IN ASSEMBLY

May 1, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. WEINSTEIN -- (at request of the Office of Court Administration) -- read once and referred to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the family court act and the criminal procedure law, in relation to notification of rights of victims of domestic violence in criminal and family court proceedings

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 5 of section 812 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 224 of the laws of 1994, is amended to read as follows:

4 5. Notice. Every police officer, peace officer or district attorney investigating a family offense under this article shall advise the 5 б victim of the availability of a shelter or other services in the commu-7 nity, and shall immediately give the victim written notice of the legal 8 rights and remedies available to a victim of a family offense under the 9 relevant provisions of this act and the criminal procedure law[, the 10 family court act and the domestic relations law]. Such notice shall be available, at minimum, in plain English [and], Spanish, Chinese and 11 12 Russian and, if necessary, shall be delivered orally and shall include 13 but not be limited to the information contained in the following state-14 ment: 15 ["If you are the victim of domestic violence, you may request that the officer assist in providing for your safety and that of your children, 16

17 including providing information on how to obtain a temporary order of 18 protection. You may also request that the officer assist you in obtain-19 ing your essential personal effects and locating and taking you, or

20 assist in making arrangement to take you, and your children to a safe

21 place within such officer's jurisdiction, including but not limited to a

22 domestic violence program, a family member's or a friend's residence, or a single county, you may ask the officer to take you or make arrange-1 2 ments to take you and your children to a place of safety in the county 3 where the incident occurred. If you or your children are in need of 4 medical treatment, you have the right to request that the officer assist you in obtaining such medical treatment. You may request a copy of any 5 б incident reports at no cost from the law enforcement agency. You have 7 the right to seek legal counsel of your own choosing and if you proceed 8 in family court and if it is determined that you cannot afford an attor-9 ney, one must be appointed to represent you without cost to you. You may ask the district attorney or a law enforcement officer to file 10 11 a criminal complaint. You also have the right to file a petition in the family court when a family offense has been committed against you. You 12 13 have the right to have your petition and request for an order of protection filed on the same day you appear in court, and such request 14 must be heard that same day or the next day court is in session. Either 15 court may issue an order of protection from conduct constituting a fami-16 17 ly offense which could include, among other provisions, an order for the respondent or defendant to stay away from you and your children. The 18 family court may also order the payment of temporary shild support and 19 20 award temporary custody of your children. If the family court is not in 21 session, you may seek immediate assistance from the criminal court in obtaining an order of protection. 22 The forms you need to obtain an order of protection are available from 23 the family court and the local criminal court (the addresses and tele-24 25 phone numbers shall be listed). The resources available in this communi-26 ty for information relating to domestic violence, treatment of injuries, 27 and places of safety and shelters can be accessed by calling the following 800 numbers (the statewide English and Spanish language 800 numbers 28 shall be listed and space shall be provided for local domestic violence 29 30 hotline telephone numbers). Filing a criminal complaint or a family court petition containing 31 32 allegations that are knowingly false is a crime."] "Are you the victim 33 of domestic violence? If you need help now, you can call 911 for the police to come to you. You can also call a domestic violence hotline. 34 You can have a confidential talk with an advocate at the hotline about 35 help you can get in your community including: where you can get treat-36 ment for injuries, where you can get shelter, where you can get support, 37 38 and what you can do to be safe. The New York State 24-hour Domestic & Sexual Violence Hotline number is (insert the statewide multilingual 800 39 number). They can give you information in many languages. If you are 40 deaf or hard of hearing, call 711. This is what the police can do: 41 42 They can help you and your children find a safe place such as a family 43 or friend's house or a shelter in your community. 44 You can ask the officer to take you or help you and your children get 45 to a safe place in your community. 46 They can help connect you to a local domestic violence program. 47 They can help you get to a hospital or clinic for medical care. 48 They can help you get your personal belongings. 49 They must complete a report discussing the incident. They will give you a copy of this police report before they leave the scene. It is 50 51 free. 52 They may, and sometimes must, arrest the person who harmed you if you 53 are the victim of a crime. The person arrested could be released at any 54 time, so it is important to plan for your safety. If you have been abused or threatened, this is what you can ask the 55

56 police or district attorney to do:

1	File a criminal complaint against the person who harmed you.
2	Ask the criminal court to issue an order of protection for you and
3	your child if the district attorney files a criminal case with the
4	court.
5	Give you information about filing a family offense petition in your
6	local family court.
7	You also have the right to ask the family court for an order of
8	protection for you and your children.
9	This is what you can ask the family court to do:
10	To have your family offense petition filed the same day you go to
11	court.
12	To have your request heard in court the same day you file or the next
13	day court is open.
14	Only a judge can issue an order of protection. The judge does that as
15	part of a criminal or family court case against the person who harmed
16	you. An order of protection in family court or in criminal court can
17	say:
18	That the other person have no contact or communication with you by
19	mail, phone, computer or through other people.
20	That the other person stay away from you and your children, your home,
21	iob or school.
22	That the other person not assault, harass, threaten, strangle, or
22	commit another family offense against you or your children.
23 24	That the other person turn in their firearms and firearms licenses,
25	and not get any more firearms.
26	That you have temporary custody of your children.
27	That the other person pay temporary child support.
28	That the other person not harm your pets or service animals.

You have 33 the right to seek legal counsel of your own choosing and if you proceed in family court and if it is determined that you cannot afford an attor-34 35 ney, one must be appointed to represent you without cost to you. 36 You may ask the district attorney or a law enforcement officer to file 37 criminal complaint. You also have the right to file a petition in the a 38 family court when a family offense has been committed against you. You have the right to have your petition and request for an order of 39 protection filed on the same day you appear in court, and such request 40 41 must be heard that same day or the next day court is in session. Either 42 court may iggue an order of protection from conduct constituting a fami-43 ly offense which could include, among other provisions, an order for the 44 respondent or defendant to stay away from you and your children. The 45 family court may also order the payment of temporary child support and 46 award temporary custody of your children. If the family court is not in 47 session, you may seek immediate assistance from the criminal court in obtaining an order of protection. 48 The forms you need to obtain an order of protection are available from 49 the family court and the local criminal court (the addresses and tele-50 51 phone numbers shall be listed). The resources available in this community for information relating to domestic violence, treatment of injuries, 52 53 and places of safety and shelters can be accessed by calling the follow-54 ing 800 numbers (the statewide English and Spanish language 800 numbers 55 shall be listed and space shall be provided for local domestic violence 56 hotline telephone numbers).

11	deaf or hard of hearing, call 711.
12	This is what the police can do:
13	They can help you and your children find a safe place such as a family
14	or friend's house or a shelter in your community.
15	You can ask the officer to take you or help you and your children get
16	to a safe place in your community.
17	They can help connect you to a local domestic violence program.
18	They can help you get to a hospital or clinic for medical care.
19	They can help you get your personal belongings.
20	They must complete a report discussing the incident. They will give
21	you a copy of this police report before they leave the scene. It is
22	free.
23	They may, and sometimes must, arrest the person who harmed you if you
24	are the victim of a crime. The person arrested could be released at any
25	time, so it is important to plan for your safety.
26	If you have been abused or threatened, this is what you can ask the
27	police or district attorney to do:
28	File a criminal complaint against the person who harmed you.
29	Ask the criminal court to issue an order of protection for you and
30	your child if the district attorney files a criminal case with the
31	court.
32	Give you information about filing a family offense petition in your
33	local family court.
34	You also have the right to ask the family court for an order of
35	protection for you and your children.
36	This is what you can ask the family court to do:
37	To have your family offense petition filed the same day you go to
38	court.
39	To have your request heard in court the same day you file or the next
40	day court is open.
41	Only a judge can issue an order of protection. The judge does that as
42	part of a criminal or family court case against the person who harmed
43	you. An order of protection in family court or in criminal court can
44	say:
45	That the other person have no contact or communication with you by
46	mail, phone, computer or through other people.
47	That the other person stay away from you and your children, your home,
48	job or school.
49	That the other person not assault, harass, threaten, strangle, or
50	commit another family offense against you or your children.
51	That the other person turn in their firearms and firearms licenses,
52	and not get any more firearms.
53	That you have temporary custody of your children.
54	That the other person pay temporary child support.
55	That the other person not harm your pets or service animals.
