Introduced by M. of A. SOLAGES -- read once and referred to the Committee on Children and Families

AN ACT authorizing and directing the office of children and family services to conduct a study on the family assessment response program and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. The office of children and family services, in conjunction
2 with the inspector general, is authorized and directed to conduct a
3 study on the family assessment response program. Such study shall:
- 4 (a) determine if the program is accomplishing the program's intended 5 goals;
- 6 (b) determine if the program is being operated as designed;
- 7 (c) identify areas where the program can be improved;
- 8 (d) suggest changes to the program to improve areas where the program
9 needs improvement;
- 10 (e) specify why certain areas of the program require changes;
- 11 (f) identify if localities should be designing family assessment
12 response programs or following a template that has been vetted and 13 crafted by the state;
- 14 (g) determine if the program is worth expanding across the state,
15 making the program either an opt-out or mandatory program; and
- 16 (h) examining the expected expansion of the family assessment response
17 program into New York City including, but not limited to:
- 18 (i) how has the program worked in New York City prior to the expansion;
19 and
- 20 (ii) expected outcomes for child welfare investigations in the city;
21 and
- 22 (i) study anything else the office of children and family services or 23 the inspector general determines necessary to determine if the family
