AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to prohibiting release of inmates convicted of a crime of driving while intoxicated until victim has had notice and the opportunity to make a victim impact statement

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 259-c of the executive law, as 2 amended by section 38-b of subpart A of part C of chapter 62 of the laws
3 of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

4 1. have the power and duty of determining which inmates serving an 5 indeterminate or determinate sentence of imprisonment may be released on 6 parole, or on medical parole pursuant to section two hundred 7 fifty-nine-r or section two hundred fifty-nine-s of this article, and 8 when and under what conditions; provided, however, that any such inmate 9 serving a term of at least one year for a felony conviction that 10 includes a violation of section eleven hundred ninety-two of the vehicle 11 and traffic law shall not be released on parole unless the victim or 12 victim's representative, as defined in section two hundred fifty-nine-i 13 of this article, shall have been consulted with and given a reasonable 14 opportunity to make a victim impact statement pursuant to section 440.50
15 of the criminal procedure law;

16 § 2. Subdivision 1 of section 259-c of the executive law, as amended 17 by chapter 55 of the laws of 1992, is amended to read as follows:

18 1. have the power and duty of determining which inmates serving an 19 indeterminate sentence of imprisonment may be released on parole, or on 20 medical parole pursuant to section two hundred fifty-nine-r of this 21 article, and when and under what conditions; provided, however, that any 22 such inmate serving a term of at least one year for a felony conviction 23 that includes a violation of section eleven hundred ninety-two of the 24 vehicle and traffic law shall not be released on parole unless the
