AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to cellular telephone applications

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 349-f to read as follows:

§ 349-f. Cellular applications; protection. 1. As used in this section:

(a) "Cellular telephone service supplier" means a business entity which provides retail cellular telephone service within New York state.

(b) "Cellular telephone" means a cellular mobile radio telephone or other radio telephone not requiring an access line for service.

(c) "Cellular telephone subscriber" means any person enrolled in a cellular telephone service subscriber plan whether or not such subscriber's cellular telephone services are active or suspended.

2. Cellular telephone subscribers who purchase cellular applications, games and/or ringtones from a cellular telephone service supplier shall be allowed to transfer such previously purchased products to cellular telephones which have been upgraded and/or returned to the cellular telephone service provider due to a defect or for any other reason. Where the cellular telephone is covered under a policy for loss and/or theft the cellular telephone subscriber shall be entitled to have all previously purchased applications, games and/or ringtones installed in their new cellular telephone or shall have the option of receiving a credit to their account for the purchase amount.

3. The provisions of subdivision two of this section shall only be applicable to cellular telephone subscribers who remain with the same
