1 elections of fire district officers and the polls shall remain open for the receipt thereof at all elections of fire district officers from six o'clock in the [evening] morning until nine o'clock in the evening and 3 such additional consecutive hours prior thereto as the local board of elections for each fire [commissioners of such] district may have determined and specified in the notice thereof. The local board of elections 7 for each fire [commissioners] district shall designate a resident fire district elector, who shall be a registered voter of the town, to act as 9 chairman of any election of said district and shall designate not less 10 than two nor more than four resident fire district electors, who shall be registered voters of the town to act as election inspectors and 11 ballot clerks at such elections. No elective officer of the fire 12 13 district shall serve as such chairman or as an election inspector or 14 ballot clerk. The local board of elections for each fire [gommissioners district may adopt a resolution providing that such chairman, 15 16 election inspectors and ballot clerks shall be paid for their respective 17 services at any such annual election or at any special election of the fire district. Such resolution, if adopted, shall fix the amount of such 18 19 compensation, as follows: if the hours during which the polls will be 20 open for the receipt of ballots are from six o'clock in the [evening] morning until nine o'clock in the evening, a sum not to exceed thirtyfive dollars for each such official; if additional consecutive hours 22 prior to six o'clock in the [evening] morning are determined and speci-23 fied in the notice of election, a sum not to exceed fifty dollars for 24 25 each such official.

6. If in any fire district the number of voters is so great as to render it inexpedient or impossible to conduct the election at one polling place, the local board of elections for each fire [commissioners] district may divide the fire district into election districts and provide a polling place for each such election district, provided, however, that the number of election districts in any fire district shall not exceed one for each six hundred electors plus one for a remaining fraction of six hundred. In such event, the notice specified in subdivision one of this section shall describe the election districts and state where the polling places will be located, and the local board of elections for each fire [commissioners] district shall designate not less than two nor more than four resident fire district electors, who shall be registered voters of the town, to act as election inspectors and ballot clerks at each such polling place. The local board of elections for each fire district [commissioners] may adopt a resolution providing that such election inspectors and ballot clerks shall be paid for their respective services at any such annual election or at any special election of the fire district. Such resolution, if adopted, shall fix the amount of such compensation as follows: if the hours during which the polls will be open for the receipt of ballots are from six o'clock in the [evening] morning until nine o'clock in the evening, sum not to exceed thirty-five dollars for each such official[ + if additional consecutive hours prior to six o'clock in the evening are determined and specified in the notice of election, a sum not to exceed fifty dollars for each such official]. No elective officer of the fire district shall serve as an election inspector or ballot clerk.

52 § 2. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-53 ing the date on which it shall have become a law.
