Introduced by M. of A. JEAN-PIERRE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to the power to revoke or suspend the license of a real estate broker or salesman

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 441-c of the real 2 property law, as amended by chapter 81 of the laws of 1995, is amended 3 to read as follows:

4 (a) The department of state may revoke the license of a real estate
5 broker or salesman or suspend the same, for such period as the depart-6 ment may deem proper, or in lieu thereof may impose a fine not exceeding 7 one thousand dollars payable to the department of state, or a reprimand 8 upon conviction of the licensee of a violation of any provision of this 9 article, or for a material misstatement in the application for such 10 license, or if such licensee has been guilty of fraud or fraudulent
11 practices, or for dishonest or misleading advertising, or has demon-
12 strated untrustworthiness or incompetency to act as a real estate broker 13 or salesman, or for a violation of the human rights law committed in his 14 or her capacity as a real estate broker or salesman, as the case may be.
15 In the case of a real estate broker engaged in the business of a tenant 16 relocater, untrustworthiness or incompetency shall include engaging in 17 any course of conduct including, but not limited to, the interruption or 18 discontinuance of essential building service, that interferes with or 19 disturbs the peace, comfort, repose and quiet enjoyment of a tenant.

20 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
