10 11 the laws of two thousand nineteen that amended subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph, shall pay a rental surcharge computed on the basis of an income limitation of seven times the rental and families with three or more dependents eligible for admission or continued occupancy pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph or subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph prior to the effective date of a chapter of the laws of two thousand nineteen that amended subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph, shall pay a rental surcharge computed on the basis of an income limitation of eight times the cost of the rental, including in each instance the value or cost to the persons or families of heat, light, water and cooking fuel, of the dwellings furnished to such persons or families.

The "probable aggregate annual income" in the case of dwelling accom-12 13 modations means the annual income of the chief wage earner of the fami-14 ly, plus all other income of other members of the family over the age of 15 twenty-one years, plus a proportion of income of gainfully employed 16 members under the age of twenty-one years, the proportion to be deter-17 mined by the company as approved by the commissioner or the supervising agency, as the case may be, excluding therefrom a deduction of fifteen 18 thousand dollars from the income of secondary wage earners of the family 19 20 or a larger deduction if approved by the commissioner or the supervising 21 agency, as the case may be, except that the company, as approved by the 22 commissioner or the supervising agency, as the case may be, may exclude 23 a proportion of the income of other members of the family over the age 24 of twenty-one years for the purpose of determining eligibility for 25 admission or continued occupancy, or for establishing the rental of such 26 family, or for all such purposes; in the case of such non-housekeeping 27 accommodations it means the annual income of the occupant, provided that 28 the commissioner or supervising agency, as the case may be, may make 29 rules and regulations relative to the allocation of the income of a 30 family among the members thereof for the purpose of determining the 31 income attributable to such occupant.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the same date and in the same manner as a chapter of the laws of 2019, amending the private housing finance law relating to the aggregate annual income of low income persons or families eligible for accommodations in a company project, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S.4133 and A.5350, takes effect.
