Introduced by M. of A. REYES -- read once and referred to the Committee on Consumer Affairs and Protection

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to enacting the "New York state federal worker credit protection act"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as 2 the "New York state federal worker credit protection act".
- 3 § 2. Section 380-v of the general business law, as relettered by chap-4 ter 441 of the laws of 2014, is renumbered section 380-w and a new 5 section 380-v is added to read as follows:
- § 380-v. Reporting information of furloughed federal employees. (a) As used in this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:
- 9 (1) "Furloughed federal employee" means:
- 10 (i) a federal or District of Columbia employee who is furloughed or 11 excepted from furlough during a shutdown; or
- 12 (ii) a federal contractor who, during a shutdown, is not receiving pay
 13 by reason of such shutdown.
- 14 (2) "Shutdown" means any lapse in discretionary appropriations by the 15 federal government.
- (b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary and upon request of a furloughed federal employee, a person that furnishes information to any consumer reporting agency shall not provide negative credit information of such furloughed federal employee to a consumer reporting agency if the action or inaction to which such negative credit information relates originated, and was rectified, during the period
- 22 beginning thirty days before a shutdown and ending ninety days after
- 23 such shutdown.
- 24 (c) With respect to any negative credit information described in 25 subdivision (b) of this section and upon request of the furloughed

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.

1031. Waiver of late fees.

1032. Stay of payments during a shutdown.

§ 1030. Definitions. As used in this section the following terms shall have the following meanings:

- 1. "Furloughed federal employee" means:
- 16 (a) a federal or District of Columbia employee who is furloughed or 17 excepted from furlough during a shutdown; or
- 18 (b) a federal contractor who, during a shutdown, is not receiving pay 19 by reason of such shutdown.
- 20 2. "Shutdown" means any lapse in discretionary appropriations by the 21 federal government.
- § 1031. Waiver of late fees. Any entity regulated by the department of financial services shall waive any fine or penalty a furloughed federal employee owes or would owe during the duration of a shutdown based upon the inability of such furloughed federal employee to pay a civil obligation or other liability due to such shutdown. The department of financial services shall promulgate rules and regulations regarding the documentation to be provided by a furloughed federal employee to demonstrate such inability.
- 30 § 1032. Stay of payments during a shutdown. A furloughed federal 31 employee may apply to a court for a temporary stay, postponement, or 32 suspension with respect to any payment of a civil obligation or liability that the furloughed federal employee owes or would owe during the 33 34 duration of the shutdown. A court shall grant such temporary stay, post-35 ponement, or suspension upon a determination that the ability of such 36 furloughed federal employee to perform the obligation was materially 37 affected by the shutdown.
 - § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
