4 (g) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of this chapter or any

10 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

FISCAL NOTE.--Pursuant to Legislative Law, Section 50:

This bill would redefine wages for any police or fire member retiring with an accidental disability benefit provided for in section 507 of Retirement and Social Security Law. Wages shall be determined based on a salary base equal to the highest salary rate available to the rank or title at the time of retirement.

If this bill is enacted during the 2019 legislative session, it is estimated that there would be an additional annual cost of approximately $32,000 which would be shared by the State of New York and the participating employers in the PFRS.
