IN ASSEMBLY -- Introduced by M. of A. THIELE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Correction

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to requiring inmates to have an acceptable residence to qualify for parole

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subparagraph (A) of paragraph (c) of subdivision 2 of 2 section 259-i of the executive law, as amended by chapter 130 of the 3 laws of 2016, is amended to read as follows:
4 (A) Discretionary release on parole shall not be granted merely as a 5 reward for good conduct or efficient performance of duties while 6 confined but after considering if there is a reasonable probability 7 that, if such inmate is released, he or she will live and remain at 8 liberty without violating the law, and that his or her release is not 9 incompatible with the welfare of society and will not so deprecate the 10 seriousness of his crime as to undermine respect for law. In making the 11 parole release decision, the procedures adopted pursuant to subdivision 12 four of section two hundred fifty-nine-c of this article shall require 13 that the following be considered: (i) the institutional record including 14 program goals and accomplishments, academic achievements, vocational 15 education, training or work assignments, therapy and interactions with 16 staff and inmates; (ii) performance, if any, as a participant in a 17 temporary release program; (iii) release plans [~~including~~] shall 18 include, in addition to community resources, employment, education and 19 training and support services available to the inmate, an acceptable 20 residence. In order for a residence to be an acceptable residence and 21 qualify the inmate for parole release, such residence shall be a permanent residence, and not a temporary shelter including, but not limited to, a homeless shelter, motel/hotel, or trailer, and shall allow the inmate to comply with all state and local laws and regulations regarding placement of registered sex offenders; (iv) any deportation order issued by the federal government against the inmate while in the custody of the department and any recommendation regarding deportation made by the commissioner of the department pursuant to section one hundred forty-seven of the correction law; (v) any current or prior statement made to the board by the crime victim or the victim's representative, where the crime victim is deceased or is mentally or physically incapacitated; (vi) the length of the determinate sentence to which the inmate would be subject had he or she received a sentence pursuant to section 70.70 or section 70.71 of the penal law for a felony defined in article two hundred twenty or article two hundred twenty-one of the penal law; (vii) the seriousness of the offense with due consideration to the type of sentence, length of sentence and recommendations of the sentencing court, the district attorney, the attorney for the inmate, the pre-sentence probation report as well as consideration of any mitigating and aggravating factors, and activities following arrest prior to confinement; and (viii) prior criminal record, including the nature and pattern of offenses, adjustment to any previous probation or parole supervision and institutional confinement. The board shall provide toll free telephone access for crime victims. In the case of an oral statement made in accordance with subdivision one of section 440.50 of the criminal procedure law, the parole board member shall present a written report of the statement to the parole board. A crime victim's representative shall mean the crime victim's closest surviving relative, the committee or guardian of such person, or the legal representative of any such person. Such statement submitted by the victim or victim's representative may include information concerning threatening or intimidating conduct toward the victim, the victim's representative, or the victim's family, made by the person sentenced and occurring after the sentencing. Such information may include, but need not be limited to, the threatening or intimidating conduct of any other person who or which is directed by the person sentenced. Any statement by a victim or the victim's representative made to the board shall be maintained by the department in the file provided to the board when interviewing the inmate in consideration of release. A victim or victim's representative who has submitted a written request to the department for the transcript of such interview shall be provided such transcript as soon as it becomes available.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
