as to why the court has made a provisional sex offender risk level determination which departs from such presumptions.

- 3. A provisional sex offender risk level determination may be effective for a period not to exceed ninety days. Such a determination, during the period it is in effect, shall have the same legal force as a judicial determination following a hearing pursuant to section one hundred sixty-eight-n of this article. Upon a determination pursuant to section one hundred sixty-eight-n of this article, that determination shall replace and supercede a provisional sex offender risk level determination. A provisional sex offender risk level determination shall not be deemed to have any presumptive effect or evidentiary value with respect to a determination pursuant to section one hundred sixty-eight-n of this article. A person subject to a provisional sex offender risk level determination shall have the same right to counsel as provided pursuant to section one hundred sixty-eight-n of this article.
- 4. A provisional sex offender risk level determination may not be issued without a defendant's consent, provided, however, that if it is anticipated a defendant will be discharged, paroled or released from a correctional facility, local correctional facility or hospital prior to a judicial determination pursuant to section one hundred sixty-eight-n of this article, such consent shall not be required. The court shall allow the parties to be heard in writing or on the record prior to the setting of a provisional sex offender risk level determination, but a defendant's personal appearance shall not be required prior to the setting of such a provisional risk level.
- 5. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, to prevent the posting of risk level information on the internet which may not accurately reflect an offender's final risk level determination, provisional sex offender risk level determinations shall not be posted on the internet pursuant to section one hundred sixty-eight-q of this article or other provisions of this article, provided, however, that upon a judicial determination of a sex offender's risk level pursuant to section one hundred sixty-eight-n of this article, the division shall promptly place the required information for any level two or three sex offender on the subdirectory established pursuant to section one hundred sixtyeight-q of this article and make such listing available at all times on the internet via the division homepage, pursuant to such section.
- 38 § 2. The opening paragraph of subdivision 6 of section 168-1 of the 39 correction law, as amended by chapter 11 of the laws of 2002, is amended 40 to read as follows:

Applying these guidelines, the board shall [within sixty] at least ninety calendar days prior to the discharge, parole, release to post-release supervision or release of a sex offender make a recommendation which shall be confidential and shall not be available for public inspection, to the sentencing court as to whether such sex offender warrants the designation of sexual predator, sexually violent offender, or predicate sex offender as defined in subdivision seven of section one hundred sixty-eight-a of this article. In addition, the guidelines shall be applied by the board to make a recommendation to the sentencing court which shall be confidential and shall not be available for public inspection, providing for one of the following three levels of notification depending upon the degree of the risk of re-offense by the sex offender.

§ 3. Subdivision 2 of section 168-n of the correction law, as amended by chapter 453 of the laws of 1999, is amended to read as follows: 55
