ARTICLE XX

RECALL

- Section 1. Recall is the power of citizens to remove an elective officer.
- 8 § 2. a. Recall of a state officer is initiated by a registered voter 9 registering his or her intent to initiate a recall of a state official 10 with the state board of elections. Intent to initiate a recall shall include a reason for recall. Sufficiency of reason is not reviewable. 11 12 Proponents have ninety days from the registering of intent to file 13 sufficient petitions.
- 14 b. A petition to recall a statewide officer shall be sufficient when 15 signed by registered voters equal in number to at least twenty percent of the total number of voters to vote in the previous election for the 16 office, with signatures from each of the counties within the state equal 17 in number to at least one percent of the total number of voters to vote 18 in the previous election for the office in the county. A petition to 19 20 recall senators and members of the assembly shall be sufficient when 21 signed by registered voters equal in number to at least twenty percent of the total number of voters to vote in the previous election for the 23 office in the senate or assembly district. There shall be no ability to recall officers serving in the office of judge. Sufficient petitions 24 25 shall be certified by the state board of elections.
- 26 c. The state board of elections shall maintain a continuous count of 27 the signatures certified to that office.

EXPLANATION -- Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

§ 3. a. An election to determine whether to recall an officer shall be held no less than seventy days nor more than ninety days from the date of certification of sufficient signatures.

- b. If the majority of voters vote in favor of recall, the officer is removed. In the following special election to fill the vacancy of the recalled official, the recalled officer may not be a candidate, nor shall there by any candidacy for an office filled pursuant to section two of article six of this constitution.
- 9 c. Upon the recall of a state official in the office of state senate 10 or state assembly, a special election shall be called by the governor to 11 fill the vacancy of a state senate or state assembly district.
 - § 4. If recall of the governor is enacted, the duties of the office shall be performed by the lieutenant governor. If recall of the lieutenant governor is enacted, the duties of the lieutenant governor shall be performed by the temporary president of the senate. If recall of the attorney general or comptroller is enacted, the office of attorney general or comptroller shall be filled pursuant to section forty-one of article three of the public officers law.
- § 5. A state officer who is not recalled shall not be reimbursed by 20 the state for the officer's recall election expenses legally and personally incurred. Another recall may not be initiated against the officer until six months after the recall.
- § 6. Costs incurred by the county board of elections for operating the 24 recall and the special election shall be reimbursed through the general fund of New York state.
- 26 § 2. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the foregoing amendment be 27 referred to the first regular legislative session convening after the next succeeding general election of members of the assembly, and, in 28 conformity with section 1 of article 19 of the constitution, be published for 3 months previous to the time of such election.
