Introduced by M. of A. WOERNER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Real Property Taxation

AN ACT in relation to directing the state board of real property tax services to conduct a study on real property tax saturation

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. For purposes of this act, the term "real property tax saturation" shall be considered a broad term that encompasses the impact of
2 high percentages of tax exempt real property within a municipality on
3 the overall economic viability of the municipality.

4 § 2. The state board of real property tax services is authorized and
5 directed to conduct a study on real property tax saturation. Such study
6 shall include, but not be limited to:

7 (a) the percentage of real property within each county of the state
8 that is exempt from real property taxation;

9 (b) in counties where there is a high percentage of real property
10 exempt from real property taxation, the impact of such exempt real prop-
11 erty on:

12 (i) the housing market in the county, including new construction;

13 (ii) the growth of new small businesses in the county, if any;

14 (iii) the growth of new jobs in the county, if any;

15 (iv) the population growth of the county, if any;

16 (v) the number of tax exempt not-for-profit organizations in the coun-
17 ty;

18 (vi) the percentage of dedicated park land in the county;

19 (vii) any other information the board deems appropriate;

20 (c) feasible revisions to real property tax policies, procedures and
21 practices that reduce the tax burden in properties within the county
22 that are subject to real property taxation; and

23 (d) strategies that will support an equitable distribution of real
24 property taxation within the county.
