Introduced by M. of A. WALKER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Correction

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to distributing the appointing authority of the state board of parole among the governor, senate and assembly

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 259-b of the executive law, as amended by section 38-a of subpart A of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

1. There shall be in the department a state board of parole [~~which~~] that shall possess the powers and duties hereinafter specified. The board shall function independently of the department regarding all of its decision-making functions, as well as any other powers and duties specified in this article, provided, however, that administrative matters of general applicability within the department shall be applicable to the board. [~~Such~~] On and after January first, two thousand twenty-one, such board shall consist of [~~not more than~~] nineteen members [~~appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate~~], nine of whom shall be appointed by the governor, three of whom shall be appointed by the temporary president of the senate, three of whom shall be appointed by the speaker of the assembly, two of whom shall be appointed by the minority leader of the senate, and two of whom shall be appointed by the minority leader of the assembly. The term of office of each member of such board shall be for six years; provided, however, that any member chosen to fill a vacancy occurring otherwise than by expiration of term shall be appointed for the remainder of the unexpired term of the member whom he or she is to succeed. In the event of the inability to act of any member, the governor may appoint some competent informed person to act in his or her stead during the continuance of such disability.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
