AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law, in relation to subpoena duces tecum

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 3 of section 610.20 of the criminal procedure 2 law is amended to read as follows:

3. An attorney for a defendant in a criminal action or proceeding, as 4 an officer of a criminal court, may issue a subpoena of such court, subscribed by himself, for the attendance in such court of any witness whom the defendant is entitled to call in such action or proceeding. An 7 attorney for a defendant may not issue a subpoena duces tecum of the court directed to any department, bureau or agency of the state or of a 9 political subdivision thereof, or to any officer or representative thereof. Such a subpoena duces tecum may be issued in behalf of a defendant 10 upon order of a court pursuant to the rules applicable to civil cases as provided in section twenty-three hundred seven of the civil practice law 12 13 and rules. Nothing in this article or in article two hundred forty of 14 this chapter precludes issuance of a court-ordered subpoena duces tecum 15 for police reports or records or law enforcement agency reports or 16 records containing non-privileged information relevant to the criminal 17 action or proceeding.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall
