signs of intent to marry or become a domestic partner under paragraph (a) or (b) of this subdivision; or the length of the personal relationship of the persons.

Each party to a domestic partnership shall be considered to be the domestic partner of the other party. "Domestic partner" shall not include a person who is related to the other person by blood in a manner that would bar marriage to the other person in New York state. "Domestic partner" also shall not include any person who is less than eighteen years of age or who is the adopted child of the other person or who is related by blood in a manner that would bar marriage in New York state to a person who is the lawful spouse of the other person.

- § 3. Subdivision 4 of section 626 of the executive law, as added by section 3 of a chapter of the laws of 2019 amending the executive law relating to the eligibility of domestic partners for compensation from the crime victims' board, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 4958 and A. 2566, is REPEALED.
- § 4. Subdivision 1 of section 626 of the executive law, as amended by chapter 104 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:
- 1. Out-of-pocket loss shall mean unreimbursed and unreimbursable expenses or indebtedness reasonably incurred for medical care or other services necessary as a result of the injury upon which such claim is based, including such expenses incurred as a result of the exacerbation a pre-existing disability or condition directly resulting from the crime or causally related to the crime. Such expenses or indebtedness include the cost of counseling for the eligible spouse, domestic partner, grandparents, parents, stepparents, quardians, sisters, stepbrothers, stepsisters, children, stepchildren or grandchildren of a homicide victim, and crime victims who have sustained a personal physical injury as the direct result of a crime and the spouse, children or stepchildren of such physically injured victim. For the purposes of this subdivision, the victim of a sex offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law is presumed to have suffered 33 physical injury. Such counseling may be provided by local victim service programs, where available. It shall also include the cost of residing at 34 or utilizing services provided by shelters for battered spouses and children who are eligible pursuant to subdivision two of section six hundred twenty-four of this article, and the cost of reasonable attorneys' fees for representation before the office and/or before the appellate division upon judicial review not to exceed one thousand dollars.
  - Paragraph (e) of subdivision 5 of section 631 of the executive law, as amended by section 22 of part A1 of chapter 56 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:
    - (e) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of this article, where a police officer or firefighter, both paid and volunteer, dies from injuries received in the line of duty as a direct result of a crime, the office may, without regard to the financial difficulty of the claimant, make an award for the unreimbursed counseling expenses of the eligible spouse, domestic partner, parents, brothers, sisters or children of such victim, and/or the reasonable burial expenses incurred by the claimant.
  - § 6. Section 4 of a chapter of the laws of 2019 amending the executive law relating to the eligibility of domestic partners for compensation from the crime victims' board, as proposed in legislative bills numbers 4958 and A. 2566, is amended to read as follows:
- 54 § 4. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 55 it shall have become a law and shall apply to claims filed on or after such date.

A. 8959

§ 7. This act shall take effect on the same date and in the same manner as a chapter of the laws of 2019 amending the executive law relating to eligibility of domestic partners for compensation from the crime victims' board, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 4958 and A. 2566, takes effect.
