educate and protect state, county, and local government entities, crit-1 2 ical infrastructure, including election systems, businesses, and citi-3 zens of this state from cyber attacks. In the case of an emergency 4 proclaimed by the governor, or caused by illicit actors or imminent 5 danger, the governor, as commander-in-chief, shall expand the reserve as б the exigency of the occasion requires. 7 2. The reserve shall be a part of the New York organized militia under 8 the adjutant general's department. The reserve shall be known as the New 9 York cyber reserve. The adjutant general shall establish and may revise, 10 the rates of pay for reserve members when called to state active duty. While performing any drill or training, reserve members shall serve in 11 an unpaid volunteer status. When called to state active duty by the 12 governor, reserve members shall function as civilian members of the 13 14 organized militia. § 351. Rules and regulations; civilian cyber security reserve forces. 15 16 The governor may adopt rules and regulations consistent with the provisions of law governing the membership, organization, adminis-17 tration, equipment, and maintenance of the New York cyber reserve. A 18 19 copy of the rules and regulations shall be available to the public in 20 the adjutant general's office. 21 § 352. Equipment. The governor may requisition from the United States department of defense, for the use of the New York cyber reserve, equip-22 ment that may be in the possession and can be furnished by the depart-23 24 ment, and make available to the reserve the facilities of state armories 25 and equipment and other state premises and property that may be avail-26 able. 27 § 353. Restrictions. This article shall not authorize the New York cyber reserve, or any part thereof, to be called or ordered into the 28 29 military service of the Unites States. The reserve may become a civilian 30 component of the New York national guard. 31 § 354. Membership. 1. No person shall be accepted into the New York 32 cyber reserve who is not a United States national or a lawful permanent resident, or who has been expelled or dishonorably discharged from the 33 34 armed forces. Applicants shall be subject to an appropriate background 35 check, in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the governor and adjutant general before admittance into the reserve. 36 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, no person 37 38 shall be disqualified from acceptance into the New York cyber reserve on the basis that the person is an employee of the state or a political 39 subdivision of the state, or an employee or proprietor of a private 40 41 entity that conducts business with the state or a political subdivision 42 of the state. § 355. New York code of military justice. Whenever the New York cyber 43 44 reserve, or any part thereof, is ordered out for active service by the 45 governor, the New York code of military justice shall be in full force 46 with respect to those forces. 47 § 356. Resignation. 1. The governor may accept the resignation of any 48 New York cyber reserve member at any time. Reserve members serve at the pleasure of the governor and may be removed from the reserve in accord-49 ance with rules and regulations adopted under article seven of this 50 51 chapter. 2. The governor may require reimbursement for training, equipment, and 52 53 uniforms if a New York cyber reserve member does not serve the full term of the member's membership agreement and the inability to serve out the 54 55 term of the membership agreement was not due to disability or similar 56 disabling medical condition.
