IN ASSEMBLY

March 14, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. DE LA ROSA -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to the creation of a
"yellow alert system"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 221 of the executive law is amended by adding a new 2 subdivision 4 to read as follows:

3 4. When any police officer, peace officer or police agency in the 4 state shall receive a report of a violation of subdivision two of 5 section six hundred of the vehicle and traffic law resulting in the 6 death of a person, and there is a description of the vehicle or vehicles
7 involved or of the operator or operators of such vehicle or vehicles
8 involved in the violation of such subdivision, such police officer,
9 peace officer or police agency shall, as appropriate, cause information
10 concerning any such vehicle or vehicles and the person or persons
11 suspected of operating such vehicle or vehicles to be promptly 12 dispatched over the police communication system within the geographic 13 area requested by the law enforcement agency and may be broadcast to the 14 public. Police agencies not connected with the basic system may trans-
15 mit such information to the nearest or most convenient electronic entry
16 point, from which point it shall be promptly dispatched, in conformity
17 with the orders, rules or regulations governing the system. No dispatch
18 or transmission of a report concerning any such vehicle or operator
19 shall be required by this subdivision if the investigating police
20 department advises, in its discretion, that the release of such informa-21 tion may jeopardize the investigation or the safety of a victim, or 22 requests a reasonable forbearance for any reason.

23 § 2. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 24 have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
