The district attorney prosecuting the charges may file and obtain the requested relief on behalf of the impounding organization if requested to do so by the impounding organization. The security shall be in an amount sufficient to secure payment for all reasonable expenses expected to be incurred by the impounding organization in caring and providing for the animal pending disposition of the charges. Reasonable expenses shall include, but not be limited to, estimated medical care and boarding of the animal for at least thirty days. The amount of the security, if any, shall be determined by the court after taking into consideration all of the facts and circumstances of the case including, but not limited to the recommendation of the impounding organization having custody and care of the seized animal and the cost of caring for the animal. If a security has been posted in accordance with this section, the impounding organization may draw from the security the actual reasonable costs to be incurred by such organization in caring for the seized animal.

The petitioner shall serve a true copy of the petition upon the defendant and the district attorney if the district attorney has not filed the petition on behalf of the petitioner. 9 The court may waive for good cause shown the posting of security.

10 (2) If the court orders the posting of a security, the security shall 11 be posted with the clerk of the court within five business days of the 12 hearing provided for in subparagraph one of this paragraph. The court 13 may order the immediate forfeiture of the seized animal to the impound-

15 so. Any animal forfeited shall be made available for adoption or euthan-

18 (3) In the case of an animal other than a companion animal or pet, if 19 a person ordered to post security fails to do so, the court may, in

28 person ordered to post security, subject to such conditions as the court 29 deems appropriate to assure proper care and treatment of the animal. The 30 court may reimburse the person ordered to post security and any inter-
31 ested persons any money earned by the sale of the animal less any costs
32 including, but not limited to, veterinary and custodial care. Any animal

40 any way the rights of a secured party having a security interest in any 41 animal described in this section. This section expressly does not impair 42 or subordinate the rights of such a secured lender having a security 43 interest in the animal or in the proceeds from the sale of such animal.

44 c. In no event shall the security prevent the impounding organization 45 having custody and care of the animal from disposing of the animal 46 pursuant to section three hundred seventy-four of this article prior to 47 the expiration of the thirty day period covered by the security if the 48 court makes a determination of the charges against the person from whom 49 the animal was seized prior thereto. Upon receipt of a petition from the 50 impounding organization, the court may order the person from whom the 51 animal was seized or the owner of the animal to post an additional secu-
52 rity with the clerk of the court to secure payment of reasonable 53 expenses for an additional period of time pending a determination by the 54 court of the charges against the person from whom the animal was seized.

The person who posted the security shall be entitled to a full refund of the security, including reimbursement by the impounding organization of any amount allowed by the court to be expended, and the return of the animal seized and impounded upon acquittal or dismissal of the charges, except where the dismissal is based upon an adjournment in contemplation of dismissal pursuant to section 215.30 of the criminal procedure law. The court order directing such refund and reimbursement shall provide for payment to be made within a reasonable time from the acquittal or dismissal of charges.

Upon such an order of forfeiture, the convicted person shall be deemed to have relinquished all rights to the animals which are the basis of the conviction, except those granted in subdivision two of this section.

In the case of farm animals, the court may, in addition to the forfeiture to an animal shelter, pound, sheriff, municipal police department, district attorney, a duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals or a duly incorporated humane society or authorized agents thereof, and subject to the restrictions of sections three hundred fifty-four and three hundred fifty-seven of this article, order the farm animals which were the basis of the conviction to be sold. In no case shall farm animals which are the basis of the conviction be redeemed by the convicted person who is the subject of the order of forfeiture or by any person charged with an animal cruelty offense for conspiring, aiding or abetting in the unlawful act which was the basis of the conviction, or otherwise acting as an accomplice if such charge has not yet been adjudicated. The court shall reimburse the convicted person and any duly determined interested persons, pursuant to subdivision six of this section, any money earned by the sale of the farm animals less any costs including, but not limited to, veterinary and custodial care, and any fines or penalties imposed by the court. The court may order that the subject animals be provided with appropriate care and treatment pending the hearing and the disposition of the charges. Any farm animal ordered forfeited but not sold shall be remanded to the custody and charge of an animal shelter, pound, sheriff, municipal police department, district attorney, a duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals or duly incorporated humane society or its authorized agent thereof and disposed of pursuant to subdivision five of this section.

3. The court may order that the convicted person shall not own, harbor, or have custody or control of any other animals, other than farm animals, for a period of time which the court deems reasonable. In making its determination of what period of time is reasonable, the court

1 shall take into account the totality of the circumstances before it and 2 be bound to no single factor. Such order must be in writing and specif-
3 ically state the period of time imposed.

4 4. No dog or cat in the custody of a duly incorporated society for 5 the prevention of cruelty to animals, a duly incorporated humane society
6 or its authorized agents thereof, or a pound or shelter, shall be sold, 7 transferred or otherwise made available to any person for the purpose of 8 research, experimentation or testing. No authorized agent of a duly 9 incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, nor of a 10 duly incorporated humane society, shall use any animal placed in its 11 custody by the duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty 12 to animals or duly incorporated humane society for the purpose of 13 research, experimentation or testing.

14 5. An animal shelter, pound, sheriff, municipal police department, 15 district attorney, a duly incorporated society for the prevention of 16 cruelty to animals or a duly incorporated humane society in charge of 17 animals forfeited pursuant to subdivision one or two of this section 18 may, in its discretion, lawfully and without liability, adopt them to 19 individuals other than the convicted person or person charged with an 20 animal cruelty offense for conspiring, aiding or abetting in the unlaw-21 ful act which was the basis of the conviction, or otherwise acting as an 22 accomplice if such charge has not yet been adjudicated, or humanely
23 dispose of them subject to section three hundred seventy-four of this 24 article.

25 6. (a) Prior to an order of forfeiture of farm animals, a hearing
26 shall be held within thirty days of conviction to determine the pecuni-27 ary interests of any other person in the farm animals which were the 28 basis of the conviction. Written notice shall be served at least five 29 days prior to the hearing upon all interested persons. In addition,
30 notice shall be made by publication in a local newspaper at least seven 31 days prior to the hearing. For the purposes of this subdivision, inter-32 ested persons shall mean any individual, partnership, firm, joint stock
33 company, corporation, association, trust, estate, or other legal entity
34 who the court determines may have a pecuniary interest in the farm 35 animals which are the subject of the forfeiture action.

36 (b) All interested persons shall be provided an opportunity at the 37 hearing to redeem their interest as determined by the court in the 38 subject farm animals and to purchase the interest of the convicted 39 person. The convicted person shall be entitled to be reimbursed his or 40 her interest in the farm animals, less any costs, fines or penalties 41 imposed by the court, as specified under subdivision two of this 42 section. In no case shall the court award custody or control of the 43 animals to any interested person who conspired, aided or abetted in the 44 unlawful act which was the basis of the conviction, or who knew or 45 should have known of the unlawful act.

46 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or restrict in 47 any way the rights of a secured party having a security interest in any 48 farm animal described in this section. This section expressly does not 49 impair or subordinate the rights of such a secured lender having a secu-
