7 "HELP FOR HOMEOWNERS IN DEFAULT ON A MORTGAGE FOR 30 DAYS OR MORE"

8 "New York State Law requires that we send you this notice about the 9 foreclosure process. Please read it carefully.

10 You are currently in default on your mortgage for 30 days or more.
11 This is NOT a foreclosure notice. There may be several ways in which you 12 can save your home. We strongly encourage you to contact one of the 13 housing counselors or local legal service agencies listed below. The 14 contact information for the toll-free Helpline maintained by the New 15 York State Attorney General and the toll-free Helpline maintained by the 16 New York State Department of Financial Services are also listed below.

17 You do not need to wait until your home has been foreclosed on to 18 receive help. Numerous programs may be available to you right now. Some 19 mortgage assistance programs have strict time limits. If you wait too 20 long, then you may become ineligible for assistance by some of these 21 programs. Professional housing counselors and attorneys may be able to 22 assist you in accessing these programs free of charge.

23 You have the right to remain in your home until a foreclosure sale is 24 scheduled and your house is sold at the auction. This process may take 25 up to several years. Until such time as a judgment of foreclosure is 26 entered by a judge and the house is sold at the foreclosure auction, no
27 one may force you to leave your home. This includes the lender that 28 holds your mortgage.

29 Until a judgment of foreclosure is entered, you are responsible for 30 the upkeep of your home. This includes payment of water bills, property 31 taxes (unless the lender is paying such taxes), and upkeep of the exte-
32 rior. If you choose to leave your home before a judgment of foreclosure 33 is rendered, you are still responsible for the upkeep of the home and 34 the exterior, including the yard. Failure to maintain the property may 35 result in additional costs above and beyond the foreclosure proceedings, 36 as well as building code violations which, if not addressed, may lead to 37 an arrest warrant.
