

STATE OF NEW YORK

5493--B

2019-2020 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

February 12, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. MOSLEY, ORTIZ, D'URSO, WEPRIN, TAYLOR, GOTTFRIED, HYNDMAN, O'DONNELL, DICKENS, HUNTER, QUART, REYES, FAHY, COOK, BARRON, HEVESI, EPSTEIN, SIMOTAS, SIMON, FERNANDEZ, CAHILL -- Multi-Sponsored by -- M. of A. LENTOL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Correction -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee -- recommitted to the Committee on Correction in accordance with Assembly Rule 3, sec. 2 -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the executive law and the penal law, in relation to revocation of community supervision

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 259 of the executive law is amended by adding five 2 new subdivisions 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 to read as follows:

3 5. "Releasee" means an individual released from an institution under 4 the jurisdiction of the department into the community on temporary 5 release, presumptive release, parole, conditional release, post-release 6 supervision or medical parole.

7 6. "Technical violation" means any violation of a condition of commu-8 nity supervision in an important respect other than conduct that if 9 proved would be a felony offense, or a misdemeanor offense under article 10 one hundred twenty, one hundred twenty-one, one hundred thirty, one 11 hundred thirty-five, two hundred sixty-five or four hundred eighty-five 12 of the penal law.

13 7. "Absconding" means intentionally avoiding supervision by failing to 14 maintain contact or communication with the releasee's assigned community 15 supervision officer or area bureau office and to notify his or her 16 assigned community supervision officer or area bureau office of a change 17 in residence, and reasonable efforts by the assigned community super-18 vision officer to re-engage the releasee have been unsuccessful.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD06090-08-0

1 8. "Tier 1 violation" means any technical violation not included in 2 the definition of a Tier 2 violation.

3 9. "Tier 2 violation" means any of the following technical violations:
4 violating curfew; failure to pay surcharges and fees, including fees 5 imposed pursuant to section 60.35 of the penal law, sections eighteen 6 hundred nine and eighteen hundred nine-c of the vehicle and traffic law, 7 or section 27.12 of the parks, recreation and historic preservation law; 8 obtaining a driver's license or driving a car with a valid driver's 9 license, provided however it shall not be a tier 2 violation if such 10 action is explicitly prohibited as a condition of such person's 11 sentence; positive test for or use or possession of alcohol, drugs, a 12 controlled substance without proper medical authorization, or drug 13 paraphernalia, provided however it shall not be a tier 2 violation if 14 the releasee is subject to community supervision due to a conviction 15 related to alcohol or drugs pursuant to section eleven hundred ninety-16 two of the vehicle and traffic law; failing to notify a community super-17 vision officer of a change in employment or program status; failing to 18 notify a community supervision officer of a change in residence, 19 provided however it shall not be a tier 2 violation if the releasee was 20 absconding; failure to make office or written reports as directed, 21 provided however it shall not be a tier 2 violation if the releasee was 22 absconding; leaving the state of New York or any other state to which 23 the releasee is released or transferred or any area defined in writing 24 by his parole officer, without permission, provided however it shall not 25 be a tier 2 violation if the releasee was absconding; failure to notify 26 community supervision officer of contact with any law enforcement agen-27 cy, provided however it shall not be a tier 2 violation if the releasee 28 intended to hide evidence of his or others' behavior that constitutes a 29 violation of the penal law; and failure to obey any other special condi-30 tion of community supervision, provided however it shall not be a tier 2 31 violation if the failure cannot be addressed in the community with coun-32 seling, treatment, or programming and all reasonable community-based 33 means to address the failure have been exhausted.

34 § 2. Subdivision 3 of section 70.40 of the penal law, paragraphs (a) 35 and (b) as amended by section 127-h of subpart B of part C of chapter 62 36 of the laws of 2011 and paragraph (c) as amended by chapter 478 of the 37 laws of 1973, is amended and a new subdivision 4 is added to read as 38 follows:

39 3. Delinquency. (a) When a person is alleged to have violated the 40 terms of presumptive release or parole by absconding, and the state 41 board of parole has declared such person to be delinquent, the declara-42 tion of delinquency shall interrupt the person's sentence as of the date 43 of the delinquency and such interruption shall continue until the 44 [~~return of the person to an institution under the jurisdiction of the~~ 45 ~~state department of corrections and community supervision~~] releasee's 46 appearance in response to a notice of violation or the date of the 47 execution of a warrant, whichever is earlier.

48 (b) When a person is alleged to have violated the terms of his or her 49 conditional release or post-release supervision by absconding and has 50 been declared delinquent by the parole board or the local conditional 51 release commission having supervision over such person, the declaration 52 of delinquency shall interrupt the period of supervision or post-release 53 supervision as of the date of the delinquency. For a conditional 54 release, such interruption shall continue until the [~~return of the~~ 55 ~~person to the institution from which he or she was released or, if he or~~ 56 ~~she was released from an institution under the jurisdiction of the state~~

1 ~~department of corrections and community supervision, to an institution~~
2 ~~under the jurisdiction of that department. Upon such return, the person~~ 3 ~~shall resume service of his or her sentence]~~ releasee's appearance in 4 response to a notice of violation or the date of the execution of a 5 warrant, whichever is earlier. For a person released to post-release 6 supervision, the provisions of section 70.45 of this article shall 7 apply.

8 (c) Any time spent by a person in custody from the time of [~~delinquen-~~ 9 ~~cy]~~ execution of a warrant pursuant to paragraph (a) of subdivision 10 three of section two hundred fifty-nine-i of the executive law to the 11 time service of the sentence resumes shall be credited against the term 12 or maximum term of the interrupted sentence[~~, provided:~~

13 ~~(i) that such custody was due to an arrest or surrender based upon the~~ 14 ~~delinquency; or~~

15 ~~(ii) that such custody arose from an arrest on another charge which~~ 16 ~~culminated in a dismissal or an acquittal; or~~

17 ~~(iii) that such custody arose from an arrest on another charge which~~ 18 ~~culminated in a conviction, but in such case, if a sentence of imprison-~~ 19 ~~ment was imposed, the credit allowed shall be limited to the portion of~~ 20 ~~the time spent in custody that exceeds the period, term or maximum term~~ 21 ~~of imprisonment imposed for such conviction].~~

22 4. Earned time credits. (a) After a person has begun a period of 23 community supervision pursuant to this section and section 70.45 of this 24 article, such period shall be reduced by thirty days for every thirty 25 days that such person does not violate a condition of his or her commu-26 nity supervision, provided the person is not subject to any sentence 27 with a maximum term of life imprisonment. The calculation of earned time 28 credit periods shall begin on the releasee's first day of community 29 supervision and shall be awarded after each completed thirty day period.
30 Any such awarded earned time credits shall be applied against such 31 person's unserved portion of the maximum term, aggregate maximum term or 32 period of post-release supervision for any current sentence.

33 (b) Earned time credits may be withheld or revoked only for the thir-
34 ty-day period commencing from the date of violative behavior sustained 35 at a final revocation hearing, except that earned time credits may be 36 withheld or revoked for the entire time period during which a releasee 37 absconded from supervision, as sustained at a final revocation hearing, 38 and as defined in subparagraph (xii) of paragraph (f) of subdivision 39 three of section two hundred fifty-nine-i of the executive law. Earned 40 time credits may not be earned during a period of incarceration imposed 41 based on a sustained violation or new criminal conviction. After a 42 sustained violation, the calculation of an earned time credit period 43 shall recommence on the thirty-first day after the date of the violative 44 behavior or, if the sustained violation resulted in a term of carcera-45 tion, on the day the releasee is restored to community supervision, 46 whichever is later.

47 (c) When a person is subject to more than one period of community 48 supervision, the reduction authorized in this subdivision shall be 49 applied to every period of parole or conditional release to which the 50 person is subject.

51 (d) Earned time credits shall be awarded to any person subject to 52 community supervision at the time this legislation becomes effective 53 retroactive to the initial date such person began his or her earliest 54 current period of community supervision. Provided however, if a 55 releasee's current period of community supervision has been interrupted 56 by a period of incarceration prior to the effective date of the chapter

1 of the laws of two thousand twenty which added this subdivision, no 2 earned time credits shall be awarded for such period of incarceration.
3 The department shall have six months from the effective date of this 4 subdivision to calculate all retroactive earned time credits; however, 5 the department of corrections and community supervision shall prioritize 6 earned time credit calculations for releasees whose terms of community 7 supervision are due to terminate before the conclusion of such six 8 months. Retroactive earned time credits shall not be awarded to any 9 releasee serving a term of incarceration for a sustained parole
10 violation at the time of the effective date of the chapter of the laws 11 of two thousand twenty which added this subdivision until the releasee 12 is returned to community supervision.

13 § 3. Paragraph (d) of subdivision 5 of section 70.45 of the penal law, 14 as amended by section 127-j of subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the 15 laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

16 (d) When a person is alleged to have violated a condition of post-re-17 lease supervision by absconding and the department of corrections and 18 community supervision has declared such person to be delinquent: (i) the 19 declaration of delinquency shall interrupt the period of post-release 20 supervision; (ii) such interruption shall continue until the person is 21 restored to post-release supervision; (iii) if the person is restored to 22 post-release supervision without being returned to the department of 23 corrections and community supervision, any time spent in custody from 24 the date of delinquency until restoration to post-release supervision 25 shall first be credited to the maximum or aggregate maximum term of the 26 sentence or sentences of imprisonment, but only to the extent authorized 27 by subdivision three of section 70.40 of this article. Any time spent in 28 custody solely pursuant to such delinquency after completion of the 29 maximum or aggregate maximum term of the sentence or sentences of impri-30 sonment shall be credited to the period of post-release supervision, if 31 any; and (iv) if the person is ordered returned to the department of 32 corrections and community supervision, the person shall be required to 33 serve the time assessment before being re-released to post-release
34 supervision. [~~In the event the balance of the remaining period of post-~~ 35 ~~release supervision is six months or less, such time assessment may be~~ 36 ~~up to six months unless a longer period is authorized pursuant to subdivi-~~ 37 ~~vision one of this section. The] If the person is detained pursuant to 38 paragraph (a) of subdivision three of section two hundred fifty-nine-i 39 of the executive law pending preliminary or revocation hearings, the 40 time assessment shall commence upon the execution of the warrant. If a 41 warrant was executed pursuant to paragraph (a) of subdivision three of 42 section two hundred fifty-nine-i of the executive law but a trial court 43 released the person pending preliminary or revocation hearings, the time 44 assessment shall commence upon the issuance of a determination after a 45 final hearing that the person has violated one or more conditions of 46 community supervision, and shall include the time period between 47 execution of the warrant and release of the person pending preliminary 48 or revocation hearings. If a releasee is committed to the custody of the 49 sheriff pursuant to article five hundred thirty of the criminal proce-50 dure law, the time assessment shall include any time the releasee spent 51 in such detention. If a notice of violation was issued pursuant to 52 subdivision three of section two hundred fifty-nine-i of the executive 53 law, the time assessment shall commence upon the issuance of a determi-54 nation after a final hearing that the person has violated one or more 55 conditions of supervision. While serving such assessment, the person 56 shall not receive any good behavior allowance pursuant to section eight~~

1 hundred three of the correction law. Any time spent in custody from the 2 date of delinquency until return to the department of corrections and 3 community supervision shall first be credited to the maximum or aggregate 4 maximum term of the sentence or sentences of imprisonment, but only 5 to the extent authorized by subdivision three of section 70.40 of this 6 article. The maximum or aggregate maximum term of the sentence or 7 sentences of imprisonment shall run while the person is serving such 8 time assessment in the custody of the department of corrections and 9 community supervision. Any time spent in custody solely pursuant to such 10 delinquency after completion of the maximum or aggregate maximum term of 11 the sentence or sentences of imprisonment shall be credited to the period 12 of post-release supervision, if any.

13 § 4. Subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 3 of section 14 259-i of the executive law, as amended by chapter 545 of the laws of 15 2015, is amended and five new subparagraphs (iv), (v), (vi), (vii) and 16 (viii) are added to read as follows:

17 (i) If the parole officer having charge of a presumptively released, 18 paroled or conditionally released person or a person released to post-19 release supervision or a person received under the uniform act for out-20 of-state parolee supervision shall have [~~reasonable~~] probable cause to 21 believe that such person has [~~lapsed into criminal ways or company, or~~ 22 ~~has violated one or more conditions of his presumptive release, parole,~~ 23 ~~conditional release or post-release supervision~~] committed a technical 24 violation, such parole officer shall report such fact to a member of the 25 board, or to any officer of the department designated by the board, and 26 thereupon a written notice of violation may be issued according to the 27 terms of subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (c) of this subdivision, and 28 shall be promptly served upon such person. If the releasee has failed to 29 appear as directed in response to a notice of violation and has failed 30 to appear voluntarily within forty-eight hours after such time and the 31 person would be subject to incarceration pursuant to subparagraph (xii) 32 of paragraph (f) of this subdivision should the violation be sustained 33 at a final revocation hearing, a warrant may be issued for the retaking 34 of such person and for his temporary detention in accordance with the 35 rules of the board. If the person has failed to appear as directed in 36 response to a notice of violation and has failed to appear voluntarily 37 within forty-eight hours after such time and the person would not be 38 subject to incarceration pursuant to subparagraph (xii) of paragraph (f) 39 of this subdivision should the violation be sustained at a final revoca-40 tion hearing, no warrant shall issue and the violation shall be deemed 41 sustained. Notice of that decision shall be promptly served upon the 42 releasee. In such case, within one month of the date the notice of deci-43 sion was served upon the releasee, the releasee may move to vacate such 44 a sustained violation if the releasee can show that the notice of 45 violation was not properly served or the failure to appear was otherwise 46 excusable. If the parole officer having charge of a presumptively 47 released, paroled or conditionally released person or a person released 48 to post-release supervision or a person received under the uniform act 49 for out of state parolee supervision shall have probable cause to 50 believe that such person has committed a non-technical violation, such 51 parole officer shall report such fact to a member of the board, or to 52 any officer of the department designated by the board, and thereupon a 53 notice of violation may be issued or a warrant may be issued for the 54 retaking of such person and for his temporary detention in accordance 55 with the rules of the board [~~unless such person~~]. However, if a releasee

1 has been determined to be currently unfit to proceed to trial or is 2 currently subject to a temporary or final order of observation pursuant 3 to article seven hundred thirty of the criminal procedure law, [~~in which~~ 4 ~~case~~] no notice of violation or warrant shall be issued. The issuance of 5 a notice of violation, service of a notice of violation, service of a 6 notice of decision, and the retaking and detention of any [~~such~~] person 7 for whom a warrant has been issued pursuant to this subparagraph may be 8 further regulated by rules and regulations of the department not incon-9 sistent with this article. A warrant issued pursuant to this section 10 shall constitute sufficient authority to the superintendent or other 11 person in charge of any jail, penitentiary, lockup or detention pen to 12 whom it is delivered to hold in temporary detention the person named 13 therein[~~, except that a warrant issued with respect to a person who has~~ 14 ~~been released on medical parole pursuant to section two hundred fifty-~~ 15 ~~nine-r of this article and whose parole is being revoked pursuant to~~ 16 ~~paragraph (h) of subdivision four of such section shall constitute~~ 17 ~~authority for the immediate placement of the parolee only into imprison-~~ 18 ~~ment in the custody of the department to hold in temporary detention. A~~ 19 ~~warrant issued pursuant to this section shall also constitute sufficient~~ 20 ~~authority to the person in charge of a drug treatment campus, as defined~~ 21 ~~in subdivision twenty of section two of the correction law, to hold the~~ 22 ~~person named therein, in accordance with the procedural requirements of~~ 23 ~~this section, for a period of at least ninety days to complete an inten-~~ 24 ~~sive drug treatment program mandated by the board as an alternative to~~ 25 ~~presumptive release or parole or conditional release revocation, or the~~ 26 ~~revocation of post-release supervision, and shall also constitute suffi-~~ 27 ~~cient authority for return of the person named therein to local custody~~ 28 ~~to hold in temporary detention for further revocation proceedings in the~~ 29 ~~event said person does not successfully complete the intensive drug~~ 30 ~~treatment program. The board's rules shall provide for cancellation of~~ 31 ~~delinquency and restoration to supervision upon the successful~~ 32 ~~completion of the program] for up to twenty-four hours pending a recog-33 nizance hearing pursuant to subparagraph (iv) of this paragraph. It 34 shall no longer be a condition of parole nor may a notice of violation 35 or a warrant be issued due to a releasee being in the company of or 36 fraternizing with any person the releasee knows has a criminal record or 37 knows has been adjudicated a youthful offender.~~

38 (iv) Upon execution of a warrant issued pursuant to this section, the 39 authorized officer shall take the releasee to a local court with crimi-
40 nal jurisdiction for a recognizance hearing. Such recognizance hearing 41 shall commence within twenty-four hours of the execution of the warrant.

42 (v) At a recognizance hearing, the department shall have the burden to 43 demonstrate to the court that the executed warrant was properly issued 44 and served pursuant to this section.

45 (vi) At a recognizance hearing, the court shall consider all available 46 evidence of the releasee's employment, family and community ties includ-47 ing length of residency in the community, history of reporting in a 48 timely fashion to a parole or supervisory officer, and other indicators 49 of stability. At the conclusion of the recognizance hearing, the court 50 may order that the releasee be detained pending preliminary or final 51 revocation hearings only upon a finding that the releasee currently 52 presents a substantial risk of willfully failing to appear at the 53 preliminary or final revocation hearings and that no non-monetary condi-54 tion or combination of conditions in the community will reasonably 55 assure the releasee's appearance at the preliminary or final revocation 56 hearings. Otherwise, the court shall release the releasee on the least 1 restrictive non-monetary conditions that will reasonably assure the 2 releasee's appearance at subsequent preliminary or revocation hearings, 3 with a presumption of release on recognizance. The court shall explain 4 its decision on the record or in writing. If non-monetary conditions of 5 release are imposed, the releasee shall not be required to pay for any 6 part of the cost of such conditions.

7 (vii) The alleged violator shall have a right to representation by 8 counsel at the recognizance hearing. In any case, including when a court 9 is called upon to evaluate the capacity of an alleged violator in a 10 recognizance proceeding, where such person is financially unable to 11 retain counsel, the criminal court of the city of New York, the county 12 court or district court in the county where the violation is alleged to 13 have occurred or where the hearing is held, shall assign counsel in 14 accordance with the county or city plan for representation placed in 15 operation pursuant to article eighteen-B of the county law.

16 (viii) Such recognizance hearing may be held at the same time as a 17 proceeding pursuant to article five hundred thirty of the criminal 18 procedure law based on the same alleged conduct. If at the proceeding 19 pursuant to article five hundred thirty of the criminal procedure law 20 the court imposes bail or commits the releasee to the custody of the 21 sheriff pursuant to article five hundred thirty of the criminal proce-22 dure law and the releasee secures release by paying bail or by operation 23 of law, then the releasee shall not be detained further based solely on 24 the warrant issued by the department. If the department issues a warrant 25 for a non-technical violation for alleged criminal conduct that has 26 already been the subject of a court's order pursuant to article five 27 hundred thirty of the criminal procedure law, then within twenty-four 28 hours of execution of the warrant the releasee shall be provided a 29 recognizance hearing pursuant to this subparagraph.

30 § 5. Subparagraphs (i), (iii) and (iv) of paragraph (c) of subdivision 31 3 of section 259-i of the executive law, subparagraph (i) as amended by 32 section 11 of part E of chapter 62 of the laws of 2003, and subpara-33 graphs (iii) and (iv) as amended by section 1 of part E of chapter 56 of 34 the laws of 2007, are amended and two new subparagraphs (ix) and (x) are 35 added to read as follows:

36 ~~(i) [Within fifteen days after the warrant for retaking and temporary~~ 37 ~~detention has been executed, unless the releasee has been convicted of a~~ 38 ~~new crime committed while under presumptive release, parole, conditional~~ 39 ~~release or post-release supervision, the board of parole shall afford~~ 40 ~~the alleged presumptive release, parole, conditional release or post-re-~~ 41 ~~lease supervision violator a preliminary revocation hearing before a~~ 42 ~~hearing officer designated by the board of parole. Such hearing officer~~ 43 ~~shall not have had any prior supervisory involvement over the alleged~~ 44 ~~violator]~~ (A) For any alleged technical violation for which a notice of 45 violation was issued or a person was released on recognizance pursuant 46 to subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the depart-47 ment shall within ten days of the issuance of the notice of violation or 48 the order of release on recognizance afford the person a preliminary 49 revocation hearing before a hearing officer designated by the depart-50 ment. Such hearing officer shall not have had any prior supervisory 51 involvement over the alleged violator. Such hearing shall not be held at 52 a correctional facility, detention center or local correctional facili-53 ty.

54 (B) For any alleged technical violation for which a court issued an 55 order detaining a person pursuant to subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (a) 56 of this subdivision and the person would be subject to reincarceration

1 of up to thirty days pursuant to subparagraph (x) of paragraph (f) of 2 this subdivision should the violation be sustained at a final revocation 3 hearing, then within five days of the issuance of the order of detention 4 the department shall afford such person a preliminary revocation hearing 5 before a hearing officer designated by the department. Such hearing 6 officer shall not have had any prior supervisory involvement over the 7 alleged violator.

8 (C) For any alleged non-technical violation, within ten days of the 9 issuance of a notice or execution of a warrant for the violation the 10 department shall afford such person a preliminary hearing before a hear-11 ing officer designated by the department. Such hearing officer shall not 12 have had any prior supervisory involvement over the alleged violator.

13 (iii) The alleged violator shall, [~~within three days of the execution~~ 14 ~~of the warrant~~] at the time a notice of violation is issued or at the 15 time of a recognizance hearing, be given written notice of the time, 16 place and purpose of the preliminary hearing [~~unless he or she is~~ 17 ~~detained pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph (iv) of paragraph~~ 18 ~~(a) of this subdivision. In those instances, the alleged violator will~~ 19 ~~be given written notice of the time, place and purpose of the hearing~~ 20 ~~within five days of the execution of the warrant~~], or if no preliminary 21 hearing is required pursuant to this section, of the final revocation 22 hearing. The notice shall state what conditions of [~~presumptive~~
23 ~~release, parole, conditional release or post-release~~] community super-24 vision are alleged to have been violated, and in what manner; that such 25 person shall have the right to appear and speak in his or her own 26 behalf; that he or she shall have the right to introduce letters and 27 documents; that he or she may present witnesses who can give relevant 28 information to the hearing officer; that he or she has the right to 29 confront the witnesses against him or her; that such person shall have 30 the right to representation by counsel at any preliminary and final 31 revocation hearings; and the name and contact details for institutional 32 defenders or assigned private counsel, as applicable. Adverse witnesses 33 may be compelled to attend the preliminary hearing unless the prisoner 34 has been convicted of a new crime while on supervision or unless the 35 hearing officer finds good cause for their non-attendance. As far as 36 practicable or feasible, any additional documents having been collected 37 or prepared that [~~support~~] are relevant to the charge shall be delivered 38 to the alleged violator.

39 (iv) [~~The preliminary hearing shall be scheduled to take place no~~ 40 ~~later than fifteen days from the date of execution of the warrant.~~] The 41 standard of proof at the preliminary hearing shall be [~~probable cause~~] a 42 preponderance of the evidence to believe that the [~~presumptive releasee,~~ 43 ~~parolee, conditional releasee or person under post-release supervision~~] 44 releasee has violated one or more conditions of his or her [~~presumptive~~
45 ~~release, parole, conditional release or post-release~~] community super-46 vision in an important respect. Proof of conviction of a crime committed 47 while under supervision shall constitute [~~probable cause~~] prima facie 48 evidence of a violation of a condition of community supervision for the 49 purposes of this section.

50 (ix) If the hearing officer finds by a preponderance of the evidence 51 that such person has violated one or more conditions of community super-52 vision in an important respect, the releasee shall, at the conclusion of 53 the preliminary hearing be given written notice of the time, place and 54 purpose of the final revocation hearing. The notice shall state what 55 conditions of community supervision are alleged to have been violated, 56 when, where and in what manner; that such person shall have the right to 1 representation by counsel at any final revocation hearing; that such 2 person shall have the right to appear and speak in his or her own

3 behalf; that he or she shall have the right to introduce letters and 4 documents; that he or she may present witnesses who can give relevant 5 information to the hearing officer; that he or she has the right to 6 confront the witnesses against him or her; and the name and contact 7 details for institutional defenders or assigned private counsel, as 8 applicable. Any additional documents having been collected or prepared 9 that support the charge shall be delivered to the releasee. Adverse 10 witnesses may be compelled to attend the final revocation hearing unless 11 the prisoner has been convicted of a new crime while on supervision or 12 unless the hearing officer finds good cause for their non-attendance.

13 (x) The alleged violator shall have a right to representation by coun-14 sel at the preliminary hearing. In any case, including when a court is 15 called upon to evaluate the capacity of an alleged violator in a prelim-16 inary proceeding, where such person is financially unable to retain 17 counsel, the criminal court of the city of New York, the county court or 18 district court in the county where the violation is alleged to have 19 occurred or where the hearing is held, shall assign counsel in accord-20 ance with the county or city plan for representation placed in operation 21 pursuant to article eighteen-B of the county law.

22 § 6. Paragraph (f) of subdivision 3 of section 259-i of the executive 23 law, as amended by section 11 of part E of chapter 62 of the laws of 24 2003, subparagraph (v) as amended and subparagraph (xii) as added by 25 chapter 545 of the laws of 2015 and subparagraph (x) as amended by 26 section 38-f-1 of subpart A of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, 27 is amended to read as follows:

28 (f) (i) [~~Revocation hearings shall be scheduled to be held within~~ 29 ~~ninety days of the probable cause determination~~] For any releasee 30 charged with a violation:

31 (A) If a court issued an order detaining such person pursuant to 32 subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision and the person 33 would be subject to reincarceration of up to seven days pursuant to 34 subparagraph (x) of this paragraph should the violation be sustained at 35 a final revocation hearing, then within two days of the issuance of the 36 order of detention, the department shall afford such person a final 37 revocation hearing in person before a hearing officer designated by the 38 department. Such hearing officer shall not have had any prior superviso-
39 ry involvement over the alleged violator. No preliminary revocation
40 hearing shall be held in this instance.

41 (B) If a court issued an order detaining such person pursuant to 42 subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision and the person 43 would be subject to reincarceration of up to fifteen days pursuant to 44 subparagraph (x) of this paragraph should the violation be sustained at 45 a final revocation hearing, then within four days of the issuance of the 46 order of detention, the department shall afford such person a final 47 revocation hearing in person before a hearing officer designated by the 48 department. Such hearing officer shall not have had any prior superviso-
49 ry involvement over the alleged violator. No preliminary revocation
50 hearing shall be held in this instance.

51 (C) If a court issued an order detaining such person pursuant to 52 subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision and the person 53 would be subject to reincarceration of up to thirty days or more pursu-54 ant to subparagraph (x) of this paragraph should the violation be 55 sustained at a final revocation hearing, then within ten days after the 56 issuance of the order of detention, the department shall afford such

1 person a final revocation hearing in person before a hearing officer 2 designated by the department. Such hearing officer shall not have had 3 any prior supervisory involvement over the alleged violator.

4 (D) If a notice of violation was issued or such person was released on 5 recognizance pursuant to subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (a) of this 6 subdivision the department shall within thirty days of the issuance of 7 the notice of violation or the order of release on recognizance afford 8 the person a final revocation hearing in person before a hearing officer 9 designated by the department. Such hearing officer shall not have had 10 any prior supervisory involvement over the alleged violator. Such hear-11 ing shall not be held at a correctional facility, detention center or 12 local correctional facility. The department shall have six months from 13 the date of the effective date of the chapter of the laws of two thou-14 sand twenty that amended this paragraph to begin to hold such hearings 15 at allowable locations.

16 (E) If such person is accused of a non-technical violation, the 17 department shall within thirty days of the execution of the warrant 18 afford such person a final revocation hearing in person before a hearing 19 officer designated by the department. Such hearing officer shall not 20 have had any supervisory involvement over the alleged violator.

21 (F) However, if an alleged violator requests and receives any post-22 ponement of his revocation hearing, or consents to a postponed revoca-23 tion proceeding initiated by the board, or if an alleged violator, by 24 his actions otherwise precludes the prompt conduct of such proceedings, 25 the time limit may be extended.

26 (ii) The revocation hearing shall be conducted by a presiding officer 27 who may be a member or a hearing officer designated by the board in 28 accordance with rules of the board.

29 (iii) Both the alleged violator and an attorney who has filed a notice 30 of appearance on his behalf in accordance with the rules of the board of 31 parole shall be given written notice of the date, place and time of the 32 hearing [~~as soon as possible but at least fourteen days prior to the~~ 33 ~~scheduled date~~] pursuant to subparagraph (ix) of paragraph (c) of this 34 subdivision.

35 (iv) The alleged violator shall be given written notice of the rights 36 enumerated in subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (c) of this subdivision as 37 well as of his right to present mitigating evidence relevant to restora-38 tion to presumptive release, parole, conditional release or post-release 39 supervision and his right to counsel.

40 (v) The alleged violator shall [~~be permitted~~] have a right to repre-
41 sentation by counsel at the revocation hearing. In any case, including 42 when a superior court is called upon to evaluate the capacity of an 43 alleged violator in a [~~parole~~] revocation proceeding, where such person 44 is financially unable to retain counsel, the criminal court of the city 45 of New York, the county court or district court in the county where the 46 violation is alleged to have occurred or where the hearing is held, 47 shall assign counsel in accordance with the county or city plan for 48 representation placed in operation pursuant to article eighteen-B of the 49 county law. He or she shall have the right to confront and cross-examine 50 adverse witnesses, unless there is good cause for their non-attendance 51 as determined by the presiding officer; present witnesses and documenta-52 ry evidence in defense of the charges; and present witnesses and docu-53 mentary evidence relevant to the question whether reincarceration of the 54 alleged violator is appropriate.

55 (vi) At the revocation hearing, the charges shall be read and the 56 alleged violator shall be permitted to plead not guilty, guilty, guilty

1 with explanation or to stand mute. As to each charge, evidence shall be 2 introduced through witnesses and documents, if any, in support of that 3 charge. At the conclusion of each witness's direct testimony, he shall 4 be made available for cross-examination. If the alleged violator intends 5 to present a defense to the charges or to present evidence of mitigating 6 circumstances, the alleged violator shall do so after presentation of 7 all the evidence in support of a violation of presumptive release, 8 parole, conditional release or post-release supervision.

9 (vii) All persons giving evidence at the revocation hearing shall be 10 sworn before giving any testimony as provided by law.

11 (viii) At the conclusion of the hearing the presiding officer may 12 sustain any or all of the violation charges or may dismiss any or all 13 violation charges. He may sustain a violation charge only if the charge 14 is supported by [~~a preponderance of the evidence adduced~~] clear and 15 convincing evidence. Conduct that formed the basis of an arrest shall 16 not form a basis of a sustained parole violation if a court has adjudi-17 cated the matter with an acquittal, adjournment in contemplation of 18 dismissal, or violation.

19 (ix) If the presiding officer is not satisfied that there is [~~a~~ 20 ~~preponderance of~~] clear and convincing evidence in support of the 21 violation, he shall dismiss the violation, cancel the delinquency and 22 restore the person to presumptive release, parole, conditional release 23 or post-release supervision.

24 (x) If the presiding officer is satisfied that there is [~~a preponder-~~ 25 ~~ance of~~] clear and convincing evidence that the alleged violator 26 violated one or more conditions of release in an important respect, he 27 or she shall so find. For each violation found, other than absconding, 28 the presiding officer shall direct that no earned time credits shall be 29 awarded for the thirty day period commencing from the date of the 30 sustained violation. For any absconding violation found, the presiding 31 officer shall direct that no earned time credits shall be awarded for 32 the entire time period during which a releasee was found to have 33 absconded from supervision.

34 (xi) Incarceration shall not be imposed for any tier 2 violation.

35 (xii) For each violation [~~so~~] found, the presiding officer may (A) 36 direct that the [~~presumptive releasee, parolee, conditional releasee or~~ 37 person serving a period of post release supervision] releasee be 38 restored to supervision; (B) as an alternative to reincarceration, 39 direct the [~~presumptive releasee, parolee, conditional releasee or~~ 40 person serving a period of post release supervision be placed in a 41 parole transition facility for a period not to exceed one hundred eighty 42 days and subsequent restoration to supervision] releasee receive re-en-43 try services in the community from qualified nonprofit agencies; or (C) 44 [~~in the case of presumptive releasees, parolees or conditional releas-~~ 45 ees,] direct the violator's reincarceration [~~and fix a date for consid-~~ 46 eration by the board for re-release on presumptive release, or parole or 47 conditional release, as the case may be, or (D) in the case of persons 48 released to a period of post-release supervision, direct the violator's 49 reincarceration up to the balance of the remaining period of post-re-50 lease supervision, not to exceed five years, provided, however, that a 51 defendant serving a term of post release supervision for a conviction of 52 a felony sex offense defined in section 70.80 of the penal law may be 53 subject to a further period of imprisonment up to the balance of the 54 remaining period of post-release supervision], subject to the following 55 limitations: (1) for absconding, which is defined as failing to notify 56 his or her community supervision officer of a change in residence will-

1 fully for the purpose of permanently avoiding supervision; failure to 2 make office or written reports as directed willfully for the purpose of 3 permanently avoiding supervision; and leaving the state of New York or 4 any other state to which the releasee is released or transferred, or any 5 area defined in writing by his parole officer, without permission, will-6 fully for the purpose of permanently avoiding supervision, up to seven 7 days reincarceration may be imposed for the first violation, up to 8 fifteen days reincarceration may be imposed for the second violation, 9 and up to thirty days reincarceration may be imposed for the third or 10 any subsequent violation; (2) for all other tier 1 violations no period 11 of reincarceration may be imposed for the first and second substantiated 12 technical violations for which incarceration may be imposed; up to seven 13 days reincarceration may be imposed for the third substantiated techni-14 cal violation for which incarceration may be imposed; up to fifteen days 15 reincarceration may be imposed for the fourth substantiated technical 16 violation for which incarceration may be imposed; up to thirty days 17 reincarceration may be imposed for the fifth and subsequent substanti-18 ated technical violations for which incarceration may be imposed; and 19 (3) for non-technical violations, up to ninety days reincarceration may 20 be imposed. If a warrant was executed pursuant to subparagraph (iv) of 21 paragraph (a) of this subdivision and the person was detained pursuant 22 to such subparagraph pending preliminary or revocation hearings, any 23 period of reincarceration imposed pursuant to this paragraph shall be 24 counted from the date of the execution of the warrant. If a warrant was 25 executed pursuant to subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (a) of this subdivi-26 sion but a criminal court released the person pending preliminary or 27 revocation hearings, any period of reincarceration imposed pursuant to 28 this paragraph shall be counted from the date of issuance of a determi-29 nation after a final hearing that the person has violated one or more 30 conditions of community supervision, and the time between execution of 31 the warrant and release of the person pending preliminary or revocation 32 hearings shall count toward the period of reincarceration imposed pursu-33 ant to this paragraph. If a releasee is committed to the custody of the 34 sheriff pursuant to article five hundred thirty of the criminal proced-35 ure law, any time the person spent confined in jail shall count towards 36 any period of reincarceration imposed pursuant to this paragraph. In all 37 cases, the presiding officer shall impose the least restrictive reason-38 able sanction. Any periods of reincarceration shall run concurrently if 39 more than one violation is adjudicated. If a period of reincarceration 40 is imposed pursuant to this paragraph, the releasee shall be released 41 from custody upon expiration of the period or the end of the releasee's 42 period of community supervision, whichever shall be sooner. For the 43 violator serving an indeterminate sentence who while re-incarcerated has 44 not been found by the department to have committed a serious discipli-45 nary infraction, such violator shall be re-released on the date fixed at 46 the revocation hearing. For the violator serving an indeterminate 47 sentence who has been found by the department to have committed a seri-48 ous disciplinary infraction while re-incarcerated, the department shall 49 refer the violator to the board for consideration for re-release to 50 community supervision. Upon such referral the board may waive the 51 personal interview between a member or members of the board and the 52 violator to determine the suitability for re-release when the board 53 directs that the violator be re-released upon expiration of the time 54 assessment. The board shall retain the authority to suspend the date 55 fixed for re-release based on the violator's commission of a serious 56 disciplinary infraction and shall in such case require a personal inter-

1 view be conducted within a reasonable time between a panel of members of 2 the board and the violator to determine suitability for re-release. If 3 an interview is required, the board shall notify the violator in advance 4 of the date and time of such interview in accordance with the rules and 5 regulations of the board.

6 [~~(xii)~~] (xiii) If the presiding officer sustains any violations, he 7 must prepare a written statement, to be made available to the alleged 8 violator and his counsel, indicating the evidence relied upon and the 9 reasons for revoking presumptive release, parole, conditional release or 10 post-release supervision, and for the disposition made.

11 [~~(xii)~~] (xiv) If at any time during a revocation proceeding the 12 alleged violator, his or her counsel, or an employee of the department 13 contends, or if it reasonably appears to the hearing officer, that the 14 alleged violator is an incapacitated person as that term is defined in 15 subdivision one of section 730.10 of the criminal procedure law and no 16 judicial determination has been made that the alleged violator is an 17 incapacitated person, the revocation proceeding shall be temporarily 18 stayed until the superior court determines whether or not the person is 19 fit to proceed. The matter shall be promptly referred to the superior 20 court for determination of the alleged violator's fitness to proceed in 21 a manner consistent with the provisions of article seven hundred thirty 22 of the criminal procedure law, provided however that the superior court 23 shall immediately appoint counsel for any unrepresented alleged violator 24 eligible for appointed counsel under subparagraph (v) of this paragraph 25 [~~(f) of subdivision three of section two hundred fifty nine i of this~~ 26 ~~chapter~~]. The court shall decide whether or not the alleged violator is 27 incapacitated within thirty days of the referral from the hearing offi-28 cer. If the court determines that the alleged violator is not an inca-29 pacitated person, the court shall order that the matter be returned to 30 the board of parole for continuation and disposition of the revocation 31 proceeding. If the court determines that the alleged violator is an 32 incapacitated person and if no felony charges are pending against the 33 alleged violator, the court shall issue a final order of observation 34 committing such person to the custody of the commissioner of mental 35 health or the commissioner of developmental disabilities for care and 36 treatment in an appropriate institution in a manner consistent with 37 subdivision one of section 730.40 of the criminal procedure law. If a 38 final order of observation has been issued pursuant to this section, the 39 hearing officer shall dismiss the violation charges and such dismissal 40 shall act as a bar to any further proceeding under this section against 41 the alleged violator for such violations. If felony criminal charges are 42 pending at any time against an alleged violator who has been referred to 43 superior court for a fitness evaluation but before a determination of 44 fitness has been made pursuant to this section, the court shall decide 45 whether or not the alleged violator is incapacitated pursuant to article 46 seven hundred thirty of the criminal procedure law and the revocation 47 proceeding shall be held in abeyance until such decision has been 48 reached. The hearing officer shall adopt the capacity finding of the 49 court and either terminate the revocation process if an order of obser-50 vation has been made by the court or proceed with the revocation hearing 51 if the alleged violator has been found not to be an incapacitated 52 person.

53 § 7. Section 259-i of the executive law is amended by adding a new 54 subdivision 9 to read as follows:

55 9. The board shall promulgate rules and regulations to facilitate the 56 presence of nonprofit service providers able to offer relevant communi-

1 ty-based services to releasees at all preliminary and final revocation 2 hearings for the purpose of helping people subject to community super-3 vision successfully complete such supervision and avoid future such 4 supervision, and to help ensure presiding officers impose the least 5 restrictive reasonable sanction for any violation of community super-6 vision.

7 § 8. This act shall take effect on the first of April next succeeding 8 the date on which it shall have become a law; provided however the 9 department of corrections and community supervision shall have six 10 months from the effective date of this act to begin holding preliminary 11 revocation hearings required by the amendments to paragraph (c) of 12 subdivision 3 of section 259-i of the executive law made by section five 13 of this act, including establishing preliminary revocation hearing 14 facilities that are not at correctional facilities for people who are 15 not detained pending their hearings. Provided further, however, that the 16 board of parole shall have two months from the effective date of this 17 act to identify each releasee incarcerated for a sustained parole 18 violation and recalculate such releasee's sentence in accordance with 19 this act. If no incarceration may be imposed pursuant to subparagraph 20 (xi) of paragraph (f) of subdivision 3 of section 259-i of the executive 21 law, as added by section six of this act, the board shall immediately 22 restore the releasee to community supervision. If the releasee may be 23 incarcerated for the sustained violation the board shall fix a new date 24 for release pursuant to subparagraph (xii) of paragraph (f) of subdivi-25 sion 3 of section 259-i of the executive law, as amended by section six 26 of this act. If such release date has passed, the board shall immediate-27 ly restore the releasee to community supervision. Provided further, 28 however, the department of corrections and community supervision shall 29 have six months from the effective date of this act to set up the final 30 revocation hearing courtrooms that are not at correctional facilities 31 for people who are not detained pending their hearing pursuant to the 32 amendments to paragraph (f) of subdivision 3 of section 259-i of the 33 executive law as made by section six of this act. Effective immediate-34 ly, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation 35 necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are 36 authorized and directed to be made and completed on or before such 37 effective date.