Introduced by M. of A. L. ROSENTHAL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Environmental Conservation

AN ACT to amend the environmental conservation law, in relation to protecting wildlife while maintaining public safety

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 11-0524 of the environmental conservation law is 2 amended by adding four new subdivisions 6, 7, 8 and 9 to read as 3 follows:

4 6. If an animal is killed, it shall be done in a manner that avoids 5 unnecessary suffering for the animal while protecting public safety.
6 Non-lethal methods of resolving nuisance wildlife problems, including 7 disposition of the animals, shall be utilized unless contrary to public 8 health and safety or prohibited by law. Captured wildlife shall be 9 transported in such a manner so as to minimize stress to the animal, 10 exposure to the elements, and potential hazard to the public. Reasonable 11 efforts should be made to preserve family units. Dependent young wild-12 life shall not be abandoned in a structure or left without provision for 13 care during or after the removal of wildlife.

14 7. Before a nuisance wildlife control operator undertakes any control 15 measures, a nuisance wildlife control operator shall provide, to the 16 client, in writing, the following: (a) an assessment of the problem, 17 including identification of possible causes of the problem; (b) the 18 methods and practices that may be used to resolve the problem including, 19 but not limited to, disposition to be made of the animal; and (c) an 20 estimate of the fee to be charged.

21 8. The department shall keep a record, for no less than five years, of 22 any written or oral complaints received by the department against a 23 nuisance wildlife control operator and shall document action taken by 24 the department in response to the complaint.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 9. The department is authorized to promulgate rules and regulations
2 necessary to effectuate the provisions of this section.

3 § 2. This act shall take effect on the three hundred sixty-fifth day
4 after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, 5 amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the 6 implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be 7 made and completed on or before such effective date.
