§ 182-b. Additional franchise tax on certain life insurance policies. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, or of any other law, for taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thousand twenty-two, an annual tax is hereby imposed upon every company receiving benefits from life insurance policies it has obtained on its employees and/or retirees equal to fifty per centum of its gross receipts from all proceeds from such life insurance policies, for the privilege of exercising its corporate franchise, or of doing business, or of employing 10 11 capital, or of owning or leasing property in this state in a corporate or organized capacity, or of maintaining an office in this state, for 12 all or any part of each of its taxable years.

2. Every company subject to tax under this section shall keep such 15 records of its business in such form as the commissioner may require, 16 and such records shall be preserved for a period of three years, except 17 that the commissioner may consent to their destruction within that period or may require that they be kept longer.

19 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to taxable 20 years beginning on or after January 1, 2022.

EXPLANATION -- Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
