23 of this title is brought to compel the third party to honor the statuto-24 ry short form power of attorney, the court may award damages, including 25 reasonable attorney's fees and costs, if the court finds that the third 26 party acted unreasonably in refusing to honor the agent's authority
27 under the statutory short form power of attorney. Such special proceed-28 ing shall be the exclusive remedy for a violation of this section.

29 [~~3-~~] 5. In the absence of actual knowledge that the principal lacked 30 capacity to execute a statutory short form power of attorney or that the 32 duress or undue influence, no third party receiving and retaining a 33 [~~properly executed~~] statutory short form power of attorney properly 34 executed in accordance with section 5-1501B of this title, [~~including a~~ 35 ~~statutory short form power of attorney which is supplemented by a statu-~~

36 ~~tory gifts rider]~~ or a statutory short form power of attorney properly 37 executed in accordance with the laws in effect at the time of its 38 execution, or a complete photostatic copy of the properly executed
39 original thereof, nor any officer, agent, attorney-in-fact or employee 40 of such third party shall incur any liability by reason of acting upon 41 the authority thereof unless the third party shall have received actual 42 notice of the revocation or termination of such power of attorney.

43 If a principal maintains an account at a financial institution, the 44 financial institution is deemed to have actual notice after it has had a 45 reasonable opportunity to act on a written notice of the revocation or 46 termination following its receipt of the same at its office where such 47 account is located.

48 [~~4-~~] 6. If the application of the provisions of subdivision [~~one or~~] 49 two or four of this section shall be held invalid to any third party the 50 application of such provisions to any third party other than those to 51 which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby.

52 [~~5-~~] 7. When the power of attorney is presented to a third party, it 53 shall not be deemed unreasonable for a third party to require the agent 54 to execute an acknowledged affidavit pursuant to this subdivision stat-55 ing that the power of attorney is in full force and effect. Such an 56 affidavit is conclusive proof to the third party relying on the power of 1 attorney that the power of attorney is valid and effective, and has not 2 been terminated, revoked or modified, except as to any third party who 3 had actual notice that the power of attorney had terminated, been 4 revoked or been modified prior to the execution of the affidavit. Such 5 affidavit shall state that:

6 (a) the agent does not have, at the time of the transaction, actual 7 notice of the termination or revocation of the power of attorney, or 8 notice of any facts indicating that the power of attorney has been 9 terminated or revoked;

10 (b) the agent does not have, at the time of the transaction, actual 11 notice that the power of attorney has been modified in any way that 12 would affect the ability of the agent to authorize or engage in the 13 transaction, or notice of any facts indicating that the power of attor-14 ney has been so modified;

15 (c) if the agent was named as a successor agent, the prior agent is no 16 longer able or willing to serve; and

17 (d) if the agent has been the principal's spouse, the power of attor-
18 ney expressly provides that divorce or annulment as defined in subpara-19 graph two of paragraph (f) of section 5-1.4 of the estates, powers and 20 trusts law does not terminate the agent's authority thereunder, or the 21 agent does not have actual notice that the marriage has been terminated 22 by divorce or annulment as defined in subparagraph two of paragraph (f) 23 of section 5-1.4 of the estates, powers and trusts law at the time of 24 the transaction.

25 ~~[6-]~~ 8. Nothing in this section shall require the acceptance of a form 26 that is not a statutory short form power of attorney.

27 ~~[7-]~~ 9. A statutory short form power of attorney or a non-statutory 28 power of attorney that meets the requirements of subdivision one of 29 section 5-1501B of this title shall be accepted for recording so long as 30 it has been signed by one agent named therein whose signature has been 31 acknowledged. If two or more agents acting on behalf of the principal 32 are required to act together, the power of attorney shall be accepted
33 for recording as long as their signatures have been acknowledged. When a 34 successor or co-agent authorized to act separately from any other agents 35 presents a certified copy of a recorded statutory short form power of 36 attorney or non-statutory power of attorney with the agent's signature 37 acknowledged, the instrument shall be accepted for recording.

38 § 15. Subparagraph 2 of paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 39 5-1505 of the general obligations law, as amended by chapter 340 of the 40 laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

41 (2) To keep the principal's property separate and distinct from any 42 other property owned or controlled by the agent, except for property 43 that is jointly owned by the principal and agent at the time of the 44 execution of the power of attorney, and property that becomes jointly 45 owned after the execution of the power of attorney as the result of the 46 agent's acquisition of an interest in the principal's property by reason 47 of the agent's exercise of authority granted in the modifications 48 section of a statutory ~~[gifts rider]~~ short form power of attorney or in 49 a non-statutory power of attorney ~~[signed and dated by the principal~~ 50 ~~with the signature of the principal duly acknowledged in the manner~~ 51 ~~prescribed for the acknowledgment of a conveyance of real property, and~~ 52 ~~which is executed pursuant to the requirements of paragraph (b) of~~ 53 ~~subdivision nine of section 5-1514 of this title]~~. The agent may not 54 make gifts ~~[to]~~ of the principal's property to himself or herself with-55 out specific authorization in a power of attorney.

§ 16. Paragraphs (h) and (i) of subdivision 2 of section 5-1510 of the general obligations law, as added by chapter 644 of the laws of 2008, are amended to read as follows:

(h) to construe any provision of a power of attorney; or
(i) to compel acceptance of the power of attorney [~~in which event the relief to be granted is limited to an order compelling acceptance~~].

§ 17. Section 5-1513 of the general obligations law, as amended by chapter 340 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

§ 5-1513. Statutory short form power of attorney. [~~1.~~] The use of the following form, or one which substantially conforms to the following form, in the creation of a power of attorney is lawful, and, when used, and executed in accordance with subdivision one of section 5-1501B of this title, it shall be construed as a statutory short form power of attorney in accordance with the provisions of this title; provided however, that any section indicated as "Optional" which is not used may be omitted and replaced by the words "Intentionally Omitted":

"POWER OF ATTORNEY

NEW YORK STATUTORY SHORT FORM

(a) CAUTION TO THE PRINCIPAL: Your Power of Attorney is an important document. As the "principal," you give the person whom you choose (your "agent") authority to spend your money and sell or dispose of your property during your lifetime without telling you. You do not lose your authority to act even though you have given your agent similar authority.

When your agent exercises this authority, he or she must act according to any instructions you have provided or, where there are no specific instructions, in your best interest. "Important Information for the Agent" at the end of this document describes your agent's responsibilities.

Your agent can act on your behalf only after signing the Power of Attorney before a notary public.

You can request information from your agent at any time. If you are revoking a prior Power of Attorney, you should provide written notice of the revocation to your prior agent(s) and to any third parties who may have acted upon it, including the financial institutions where your accounts are located.

You can revoke or terminate your Power of Attorney at any time for any reason as long as you are of sound mind. If you are no longer of sound mind, a court can remove an agent for acting improperly.

Your agent cannot make health care decisions for you. You may execute a "Health Care Proxy" to do this.

The law governing Powers of Attorney is contained in the New York General Obligations Law, Article 5, Title 15. This law is available at a law library, or online through the New York State Senate or Assembly websites, [~~www.senate.state.ny.us~~] www.nysenate.gov or [~~www.assembly.state.ny.us~~] www.nyassembly.gov.

If there is anything about this document that you do not understand, you should ask a lawyer of your own choosing to explain it to you.

37      I grant authority to my agent(s) with respect to the following 38 subjects as defined in sections 5-1502A through 5-1502N of the New York
39 General Obligations Law:
40          (     ) (A) real estate transactions;

50          that you customarily have made to individuals, including 51          the agent, and charitable organizations. The total

1 amount of all such gifts in any one calendar year cannot

49 interests in your property. Your agent is entitled to be reimbursed from 50 your assets for reasonable expenses incurred on your behalf. In this 51 section, you may make additional provisions if you ALSO wish your 52 agent(s) to be compensated from your assets for services rendered on

19 (k) ACCEPTANCE BY THIRD PARTIES: I agree to indemnify the third party 20 for any claims that may arise against the third party because of reli-21 ance on this Power of Attorney. I understand that any termination of 22 this Power of Attorney, whether the result of my revocation of the Power

24 third party has actual notice or knowledge of the termination.

26 it is terminated by my death or other event described in section 5-1511

You may not use the principal's assets to benefit yourself or anyone else or make gifts to yourself or anyone else unless the principal has specifically granted you that authority in the modifications section of this document[~~, which is either a Statutory Gifts Rider attached to a Statutory Short Form Power of Attorney~~] or a Non-Statutory Power of Attorney. If you have that authority, you must act according to any instructions of the principal or, where there are no such instructions, in the principal's best interest. You may resign by giving written notice to the principal and to any co-agent, successor agent, monitor if one has been named in this document, or the principal's guardian if one has been appointed.
