Introduced by M. of A. O'DONNELL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the civil practice law and rules, in relation to requiring all personal injury or wrongful death causes of action to include a prayer for general relief; and to amend the general municipal law, in relation to exempting notices of claim from such requirement

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision (b) of rule 305 of the civil practice law and 2 rules, as amended by chapter 528 of the laws of 1978, is amended to read 3 as follows:

4 (b) Summons and notice. If the complaint is not served with the
5 summons, the summons shall contain or have attached thereto a notice
6 stating the nature of the action and the relief sought[7] and, except in 7 [an action for medical malprastice] actions for personal injury or
8 wrongful death, the sum of money for which judgment may be taken in case
9 of default.

10 § 2. Subdivision (c) of section 3017 of the civil practice law and 11 rules, as amended by chapter 694 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read 12 as follows:

13 (c) Personal injury or wrongful death actions. In an action to recover 14 damages for personal injuries or wrongful death, the complaint, summons with notice, counterclaim, cross-claim, interpleader complaint, and 15 third-party complaint shall contain a prayer for general relief but 16 shall not state the amount of damages to which the pleader deems himself 17 18 or herself entitled. If the action is brought in the supreme court, the 19 pleading shall also state whether or not the amount of damages sought 20 exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would other-21 wise have jurisdiction. Provided, however, that a party against whom an 22 action to recover damages for personal injuries or wrongful death is 23 brought, may at any time request a supplemental demand setting forth the

1 total damages to which the pleader deems himself or herself entitled. A 2 supplemental demand shall be provided by the party bringing the action 3 within fifteen days of the request. In the event the supplemental demand 4 is not served within fifteen days, the court, on motion, may order that 5 it be served. A supplemental demand served pursuant to this subdivision 6 shall be treated in all respects as a demand made pursuant to subdivi-7 sion (a) of this section.

8 § 3. Subdivision 2 of section 50-e of the general municipal law, as 9 amended by chapter 62 of the laws of 1983, is amended to read as 10 follows:

2. Form of notice; contents. The notice shall be in writing, sworn to 11 by or on behalf of the claimant, and shall set forth: (1) the name and 12 post-office address of each claimant, and of his or her attorney, if 13 14 any; (2) the nature of the claim; (3) the time when, the place where and 15 the manner in which the claim arose; and (4) the items of damage or 16 injuries claimed to have been sustained so far as then practicable but a 17 notice with respect to a claim against a municipal corporation [other than a city with a population of one million or more persons] shall not 18 state the amount of damages to which the claimant deems himself or 19 20 herself entitled, provided, however, that the municipal corporation[7 21 other than a city with a population of one million or more persons, [may at any time request a supplemental claim setting forth the total damages 22 to which the claimant deems himself or herself entitled. A supplemental 23 claim shall be provided by the claimant within fifteen days of the 24 25 request. In the event the supplemental demand is not served within 26 fifteen days, the court, on motion, may order that it be provided by the 27 claimant.

28 § 4. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 29 have become a law, and shall apply to actions commenced on or after such 30 date.
