1 convicted. At the time sentence is imposed, such sex offender shall 2 register with the division on a form prepared by the division. The court 3 shall require the sex offender to read and sign such form and to 4 complete the registration portion of such form. The court shall on such 5 form obtain the address where the sex offender expects to reside upon 6 his or her release, and the name and address of any institution of high-7 er education he or she expects to be employed by, enrolled in, attending 8 or employed, whether for compensation or not, and whether he or she 9 expects to reside in a facility owned or operated by such an institu-10 tion, and shall report such information to the division. The court shall 11 give one copy of the form to the sex offender and shall send two copies 12 to the division which shall forward the information to the law enforce-13 ment agencies having jurisdiction. The court shall also notify the 14 district attorney and the sex offender of the date of the determination 15 proceeding to be held pursuant to subdivision three of this section, 16 which shall be held at least forty-five days after such notice is given.
17 This notice shall include the following statement or a substantially 18 similar statement: "This proceeding is being held to determine whether 19 you will be classified as a level 3 offender (risk of repeat offense is 20 high), a level 2 offender (risk of repeat offense is moderate), or a 21 level 1 offender (risk of repeat offense is low), or whether you will be 22 designated as a sexual predator, a sexually violent offender or a predi-23 cate sex offender, which will determine how long you must register as a 24 sex offender, where you may reside, work or travel, and how much infor-25 mation can be provided to the public concerning your registration. If 26 you fail to appear at this proceeding, without sufficient excuse, it 27 shall be held in your absence. Failure to appear may result in a longer 28 period of registration or a higher level of community notification 29 because you are not present to offer evidence or contest evidence 30 offered by the district attorney." The court shall also advise the sex 31 offender that he or she has a right to a hearing prior to the court's 32 determination, that he or she has the right to be represented by counsel 33 at the hearing and that counsel will be appointed if he or she is finan-34 cially unable to retain counsel. If the sex offender applies for assign-35 ment of counsel to represent him or her at the hearing and counsel was 36 not previously assigned to represent the sex offender in the underlying 37 criminal action, the court shall determine whether the offender is 38 financially unable to retain counsel. If such a finding is made, the 39 court shall assign counsel to represent the sex offender pursuant to 40 article eighteen-B of the county law. Where the court orders a sex 41 offender released on probation, such order must include a provision 42 requiring that he or she comply with the requirements of this article.
43 Where such sex offender violates such provision, probation may be imme-44 diately revoked in the manner provided by article four hundred ten of 45 the criminal procedure law.

46 3. For sex offenders released on probation or discharged upon payment 47 of a fine, conditional discharge or unconditional discharge, it shall be 48 the duty of the court applying the guidelines established in subdivision 49 five of section one hundred sixty-eight-1 of this article to determine 50 the level of notification pursuant to subdivision six of section one
51 hundred sixty-eight-1 of this article and whether such sex offender
52 shall be designated a sexual predator, sexually violent offender, or 53 predicate sex offender as defined in subdivision seven of section one 54 hundred sixty-eight-a of this article. At least fifteen days prior to 55 the determination proceeding, the district attorney shall provide to the 56 court and the sex offender a written statement setting forth the determinations sought by the district attorney together with the reasons for seeking such determinations. The court shall allow the sex offender to appear and be heard. The state shall appear by the district attorney, or his or her designee, who shall bear the burden of proving the facts supporting the determinations sought by clear and convincing evidence. Where there is a dispute between the parties concerning the determinations, the court shall adjourn the hearing as necessary to permit the sex offender or the district attorney to obtain materials relevant to the determinations from any state or local facility, hospital, institution, office, agency, department or division. Such materials may be obtained by subpoena if not voluntarily provided to the requesting party. In making the determinations, the court shall review any victim's statement and any relevant materials and evidence submitted by the sex offender and the district attorney and the court may consider reliable hearsay evidence submitted by either party provided that it is relevant to the determinations. Facts previously proven at trial or elicited at the time of entry of a plea of guilty shall be deemed established by clear and convincing evidence and shall not be relitigated. The court shall render an order setting forth its determinations and the findings of fact and conclusions of law on which the determinations are based, such order shall also include any conditions that are required to be imposed pursuant to section 65.10 of the penal law. A copy of the order shall be submitted by the court to the division. Upon application of either party, the court shall seal any portion of the court file or record which contains material that is confidential under any state or federal statute. Either party may appeal as of right from the order pursuant to the provisions of articles fifty-five, fifty-six and fifty-seven of the civil practice law and rules. Where counsel has been assigned to represent the sex offender upon the ground that the sex offender is financially unable to retain counsel, that assignment shall be continued throughout the pendency of the appeal, and the person may appeal as a poor person pursuant to article eighteen-B of the county law.

§ 3. Section 168-f of the correction law is amended by adding a new subdivision 4-a to read as follows:

4-a. A sex offender who has established a residence shall not change said residence so as to reside within the area defined as school grounds, as such term is defined in subdivision fourteen of section 220.00 of the penal law, or a playground, as such term is defined in subdivision twenty-two of section 10.00 of the penal law, the measurements to be taken in straight lines from the center of the nearest entrance of the residence to the real property boundary line comprising such school grounds or playground.

§ 4. Subdivision 2 of section 168-k of the correction law, as amended by chapter 684 of the laws of 2005, is amended to read as follows:

2. The division shall advise the board that the sex offender has established residence in this state. The board shall determine whether the sex offender is required to register with the division. If it is determined that the sex offender is required to register, the division shall notify the sex offender of his or her duty to register under this article and shall require the sex offender to sign a form as may be required by the division acknowledging that the duty to register and the procedure for registration has been explained to the sex offender. The division shall obtain on such form the address where the sex offender expects to reside within the state and the sex offender shall retain one copy of the form and send two copies to the division which shall provide

1 the information to the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction where 2 the sex offender expects to reside within this state. No later than 3 thirty days prior to the board making a recommendation, the sex offender 4 shall be notified that his or her case is under review and that he or 5 she is permitted to submit to the board any information relevant to the 6 review. After reviewing any information obtained, and applying the 7 guidelines established in subdivision five of section one hundred 8 sixty-eight-1 of this article, the board shall within sixty calendar 9 days make a recommendation regarding the level of notification pursuant 10 to subdivision six of section one hundred sixty-eight-1 of this article 11 and whether such sex offender shall be designated a sexual predator, 12 sexually violent offender, or predicate sex offender as defined in 13 subdivision seven of section one hundred sixty-eight-a of this article.
14 This recommendation shall be confidential and shall not be available for 15 public inspection. It shall be submitted by the board to the county 16 court or supreme court and to the district attorney in the county of 17 residence of the sex offender and to the sex offender. It shall be the 18 duty of the county court or supreme court in the county of residence of 19 the sex offender, applying the guidelines established in subdivision
20 five of section one hundred sixty-eight-1 of this article, to determine 21 the level of notification pursuant to subdivision six of section one
22 hundred sixty-eight-1 of this article and whether such sex offender
23 shall be designated a sexual predator, sexually violent offender, or 24 predicate sex offender as defined in subdivision seven of section one 25 hundred sixty-eight-a of this article. At least thirty days prior to the 26 determination proceeding, such court shall notify the district attorney 27 and the sex offender, in writing, of the date of the determination 28 proceeding and the court shall also provide the district attorney and 29 sex offender with a copy of the recommendation received from the board 30 and any statement of the reasons for the recommendation received from 31 the board. This notice shall include the following statement or a 32 substantially similar statement: "This proceeding is being held to 33 determine whether you will be classified as a level 3 offender (risk of 34 repeat offense is high), a level 2 offender (risk of repeat offense is 35 moderate), or a level 1 offender (risk of repeat offense is low), or 36 whether you will be designated as a sexual predator, a sexually violent 37 offender or a predicate sex offender, which will determine how long you 38 must register as a sex offender, where you may reside, work or travel, 39 and how much information can be provided to the public concerning your 40 registration. If you fail to appear at this proceeding, without suffi-41 cient excuse, it shall be held in your absence. Failure to appear may 42 result in a longer period of registration or a higher level of community 43 notification because you are not present to offer evidence or contest 44 evidence offered by the district attorney." The court shall also advise 45 the sex offender that he or she has a right to a hearing prior to the 46 court's determination, that he or she has the right to be represented by 47 counsel at the hearing and that counsel will be appointed if he or she 48 is financially unable to retain counsel. A returnable form shall be 49 enclosed in the court's notice to the sex offender on which the sex 50 offender may apply for assignment of counsel. If the sex offender 51 applies for assignment of counsel and the court finds that the offender 52 is financially unable to retain counsel, the court shall assign counsel 53 to represent the sex offender pursuant to article eighteen-B of the 54 county law. If the district attorney seeks a determination that differs 55 from the recommendation submitted by the board, at least ten days prior 56 to the determination proceeding the district attorney shall provide to

1 the court and the sex offender a statement setting forth the determi-2 nations sought by the district attorney together with the reasons for 3 seeking such determinations. The court shall allow the sex offender to 4 appear and be heard. The state shall appear by the district attorney, or 5 his or her designee, who shall bear the burden of proving the facts 6 supporting the determinations sought by clear and convincing evidence.
7 It shall be the duty of the court applying the guidelines established in 8 subdivision five of section one hundred sixty-eight-1 of this article to 9 determine the level of notification pursuant to subdivision six of 10 section one hundred sixty-eight-1 of this article and whether such sex 11 offender shall be designated a sexual predator, sexually violent offen-12 der, or predicate sex offender as defined in subdivision seven of 13 section one hundred sixty-eight-a of this article. Where there is a 14 dispute between the parties concerning the determinations, the court 15 shall adjourn the hearing as necessary to permit the sex offender or the 16 district attorney to obtain materials relevant to the determinations 17 from the state board of examiners of sex offenders or any state or local 18 facility, hospital, institution, office, agency, department or division.
19 Such materials may be obtained by subpoena if not voluntarily provided 20 to the requesting party. In making the determinations the court shall 21 review any victim's statement and any relevant materials and evidence 22 submitted by the sex offender and the district attorney and the recom-23 mendation and any material submitted by the board, and may consider 24 reliable hearsay evidence submitted by either party, provided that it is 25 relevant to the determinations. If available, facts proven at trial or 26 elicited at the time of a plea of guilty shall be deemed established by 27 clear and convincing evidence and shall not be relitigated. The court 28 shall render an order setting forth its determinations and the findings 29 of fact and conclusions of law on which the determinations are based, 30 such order shall also include any conditions that are required to be 31 imposed pursuant to section 65.10 of the penal law. A copy of the order 32 shall be submitted by the court to the division. Upon application of 33 either party, the court shall seal any portion of the court file or 34 record which contains material that is confidential under any state or 35 federal statute. Either party may appeal as of right from the order 36 pursuant to the provisions of articles fifty-five, fifty-six and fifty-37 seven of the civil practice law and rules. Where counsel has been 38 assigned to represent the sex offender upon the ground that the sex 39 offender is financially unable to retain counsel, that assignment shall 40 be continued throughout the pendency of the appeal, and the person may 41 appeal as a poor person pursuant to article eighteen-B of the county 42 law.

43 § 5. Subdivision 3 of section 168-n of the correction law, as amended 44 by chapter 684 of the laws of 2005, is amended to read as follows:

45 3. No later than thirty days prior to the board's recommendation, the 46 sex offender shall be notified that his or her case is under review and 47 that he or she is permitted to submit to the board any information rele-48 vant to the review. Upon receipt of the board's recommendation, the 49 sentencing court shall determine whether the sex offender was previously 50 found to be eligible for assigned counsel in the underlying case. Where 51 such a finding was previously made, the court shall assign counsel to 52 represent the offender, pursuant to article eighteen-B of the county 53 law. At least twenty days prior to the determination proceeding, the 4 following statement or a substantially similar statement: "This 5 proceeding is being held to determine whether you will be classified as 6 a level 3 offender (risk of repeat offense is high), a level 2 offender 7 (risk of repeat offense is moderate), or a level 1 offender (risk of 8 repeat offense is low), or whether you will be designated as a sexual 9 predator, a sexually violent offender or a predicate sex offender, which 10 will determine how long you must register as a sex offender, where you 11 may reside, work or travel, and how much information can be provided to 12 the public concerning your registration. If you fail to appear at this 13 proceeding, without sufficient excuse, it shall be held in your absence.

14 Failure to appear may result in a longer period of registration or a 15 higher level of community notification because you are not present to 16 offer evidence or contest evidence offered by the district attorney." 17 The written notice to the sex offender shall also advise the offender 18 that he or she has a right to a hearing prior to the court's determi-19 nation, and that he or she has the right to be represented by counsel at 20 the hearing. If counsel has been assigned to represent the offender at 21 the determination proceeding, the notice shall also provide the name,

29 court shall assign counsel to represent the sex offender pursuant to 30 article eighteen-B of the county law. If the district attorney seeks a 31 determination that differs from the recommendation submitted by the 32 board, at least ten days prior to the determination proceeding the 33 district attorney shall provide to the court and the sex offender a 34 statement setting forth the determinations sought by the district attor-35 ney together with the reasons for seeking such determinations. The court 36 shall allow the sex offender to appear and be heard. The state shall 37 appear by the district attorney, or his or her designee, who shall bear 38 the burden of proving the facts supporting the determinations sought by 39 clear and convincing evidence. Where there is a dispute between the 40 parties concerning the determinations, the court shall adjourn the hear-41 ing as necessary to permit the sex offender or the district attorney to 42 obtain materials relevant to the determinations from the state board of 43 examiners of sex offenders or any state or local facility, hospital, 44 institution, office, agency, department or division. Such materials may 45 be obtained by subpoena if not voluntarily provided to the requesting 46 party. In making the determinations the court shall review any victim's 47 statement and any relevant materials and evidence submitted by the sex 48 offender and the district attorney and the recommendation and any mate-49 rials submitted by the board, and may consider reliable hearsay evidence 50 submitted by either party, provided that it is relevant to the determi-51 nations. Facts previously proven at trial or elicited at the time of 52 entry of a plea of guilty shall be deemed established by clear and 53 convincing evidence and shall not be relitigated. The court shall render 4 which contains material that is confidential under any state or federal 5 statute. Either party may appeal as of right from the order pursuant to 6 the provisions of articles fifty-five, fifty-six and fifty-seven of the 7 civil practice law and rules. Where counsel has been assigned to repre-

10 throughout the pendency of the appeal, and the person may appeal as a 11 poor person pursuant to article eighteen-B of the county law.

12 § 6. Subdivision 1 of section 203 of the correction law, as added by 13 section 32 of subpart A of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, is 14 amended to read as follows:

39 offender recidivism and increasing public safety; and 40 (e) the availability of permanent, stable housing in order to reduce 41 the likelihood that such offenders will be transient.

42 § 7. The correction law is amended by adding a new section 209 to read

13 supervision requirements, which shall be developed in consultation with 14 the commissioner, shall include a prohibition against knowingly entering 15 into or upon any school grounds, as that term is defined in subdivision 16 fourteen of section 220.00 of the penal law, any other facility or 17 institution primarily used for the care or treatment of persons under 18 the age of eighteen while one or more of such persons under the age of 19 eighteen are present, or a playground, as such term is defined in subdi-20 vision twenty-two of section 10.00 of the penal law, and may include but 21 need not be limited to, electronic monitoring or global positioning 22 satellite tracking for an appropriate period of time, polygraph monitor-23 ing, specification of residence or type or residence, prohibition of 24 contact with identified past or potential victims, strict and intensive 25 supervision by a parole officer, and any other lawful and necessary 26 conditions that may be imposed by a court. In addition, after consulta-

56 residence. A regimen of strict and intensive supervision does not toll

1 the running of any form of supervision in criminal cases, including but 2 not limited to post-release supervision and parole.

3 § 11. Section 10.00 of the penal law is amended by adding a new subdivi-
