30 accommodation. In any action or proceeding brought pursuant to this 31 subparagraph a prevailing tenant shall be entitled to recovery of actual 32 damages, and reasonable attorneys' fees. This subparagraph shall not be

48 of this act. Such regulations shall prohibit practices which are likely 49 to prevent any person from asserting any right or remedy granted by this 50 act, including but not limited to retaliatory termination of periodic 51 tenancies and shall require owners to grant a new one or two year vacan-
52 cy or renewal lease at the option of the tenant, except where a mortgage 53 or mortgage commitment existing as of the local effective date of this 54 act provides that the owner shall not grant a one-year lease; and shall 55 prescribe standards with respect to the terms and conditions of new and 56 renewal leases, additional rent and such related matters as security

1 deposits, advance rental payments, the use of escalator clauses in leas-
2 es and provision for increase in rentals for garages and other ancillary 3 facilities, so as to [~~insure~~] ensure that the level of rent adjustments 4 authorized under this law will not be subverted and made ineffective.
5 Any provision of the regulations permitting an owner to refuse to renew 6 a lease on grounds that the owner seeks to recover possession of a hous-
7 ing accommodation for his or her own use and occupancy or for the use 8 and occupancy of his or her immediate family shall permit recovery of 9 only one housing accommodation, shall require that an owner demonstrate 10 immediate and compelling need and that the housing accommodation will be 11 the proposed occupants' primary residence and shall not apply where a 12 member of the housing accommodation is sixty-two years of age or older,

16 alcohol, gambling, or any controlled substance, which are demonstrable 17 by medically acceptable clinical and laboratory diagnostic techniques, 18 and which are expected to be permanent and which prevent the tenant from 19 engaging in any substantial gainful employment; provided, however, that 20 a tenant required to surrender a housing accommodation [~~by virtue of the~~ 21 ~~operation of subdivision g or h of section 26-408 of the administrative~~ 22 ~~code of the city of New York~~] under this subdivision shall have a cause 23 of action in any court of competent jurisdiction for damages, declarato-24 ry, and injunctive relief against a landlord or purchaser of the prem-

26 housing accommodation. In any action or proceeding brought pursuant to 27 this subdivision a prevailing tenant shall be entitled to recovery of 28 actual damages, and reasonable attorneys' fees.

35 or her own personal use and occupancy as his or her primary residence or 36 for the use and occupancy of his or her immediate family as their prima-37 ry residence; provided, however, this subdivision shall permit recovery 38 of only one housing accommodation and shall not apply where a member of 39 the household lawfully occupying the housing accommodation is sixty-two 40 years of age or older, has been a tenant in a housing accommodation in 41 that building for fifteen years or more, or has an impairment which 42 results from anatomical, physiological or psychological conditions, 43 other than addiction to alcohol, gambling, or any controlled substance,
44 which are demonstrable by medically acceptable clinical and laboratory 45 diagnostic techniques, and which are expected to be permanent and which 46 prevent the tenant from engaging in any substantial gainful employment;
47 provided, however, that a tenant required to surrender a housing accom-

52 lord or purchaser of the premises who makes a fraudulent statement 53 regarding a proposed use of the housing accommodation. In any action or 54 proceeding brought pursuant to this paragraph a prevailing tenant shall 55 be entitled to recovery of actual damages, and reasonable attorneys' 56 fees; or
