2019-2020 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

February 7, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. RAIA, HAWLEY, KOLB, JOHNS, MALLIOTAKIS, LAVINE, MONTESANO, McDONOUGH, FINCH -- Multi-Sponsored by -- M. of A. AN ACT to amend the penal law and the criminal procedure law, in relation to mandatory imprisonment and plea restrictions for offenses victimizing the elderly and physically disabled

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. It is hereby found and declared that elderly and physically
2 disabled people continue to be singled out as victims of crime. It is 3 also found that the physical harm and emotional trauma suffered by 4 elderly and physically disabled crime victims has a devastating effect
5 on the lives of those victims.

6 The elderly or physically disabled victim has a decreased physical 7 capability to resist an attacker and thus becomes an inviting target of 8 crime. Moreover, the aftereffects of crime on the elderly and the phys-9 ically handicapped affect them more deeply than any statistics would 10 indicate. The emotional trauma and possible serious physical damage 11 resulting from a face to face crime may cause a permanent downgrading in 12 the elderly or physically disabled victim's lifestyle. Such victims
13 often impose "house-arrest" on themselves, afraid to shop, to visit 14 friends, to go to the doctor, to live, unless behind locked doors. Even 15 those elderly or physically disabled who are not direct victims of crime
16 suffer indirectly, because they, having learned of the terrible tragedy 17 suffered by other elderly and physically disabled and fearful for their 18 own individual safety, barricade themselves within their homes. The 19 older or physically disabled crime victim is thus twice victimized--by 20 the crime and by its aftermath.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD07979-01-9

1 Criminologists, sociologists, psychologists, and the police all recog-
2 nize and acknowledge these facts, but the law does not. It has been 3 ineffective in deterring crimes against the elderly and the physically 4 disabled, particularly those involving violence or the threat of 5 violence. Similarly, special projects on crime prevention and improved 6 techniques of communications for the elderly to the police do not halt
7 or reduce such crime. For these reasons, offenses committed against the 8 elderly or the physically disabled must be treated as unique, and legis-9 lation must be enacted to provide a meaningful deterrent for those 10 offenders who now victimize the elderly and the physically disabled.

11 § 2. Subdivision 18 of section 10.00 of the penal law, as amended by 12 chapter 7 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

22 is one for which such person is criminally responsible; section 135.25

33 machine gun or such firearm is possessed on school grounds, as that 34 phrase is defined in subdivision fourteen of section 220.00 of this 35 chapter; or defined in this chapter as an attempt to commit murder in 36 the second degree or kidnapping in the first degree; section 280.00

25 follows:

26 § 70.09 Sentence of imprisonment for certain offenses against the elder-

28 1. Except as provided in subdivision four every person, other than a 29 person sentenced as a second or persistent felony offender, who is 30 convicted of an offense against the elderly or the physically disabled 31 defined in article two hundred eighty of this chapter, must be sentenced 32 to an indeterminate sentence of imprisonment in accordance with the 33 provisions of subdivisions two and three of this section.

34 2. The maximum term of such indeterminate sentence must be fixed as 35 follows:

36 (a) For the class B felony of victimizing the elderly or the phys-
37 ically disabled in the first degree, the term must be at least nine 38 years and must not exceed twenty-five years;

39 (b) For the class C felony of victimizing the elderly or the phys-
40 ically disabled in the second degree, the term must be at least six 41 years and must not exceed fifteen years;

4. Alternative definite sentence for class D felony offense against the elderly or the physically disabled. When a person, other than a multiple felony offender, is sentenced for the class D felony of victimizing the elderly or the physically disabled in the third degree, and the court, having regard to the nature and circumstances of the crime and to the history and character of the defendant, is of the opinion that it would be unduly harsh to impose an indeterminate sentence, the court may impose a definite sentence of imprisonment and fix a term of one year.

§ 7. Subdivision 4 of section 180.75 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 264 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as follows:

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions two and three of this section, a local criminal court shall, at the request of the district attorney, order removal of an action against a juvenile offender to the family court pursuant to the provisions of article seven hundred twenty-five of this chapter if, upon consideration of the criteria specified in subdivision two of section 210.43 of this chapter, it is determined that to do so would be in the interests of justice. Where, however, the felony complaint charges the juvenile offender with an offense against the elderly or physically disabled, or murder in the second degree as defined in section 125.25 of the penal law, rape in the first degree as defined in subdivision one of section 130.35 of the penal law, criminal sexual act in the first degree as defined in subdivision one of section 130.50 of the penal law, or an armed felony as defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision forty-one of section 1.20 of this chapter, a determination that such action be removed to the family court shall, in addition, be based upon a finding of one or more of the following factors: (i) mitigating circumstances that bear directly upon the manner in which the crime was committed; or (ii) where the defendant was not the sole participant in the crime, the defendant's participation was relatively minor although not so minor as to constitute a defense to the prosecution; or (iii) possible deficiencies in proof of the crime.

§ 8. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 5 of section 220.10 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 410 of the laws of 1979, is amended to read as follows:

(c) Where the indictment charges a felony, other than a class A felony or class B felony defined in article two hundred twenty of the penal law or class B or class C violent felony offense as defined in subdivision one of section 70.02 of the penal law, or the class C felony of victimizing the elderly or the physically disabled in the second degree as defined in section 280.05 of the penal law, and it appears that the defendant has previously been subjected to a predicate felony conviction as defined in [~~penal law~~] section 70.06 of the penal law then any plea of guilty entered pursuant to subdivision three or four must be or must include at least a plea of guilty of a felony.

§ 9. Subparagraph (vi) of paragraph (b) of subdivision 3 of section 220.30 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 481 of the laws of 1978 and as renumbered by chapter 233 of the laws of 1980, is amended to read as follows:

(vi) A plea of guilty, whether to the entire indictment or to part of the indictment for any crime other than a felony, may not be accepted on the condition that it constitutes a complete disposition of one or more

1 other indictments against the defendant wherein is charged a class B
2 felony other than a class B violent felony offense as defined in subdi-
3 vision one of section 70.02 of the penal law, or the class C felony of 4 victimizing the elderly or the physically disabled in the second degree 5 as defined in section 280.05 of the penal law.

6 § 10. Subdivision 2 of section 720.10 of the criminal procedure law,
7 as amended by chapter 416 of the laws of 1986, paragraph (a) as amended 8 by chapter 316 of the laws of 2006, is amended to read as follows:

9 2. "Eligible youth" means a youth who is eligible to be found a 10 youthful offender. Every youth is so eligible unless:

11 (a) the conviction to be replaced by a youthful offender finding is 12 for (i) a class A-I or class A-II felony, or (ii) an armed felony as 13 defined in subdivision forty-one of section 1.20, except as provided in 14 subdivision three of this section, or (iii) rape in the first degree, 15 criminal sexual act in the first degree, or aggravated sexual abuse, 16 except as provided in subdivision three of this section, or

17 (b) such youth has previously been convicted and sentenced for a felo-18 ny, or

19 (c) such youth has previously been adjudicated a youthful offender
20 following conviction of a felony or has been adjudicated on or after 21 September first, nineteen hundred seventy-eight a juvenile delinquent
22 who committed a designated felony act as defined in the family court 23 act, or

24 (d) such youth has been convicted of the class B felony of victimizing 25 the elderly or the physically disabled in the first degree as defined in 26 section 280.10 of the penal law.

27 § 11. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-28 ing the date on which it shall have become a law; provided, however, 29 that the amendments to subdivision 4 of section 180.75 of the criminal 30 procedure law made by section seven of this act shall not affect the 31 repeal of such subdivision and shall be deemed repealed therewith.
