Introduced by M. of A. LAWRENCE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Health

AN ACT to amend the social services law and the public health law, in relation to criminal history records of maintenance employees in adult residential health and assisted living facilities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. The social services law is amended by adding a new section
2	461-u to read as follows:
3	§ 461-u. Access to criminal history records. 1. For the purposes of
4	this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:
5	(a) "Maintenance employee" shall mean any individual to be employed or б	used by a provider, including those persons employed through a temporary
7	employment or staffing agency, and who provide supportive maintenance
8	services to such facility, included, but not limited to beautician,
9	security, janitorial, laundry, recreational and groundskeeping services.
10	Such term shall not include volunteers.
11	(b) "Provider" shall mean an assisted living facility, residential
12	health care facility, skilled nursing facility or any other type of
13	facility that provides residential or institutional care to the elderly
14	or disabled.
15	2. Subject to the rules and regulations of the division of criminal
16	justice services, the department of health shall have access to criminal
17	history records maintained by such division pertaining to any mainte-
18	nance employee or such persons as the department of health at any time
19	deems necessary to determine their criminal histories.
20	3. Every court in which a maintenance employee of a provider is
21	convicted of a crime while performing their intended duties at such
22	facility shall, within seven days after either the entry of a plea of
23	guilty, or the verdict of the court or a jury, notify the department of 24	health in writing of such conviction. The department of health, after
