [two] four of section [240.45] 42 240.10 of this part and make available for inspection, photographing, 43 copying or testing, subject to constitutional limitations, the reports, 44 documents and other property specified in such subdivision [one of 45 section 240.30]. 46 (b) Where a party refuses to make disclosure pursuant to this section, 47 the provisions of [section 240.35, subdivision one of section 240.40 and 48 section 240.50] section 240.60 of this part shall apply. (c) If, after complying with the provisions of this section or an 49 50 order pursuant thereto, a party finds either before or during a sentenc-51 ing proceeding or mental retardation hearing, additional material 52 subject to discovery or covered by court order, the party shall promptly 53 make disclosure or apply for a protective order pursuant to section 54 240.60 of this part.

55 (d) If the court finds that a party has failed to comply with any of 56 the provisions of this section, the court may enter any of the [orders] remedies or sanctions specified in [subdivision one of] section [240.70] 1 2 240.30 of this part. § 5. The opening paragraph of paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 of 3 4 section 440.30 of the criminal procedure law, as added by chapter 19 of 5 the laws of 2012, is amended to read as follows: б In conjunction with the filing or consideration of a motion to vacate 7 a judgment pursuant to section 440.10 of this article by a defendant 8 convicted after a trial, in cases where the court has ordered an eviden-9 tiary hearing upon such motion, the court may order that the people 10 produce or make available for inspection property, as defined [in subdivision three of section 240.10 of this part] as any existing tangible 11 personal or real property, including, but not limited to, books, 12 13 records, reports, memoranda, papers, photographs, tapes or other electronic recordings, articles of clothing, fingerprints, blood samples, 14 15 fingernail scrapings or handwriting specimens, but excluding attorneys' work product, in its possession, custody, or control that was secured in 16 17 connection with the investigation or prosecution of the defendant upon 18 credible allegations by the defendant and a finding by the court that 19 such property, if obtained, would be probative to the determination of 20 the defendant's actual innocence, and that the request is reasonable. 21 The court shall deny or limit such a request upon a finding that such a request, if granted, would threaten the integrity or chain of custody of 22 property or the integrity of the processes or functions of a laboratory 23 conducting DNA testing, pose a risk of harm, intimidation, embarrass-24 25 ment, reprisal, or other substantially negative consequences to any 26 person, undermine the proper functions of law enforcement including the 27 confidentiality of informants, or on the basis of any other factor identified by the court in the interests of justice or public safety. The 28 29 court shall further ensure that any property produced pursuant to this 30 paragraph is subject to a protective order, where appropriate. The court 31 shall deny any request made pursuant to this paragraph where: 32 § 6. Subdivision 10 of section 450.10 of the penal law, as added by 33 chapter 795 of the laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows: 34 10. Where there has been a failure to comply with the provisions of 35 this section, and where the district attorney does not demonstrate to 36 the satisfaction of the court that such failure has not caused the 37 defendant prejudice, the court shall instruct the jury that it may 38 consider such failure in determining the weight to be given such evidence and may also impose any other [sanction] remedy or sanction set 39 forth in [subdivision one of] section [240.70] 240.30 of the criminal 40 law; provided, however, that unless the defendant has 41 procedure 42 convinced the court that such failure has caused him undue prejudice, 43 the court shall not preclude the district attorney from introducing into 44 evidence the property, photographs, photocopies, or other reproductions 45 of the property or, where appropriate, testimony concerning its value 46 and condition, where such evidence is otherwise properly authenticated 47 and admissible under the rules of evidence. Failure to comply with any one or more of the provisions of this section shall not for that reason 48 49 alone be grounds for dismissal of the accusatory instrument. 50 § 7. Subdivision 5 of section 480.10 of the penal law, as added by 51 chapter 655 of the laws of 1990, is amended to read as follows: 52 In addition to information required to be disclosed pursuant to 5. 53 article two hundred forty of the criminal procedure law, when forfeiture 54 is sought pursuant to this article, and following the defendant's 55 arraignment on the special forfeiture information, the court shall order 56 discovery of any information not otherwise disclosed which is material

1 and reasonably necessary for preparation by the defendant with respect 2 to a forfeiture proceeding brought pursuant to this article. Such mate-3 rial shall include those portions of the grand jury minutes and such 4 other information which pertain solely to the special forfeiture infor-5 mation and shall not include information which pertains to the criminal 6 charges. Upon application of the prosecutor, the court may issue a 7 protective order pursuant to section [240.40] 240.60 of the criminal 8 procedure law with respect to any information required to be disclosed 9 pursuant to this subdivision.

10 § 8. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 11 have become a law and shall apply to all arraignments commencing on or 12 after such effective date; provided, however, that the amendments to 13 subdivision 9 of section 65.20 of the criminal procedure law made by 14 section two of this act shall not affect the repeal of such section and 15 shall be deemed repealed therewith.
