AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to creating the middle class circuit breaker tax credit and creating a tax reform study commission

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection (jjj) to read as follows:

(jjj) Middle class circuit breaker credit. (1) Definitions. For the purposes of this subsection:

5 (A) "Qualified taxpayer" means a resident individual of the state who owns or rents the residential real property in which he or she resides, 7 and has resided in such residential real property for not less than five 8 years.

section nine hundred eleven of the internal revenue code; support money 1 not included in adjusted gross income; nontaxable strike benefits; 2 3 supplemental security income payments; the gross amount of any pension 4 or annuity benefits to the extent not included in such adjusted gross 5 income (including, but not limited to, railroad retirement benefits and 6 all payments received under the federal social security act and veter-7 ans' disability pensions); nontaxable interest received from the state 8 of New York, its agencies, instrumentalities, public corporations, or 9 political subdivisions (including a public corporation created pursuant 10 to agreement or compact with another state or Canada); workers' compen-11 sation; the gross amount of "loss-of-time" insurance; and the amount of cash public assistance and relief, other than medical assistance for the 12 13 needy, paid to or for the benefit of the qualified taxpayer or members of his or her household. Household gross income shall not include 14 surplus foods or other relief in kind or payments made to individuals 15 16 because of their status as victims of Nazi persecution as defined in 17 public law 103-286 or any disability compensation received by veterans on account of injury or illness incurred or aggravated during military 18 19 service in the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq since September eleventh, 20 two thousand one. Provided, further, household gross income shall only 21 include all such income received by all members of the household while 22 members of such household.

(D) "Adjusted rent" means rent paid for the right of occupancy of a residence.

(E) "Real property tax equivalent" means (1) for taxable years beginning in two thousand twenty, fifteen percent of the adjusted rent actually paid in the taxable year by a household solely for the right of occupancy of its New York residence for the taxable year. If (i) a residence is rented to two or more individuals as cotenants, or such individuals share in the payment of a single rent for the right of occupancy of such residence, and (ii) each of such individuals is a member of a different household, one or more of which individuals shares such residence, real property tax equivalent is that portion of fifteen percent of the adjusted rent paid in the taxable year which reflects that portion of the rent attributable to the qualified taxpayer and the members of his or her household; and (2) for taxable years beginning in two thousand twenty and thereafter, twenty percent of the adjusted rent actually paid in the taxable year by a household solely for the right of occupancy of its New York residence for the taxable year. If (i) a residence is rented to two or more individuals as cotenants, or such individuals share in the payment of a single rent for the right of occupancy of such residence, and (ii) each of such individuals is a member of a different household, one or more of which individuals shares such residence, real property tax equivalent is that portion of twenty percent of the adjusted rent paid in the taxable year which reflects that portion of the rent attributable to the qualified taxpayer and the members of his or her household.

(F) "Net real property tax" means the real property taxes assessed on the residential real property owned and occupied by the taxpayer or taxpayers after any exemption or abatement received pursuant to the real property tax law.

(2) Credit. A qualified taxpayer shall be allowed a credit against the taxes imposed by this article, equal to seventy percent of the amount by which the taxpayer's net real property tax or the taxpayer's real property tax equivalent exceeds the taxpayer's maximum real property tax, as determined by paragraph three of this subsection. If such credit exceeds

- (4) Exclusions from eligibility. No credit shall be granted under this subsection if the qualified taxpayer claims the real property tax circuit breaker credit, pursuant to subsection (e) of this section, during the taxable year.
- 7 § 2. There is hereby established a tax reform study commission to 8 provide the governor and the legislature with a long run plan for 9 reforming the state and local tax systems. The tax reform study commission shall consist of five members appointed by the governor, four 10 members each appointed by the speaker of the assembly and the temporary 11 president of the senate, and one member each appointed by the minority 12 13 leader of the senate and the minority leader of the assembly. In addition, on or before January 1, 2022, the tax reform study commission 14 15 shall provide the governor and the legislature with recommendations on 16 any changes that should be made in the definitions of income used in the various property tax relief programs authorized by the laws of the state 17 18 of New York. Such recommendations shall be based on an examination of such laws and of such laws in other states. In preparing such recommen-19 dations, the tax reform study commission shall review the distributional 20 21 impact of the items of income included in the definition of household 22 income for purposes of the circuit breaker and other property tax relief 23 programs established by state law and make recommendations to the gover-24 nor and the legislature for any changes in any of these definitions that the tax reform study commission deems appropriate. The commissioner of 25 26 taxation and finance and the director of the office of real property 27 services shall provide the tax reform study commission with such data and analysis as it may require. 28
- 29 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
