Introduced by M. of A. BARRETT -- read once and referred to the Committee on Local Governments

AN ACT to amend the general municipal law, in relation to county, city, village or town commissions on human rights

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 239-o of the general municipal law, as amended by 2 chapter 413 of the laws of 1964, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 239-o. Creation, appointment and terms. The governing board of any 4 county, city, village or town may by resolution create a commission on 5 human rights. The governing board shall determine the number of members 6 of such commission, the terms of the members, the manner of appointment 7 of the members, the selection of a chairman and the compensation, if 8 any, to be paid to them. In selecting the membership of the commission, 9 the governing board shall take into consideration the various [~~religious,~~ 10 ~~racial, nationality~~ ages, races, creed, color, national origin,
11 sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, military status, sex,
12 disability, predisposing genetic characteristics, familial status, marital 13 status, domestic violence victim status and political groups in the 14 community. The establishment of such a commission at one level of local 15 government shall not preclude establishment of such a commission at 16 other levels of local government.

17 § 2. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 239-q of the general
18 municipal law, as amended by chapter 958 of the laws of 1968, is amended 19 to read as follows:

20 (a) To foster mutual respect and understanding among all [~~racial,~~ 21 ~~religious and nationality~~ ages, races, creed, color, national origin,
22 sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, military status, sex,
23 disability, predisposing genetic characteristics, familial status, marital 24 status and domestic violence victim status groups in the community.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
