§ 3. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 3 of section 425 of the real property tax law, as amended by chapter 264 of the laws of 2000, is amended to read as follows:

(a) Property use. To qualify for exemption pursuant to this section, the property must be a one, two or three family residence, a manufactured home, a farm dwelling or residential property held in condominium or cooperative form of ownership. If the property is not an eligible type of property, but a portion of the property is partially used by the owner as a primary residence, that portion which is so used shall be entitled to the exemption provided by this section; provided that in no event shall the exemption exceed the assessed value attributable to that portion.

§ 4. Section 574 of the real property tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision 1-a to read as follows:

1-a. In the event that the manufactured home does not have a serial number, the assessor shall assign and issue a unique identifying number which shall be permanently affixed to the home by the homeowner, and which shall thereafter be used as the serial number for that home and added to the description on the assessment roll.

§ 5. The real property tax law is amended by adding a new section 997 to read as follows:

A copy of such certificate shall be filed with the assessor by the appropriate tax enforcement officer. The tax enforcement officer may charge a fee for such certificate in an amount not to exceed twenty-five dollars. Such application shall include the serial number or other unique identifying number assigned pursuant to section five hundred seventy-four of this chapter. The homeowner shall file a copy of such certificate with the department of transportation as a precondition to the issuance of a permit pursuant to section three hundred eighty-five of the vehicle and traffic law.

2. No manufactured home may be relocated without first obtaining a tax compliance certificate pursuant to this section. A copy of such certifi-

1 icate shall be provided to the hauler responsible for moving such home
2 who shall produce the copy of the permit upon demand of an officer
3 charged with enforcement of the provisions of section three hundred
4 eighty-five of the vehicle and traffic law.

5 3. Manufactured home park or community owners shall inform manufac-

26 with that land, a deed executed pursuant to this section shall operate
27 to transfer title of the manufactured home to or from the tax district
28 if it contains a description which identifies the manufactured home with 29 reasonable certainty. A description containing the serial number or
