- (k) require that each state contract avoids unnecessary and unjustified bundling of contract requirements that precludes minority and women-owned business enterprises' participation in procurements as prime contractors. For purposes of this paragraph, "unnecessary and unjustified" shall mean not required, not needed and with no legitimate reason.
- 8 § 2. Section 139-g of the state finance law is amended by adding a new 9 subdivision (e) to read as follows:
- 10 (e) require that each state contract avoids unnecessary and unjusti11 fied bundling of contract requirements that precludes small and certi12 fied women and minority-owned business' participation in procurements as 13 prime contractors. For purposes of this subdivision, "unnecessary and 14 unjustified" shall mean not required, not needed and with no legitimate 15 reason.
- 16 § 3. Subdivision 4 of section 313 of the executive law, as amended by 17 chapter 96 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.

4. In the implementation of this section, the contracting agency shall (a) consult the findings contained within the disparity study evidencing relevant industry specific disparities in the utilization of minority and women-owned businesses relative to their availability;

- (b) implement a program that will enable the agency to evaluate each contract to determine the appropriate goal for participation by minority-owned business enterprises and women-owned business enterprises; and
- (c) [consider where practicable, the severability of construction projects and other bundled contracts; and
- (d) consider compliance with the requirements of any federal law 11 concerning opportunities for minority and women-owned business enterprises which effectuates the purpose of this section. The contracting agency shall determine whether the imposition of the requirements of any such law duplicate or conflict with the provisions hereof and if such duplication or conflict exists, the contracting agency shall waive the applicability of this section to the extent of such duplication or conflict.
- § 4. This act shall take effect immediately; provided however, that 19 the amendments to section 313 of the executive law made by sections one 20 and three of this act shall not affect the expiration of such section and shall be deemed to expire therewith.
