IN ASSEMBLY

March 12, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. GOODELL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Election Law

AN ACT to amend the election law, in relation to campaign contributions by state and prospective state contractors

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The election law is amended by adding a new section 14-117 to read as follows:

§ 14-117. Political contributions to statewide officials. 1. (a) No campaign contributions shall be made to any candidate for governor or any committee of such candidate, nor shall any campaign contributions be accepted by any candidate for governor or committee of such candidate, from any individual, corporation, limited liability corporation, joint stock association, partnership, union, or any other entity, or any officer, director, majority shareholder, manager, attorney or lobbyist thereof, at any time within the thirty-six month period preceding and subsequent to the entering into or seeking of any contract, grant or other financial agreement with any agency or department of the state or with any public authority, public benefit corporation, or any other entity, whose management includes any members appointed by the governor.

(b) No campaign contributions shall be made to any candidate for attorney general or any committee of such candidate, nor shall any campaign contributions be accepted by any candidate for attorney general or any committee of such candidate, from any individual, corporation, limited liability corporation, joint stock association, partnership, union, or any other entity, or any officer, director, majority shareholder, manager, attorney, or lobbyist thereof, (i) at any time within the thirty-six month period preceding and/or subsequent to the entering into or seeking of any contract, grant or other agreement that is drafted, reviewed, approved, or enforced by the office of the attorney general, or (ii) that is licensed or is regulated by any agency or department

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 of the state, public authority, public benefit corporation, or any other 2 entity, where such license or regulation is drafted, reviewed, approved, 3 or enforced by the office of the attorney general.

4 (c) No campaign contributions can be made to any candidate for comp-
5 troller or any committee of such candidate, nor shall any campaign
6 contributions be accepted by a candidate for comptroller or any commit-7 tee of such candidate, from any individual, corporation, limited liabil-8 ity corporation, joint stock association, partnership, union, or any 9 other entity, and any officer, director, majority shareholder, manager, 10 attorney, or lobbyist thereof, that has a contract or a grant or any 11 other agreement (i) that is reviewed, approved, or subject to audit by 12 the office of the comptroller, or any individual, corporation, limited 13 liability corporation, joint stock association, partnership, union, or 14 (ii) with any other entity, or any officer, director, majority share-15 holder, manager, attorney, or lobbyist thereof, in which the comptroller 16 has invested any funds from the state pension system.

17 2. The applicable governmental agency shall make available to any 18 individual or entity subject to the restrictions set forth in this 19 section a written notice, in the contract and solicitation for procure-20 ment, if applicable, advising such individual or entity of the contrib-
21 ution prohibitions contained in this section. The notice shall inform 22 the individual or entity that if any such contribution is made, the 23 applicable governmental agency may void the contract and no other agency 24 will have the right to award such individual or entity any contract or 25 modification or extension to any contract, as applicable, for a period 26 of one year following the election for which such contribution has been 27 made. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, no violation of the 28 prohibitions contained in this section shall be deemed to have occurred 29 if the improper contribution is returned to the individual or entity
30 making the contribution by the earlier of thirty days after the recipi-31 ent receives the contribution or the filing date that corresponds with 32 the reporting period in which the contribution was made.

33 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
