AN ACT to amend the general municipal law and the New York state financial emergency act for the city of New York, in relation to certain variations from generally accepted accounting principles as applied to the budget and accounts of the city of New York

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The general municipal law is amended by adding a new 2 section 25 to read as follows:

3 § 25. Treatment of capital costs and restricted fund balances.
4 Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special state law or 5 local law to the contrary, including but not limited to the New York 6 city charter, the following shall apply with respect to the budget and 7 accounts of the city of New York:

8 1. All costs that would be capital costs in accordance with generally 9 accepted accounting principles, but for the application of governmental 10 accounting standards board statement number forty-nine, shall be deemed 11 to be capital costs for purposes of this chapter and any other provision
12 of state or local law, including but not limited to the New York city 13 charter, relevant to the treatment of such costs; and 14 2. The determination as to the existence of a deficit pursuant to the 15 New York state financial emergency act for the city of New York, while 16 such act remains in effect, and any other provision of state or local 17 law, including but not limited to the New York city charter, shall be 18 made without regard to changes in restricted fund balances, as defined 19 by the governmental accounting standards board, where restrictions in 20 relation to such fund balances are imposed by state or federal law or 21 regulation, or otherwise by private or governmental parties other than 22 the city of New York, and without regard to funds held in the health stabilization fund, the school crossing guards health insurance fund and the management benefits fund established by the city of New York.

§ 2. Paragraph a of subdivision 1 of section 8 of section 2 of chapter 868 of the laws of 1975, constituting the New York state financial emergency act for the city of New York, as amended by section 1 of part PP of chapter 56 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

a. For its fiscal years ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred seventy-nine through June thirtieth, nineteen hundred eighty-one, the city's budget covering all expenditures other than capital items shall be prepared and balanced so that the results thereof would not show a deficit when reported in accordance with the accounting principles set forth in the state comptroller's uniform system of accounts for municipalities, as the same may be modified by the comptroller, in consultation with the city comptroller, for application to the city; subject to the provision of subdivision four of section three thousand thirty-eight of the public authorities law with respect to contributions by the city or other public employer to any retirement system or pension fund and subject to the provision of paragraph (c) of subdivision five of section three thousand thirty-eight of the public authorities law with respect to expense items included in the capital budget of the city. For the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred eighty-two, and for each fiscal year thereafter, the city's budget covering all expenditures other than capital items shall be prepared and balanced so that the results thereof would not show a deficit when reported in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and would permit comparison of the budget with the report of actual financial results prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. With respect to financial plans that include the fiscal years ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred seventy-nine through June thirtieth, nineteen hundred eighty-one, the city's budget covering all expenditures other than capital items shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and there shall be substantial progress in each such fiscal year towards achieving a city budget covering all expenditures other than capital items the results of which would not show a deficit when reported in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The city shall eliminate expense items from its capital budget not later than the commencement of the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred eighty-two. For the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred eighty-nine, and for each fiscal year thereafter, the budgets covering all expenditures other than capital items of each of the covered organizations shall be prepared and balanced so that the results thereof would not show a deficit when reported in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles; and for each fiscal year prior thereto, there shall be substantial progress towards such goal. Notwithstanding the foregoing and the provisions of any general or special state law or local law to the contrary, including but not limited to the New York city charter[7]: (i) all costs that would be capital costs in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, but for the application of governmental accounting standards board statement number forty-nine, shall be deemed to be capital costs for purposes of this [chapter] act and any other provision of state or local law, including but not limited to the New York city charter, relevant to the treatment of such costs; and (ii) the determination as to the existence of a deficit pursuant to this act and any other provision of state or local law, including but not limited to the New York city charter, shall be made without regard to changes in

1 restricted fund balances, as defined by the governmental accounting
2 standards board, where restrictions in relation to such fund balances 3 are imposed by state or federal law or regulation, or otherwise by 4 private or governmental parties other than the city of New York, and 5 without regard to funds held in the health stabilization fund, the 6 school crossing guards health insurance fund and the management benefits
7 fund established by the city of New York.

8 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
