5 qualified independent film production company, or which is a sole 6 proprietor of or a member of a partnership which is a qualified film
7 production company or a qualified independent film production company, 8 and which is subject to tax under articles nine-A or twenty-two of this 9 chapter, shall be allowed a credit against such tax, pursuant to the 10 provisions referenced in subdivision (d) of this section, to be computed 11 as hereinafter provided.

12 (2) No qualified television writers' and directors' fees and salaries
13 used by a taxpayer either as the basis for the allowance of the credit 14 provided for pursuant to this section or used in the calculation of the

(2) "Qualified independent film production company" is a corporation, partnership, limited partnership, or other entity or individual, that or who (i) is principally engaged in the production of a qualified film with a maximum budget of fifteen million dollars, (ii) controls the qualified film during production, and (iii) either is not a publicly traded entity, or no more than five percent of the beneficial ownership of which is owned, directly or indirectly, by a publicly traded entity.

(3) "Qualified television writers' and directors' fees and salaries" means: (i) for each writer or director who receives an on-air credit, fifty thousand dollars in fees or salary per episode; (ii) for each non-credited writer, seventy-five thousand dollars per series of episodes; and (iii) for each eligible writer or director, an overall total of one hundred fifty thousand dollars per series per season. Provided that in each case, such writer or director is a minority group member, as defined by subdivision eight of section three hundred ten of the executive law, or a woman, and provided, further, that any writer or director who is a profit participant in the qualified production shall not be eligible.

(c) Cross-references. For application of the credit provided for in this section, see the following provisions of this chapter:

(1) article 9-A: section 210-B: subdivision 53.

(2) article 22: section 606: subsection (v).

(d) Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter, (i) employees and officers of the department of economic development and the department shall be allowed and are directed to share and exchange information regarding the credits applied for, allowed, or claimed pursuant to this section and taxpayers who are applying for credits or who are claiming credits, including information contained in or derived from credit claim forms submitted to the department and applications for certification submitted to the department of economic development, and (ii) the commissioner and the commissioner of the department of economic development may release the names and addresses of any taxpayer claiming this credit and the amount of the credit earned by the taxpayer. Provided, however, if a taxpayer claims this credit because it is a member of a limited liability company or a partner in a partnership, only the amount of credit earned by the entity and not the amount of credit claimed by the taxpayer may be released.

(e) Maximum amount of credits. (1) The aggregate amount of tax credits allowed under this section, subdivision fifty-three of section two hundred ten-B and subsection (v) of section six hundred six of this chapter in any calendar year shall be five million dollars. Such aggregate amount of credits shall be allocated by the department of economic

1 development among taxpayers in order of priority based upon the date of 2 filing an application for allocation of television writers' and direc-
3 tors' fees and salaries credit with such department. If the total amount 4 of allocated credits applied for in any particular year exceeds the 5 aggregate amount of tax credits allowed for such year under this

12 regulations shall include provisions describing the application process, 13 the due dates for such applications, the standards which shall be used 14 to evaluate the applications, the documentation that will be provided to 15 taxpayers to substantiate to the department the amount of tax credits 16 allocated to such taxpayers, and such other provisions as deemed neces-17 sary and appropriate. Notwithstanding any other provisions to the 18 contrary in the state administrative procedure act, such rules and regu-19 lations may be adopted on an emergency basis if necessary to meet such 20 October thirty-first, two thousand nineteen deadline.

21 (f) The department of economic development shall submit to the gover-22 nor, the temporary president of the senate, and the speaker of the 23 assembly, an annual report to be submitted on February first of each 24 year evaluating the effectiveness of the television writers' and direc-
25 tors' fees and salaries tax credit provided by this section in stimulat-26 ing the growth of diversity in the film industry in the state. Such 27 report shall include, but need not be limited to, the number of quali-
28 fied film production companies and/or qualified independent film
29 production companies which received a television writers' and directors' 30 fees and salaries credit, the credit amounts claimed by each qualified 31 film production company and/or qualified independent film production 32 company, as well as the impact on employment and the economy of the 33 state. Such report shall be based on data available from the application 34 filed with the department of economic development for allocation of 35 television writers' and directors' fees and salaries credits. Notwith-
36 standing any provision of law to the contrary, the information contained 37 in the report shall be public information. The report may also include 38 any recommendations of changes in the calculation or administration of 39 the credit, and any other recommendation of the commissioner of the 40 department of economic development regarding continuing modification, 41 repeal of such act, and such other information regarding the act as the 42 commissioner of the department of economic development may feel useful 43 and appropriate.

44 § 2. Section 210-B of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivi-

51 for any taxable year shall not reduce the tax due for such year to less 52 than the amount prescribed in paragraph (d) of subdivision one of 53 section two hundred ten of this article. Provided, however, that if the 54 amount of the credit allowable under this subdivision for any taxable 55 year reduces the tax to such amount or if the taxpayer otherwise pays 56 tax based on the fixed dollar minimum amount, the excess shall be treat-

1 ed as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance 2 with the provisions of section one thousand eighty-six of this chapter.
3 Provided, further, the provisions of subsection (c) of section one thou-

13 this subsection for any taxable year exceeds the taxpayer's tax for such 14 year, the excess shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credit-15 ed or refunded as provided in section six hundred eighty-six of this 16 article, provided, however, that no interest shall be paid thereon.
